Dedication . . .

Almost 200 years of dedicated service in the Society of Jesus is the proud achievement of these four Jesuit priests.

Fr. Thomas Finnegan, S.J. (third from left), a golden jubilarian in 1959, is no stranger to Marquette. He spent his prep school days at the old Marquette Academy, at 10th and State. Then, in 1928, he was appointed principal of the new Marquette High school, remaining in this post for ten years. He returned to his alma mater, after service at Jesuit schools and parishes throughout the midwest, in 1956. As counsellor, confessor, speaker and friend, Father Finnegan is year by year contributing increasingly more to the Marquette tradition.

Fr. John Berens, S.J. is a native of Green Bay. Father Berens, ordained May 18, 1918, holds the honored distinction of being a member of the Jesuit order longer than any other priest presently stationed at Marquette. He moved here in 1955 from St. Mary's, Kansas, where he served as pastor of Immaculate Conception church.

Fr. Vincent Ward, S.J. helped Marquette students ever since he came to the Hilltop from Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Missouri, in 1945. A teacher of Latin and religion for most of his years here, he is at present spiritual father to the Jesuit community.

Fr. Richard Forrey, S.J. donned a Jesuit blackrobe for the first time on August 6, 1919. Like Father Ward, he taught at Rockhurst College. He began teaching at Marquette in 1946, and since then has taught English, Latin and Religion to successive waves of Marquette students. Father Forrey's friendliness and keen sense of humor make him a favorite with his Junior English classes.

To these four men, in humble recognition for the loyal service rendered to Marquette High school and her student body, we, the Class of 1960, dedicate our yearbook.

FACULTY

ACADEMIC

Behind him the Vision of Ignatius and Xavier—the magnificent tradition of Jesuit education; before him a sea of heads, a sea upon which the world will someday sink or swim. A hand is raised and a question is asked. He must be able to answer this question and hundreds, thousands, of others. It is he who must act as instructor, counselor, guide, and friend. This great responsibility of Catholic education has been realized by Marquette High and accepted by a fine team of laymen, scholastics, and priests. Many members of this team have carried this responsibility for the last 10 to 20 or more years; some are now well on their way to the ranks of the veterans; some are just beginning their record of long service. Marquette High is grateful to these men—men of a gigantic vision—men of the tradition of Ignatius and Xavier.

Made meaningful the lessons of our lives

They guided us throughout our Marquette years,

"THE FIRST ORDER of business, gentlemen, is this: Are we here to balance the books or to fix the books?" Fr. Richard T. Jones, S.J., president of Marquette High, talks over the school's financial problems with accountant J. J. Schmitz and Business Manager Mr. Z. W. Day.

"SURE, I'D BE GLAD to write it for you," says sympathetic Marquette High principal, Fr. Daniel Laughlin, S.J., to an inquiring student.

Assured us many a quiet, peaceful day . . .

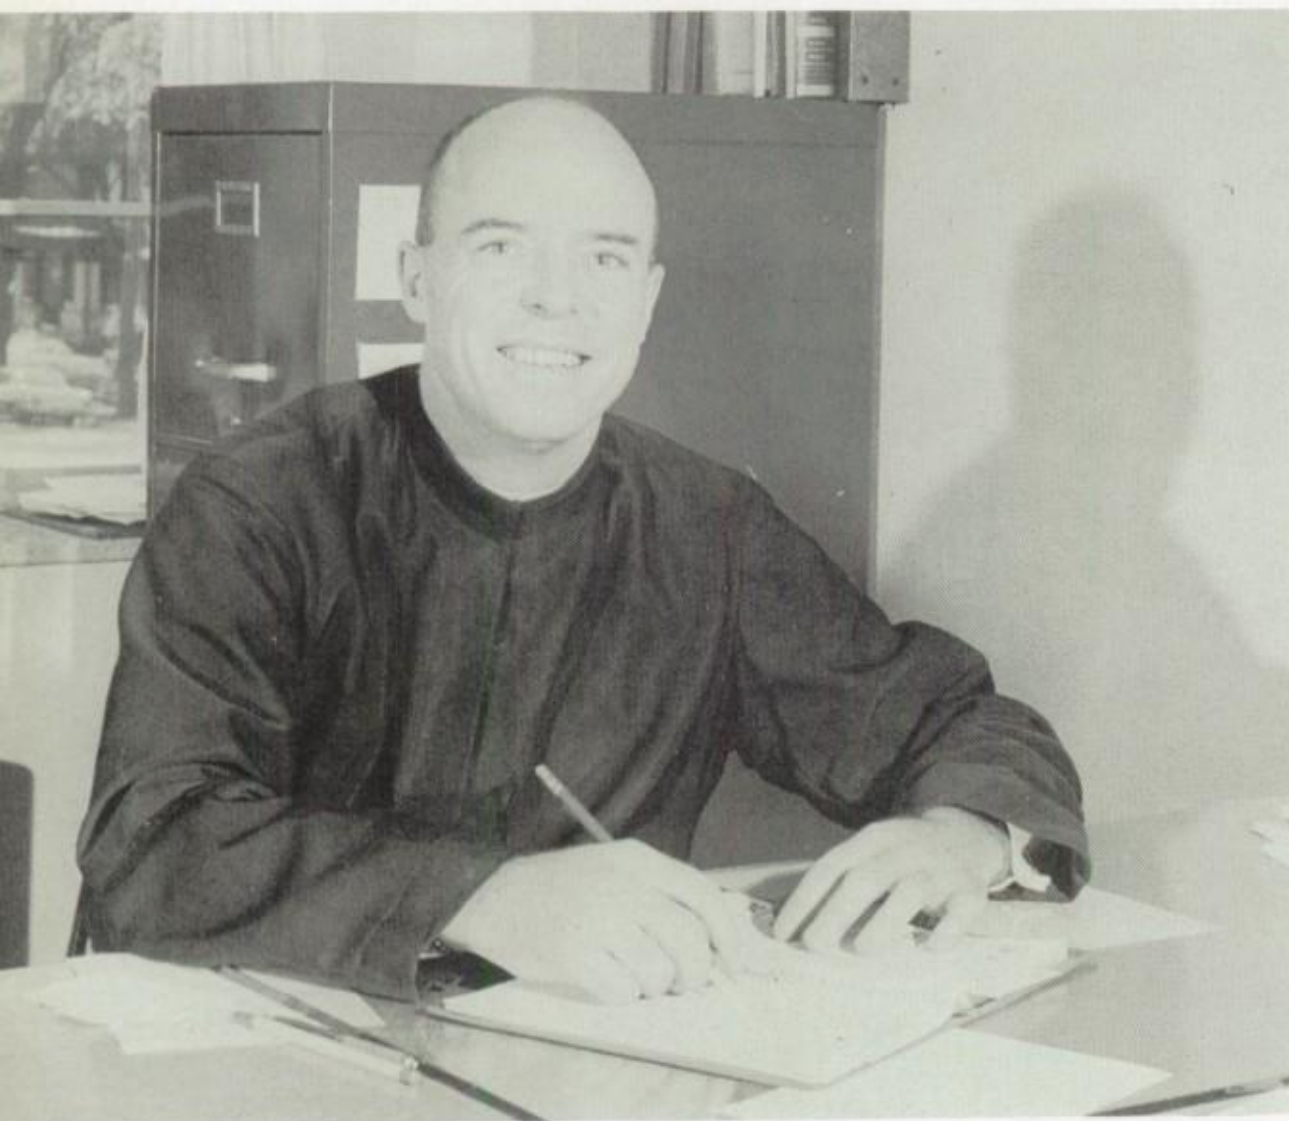

ADMINISTRATION

"SURE I'D BE MORE than happy to return your pen," says congenial Assistant Principal, Fr. Jerome T. Boyle, S.J. Father Boyle, who has been a landmark at Marquette for almost 20 years, is president of the Fathers' Club, religion teacher and counselor to students and alumni.

And others helped; their labors and their toil

THE FRIENDLY PADRE who keeps the boilers boiling and the Jesuit residence running is Fr. Robert Flahavan, S.J., building and grounds superintendent, minister of the Jesuit community and moderator of the Marquette High Mothers' Guild.

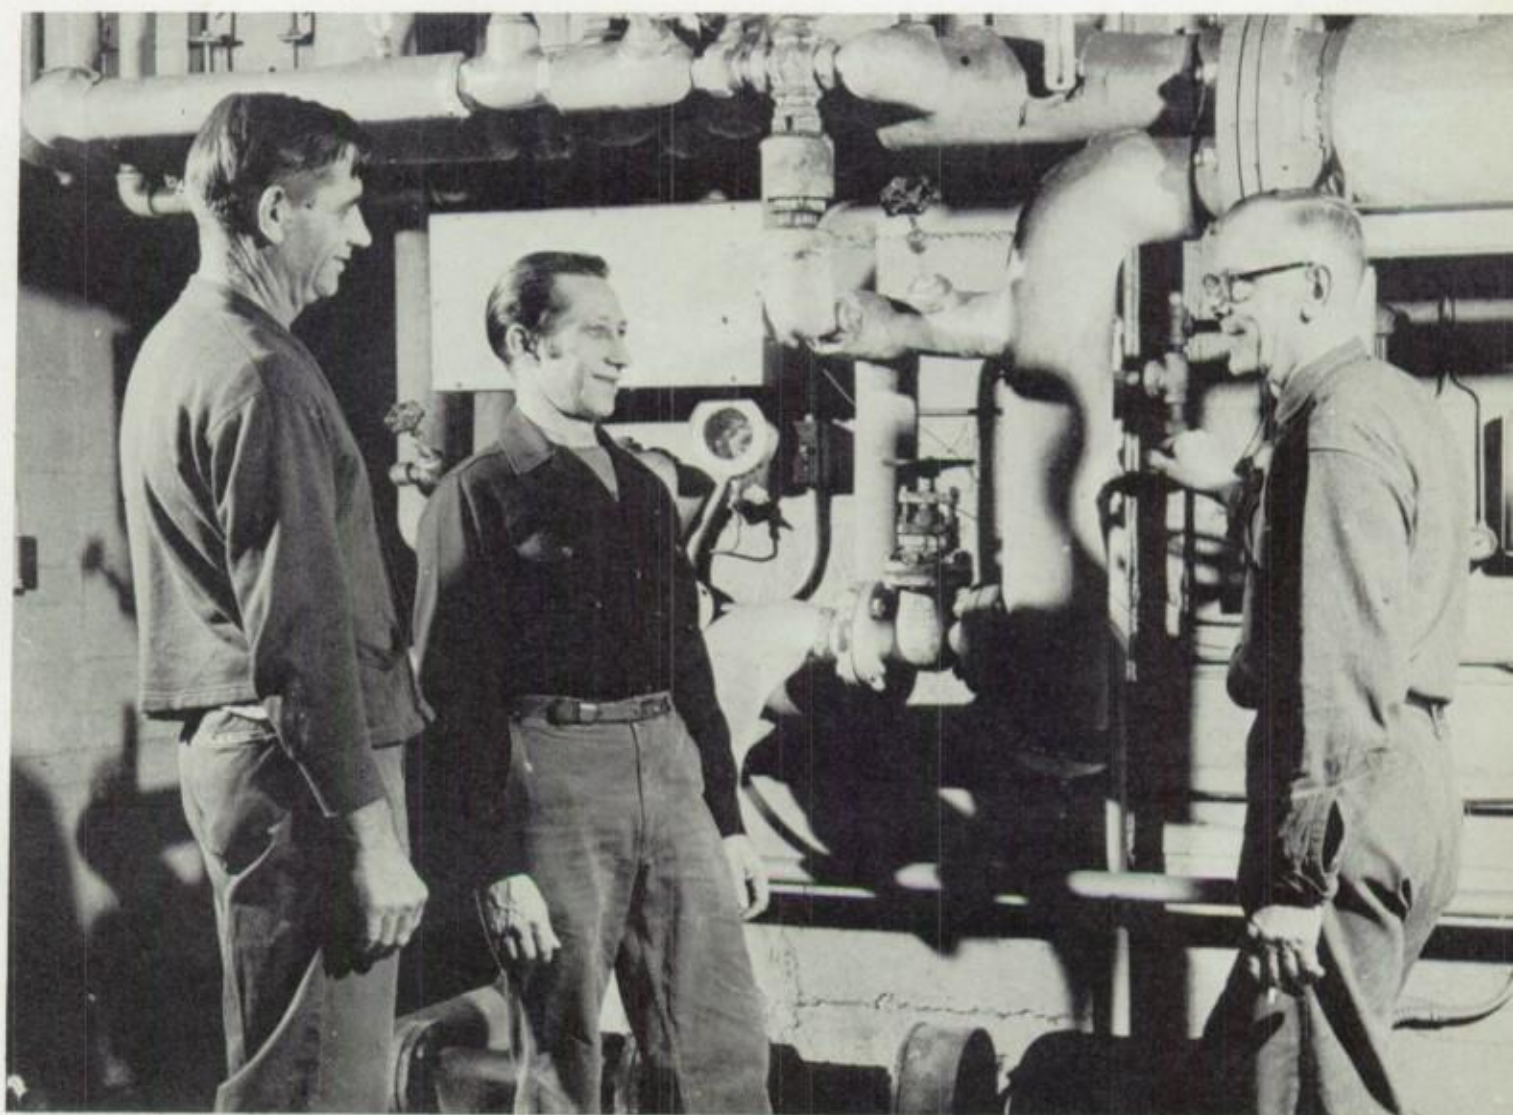

KINDLY COUNSEL and helpful information are dispensed daily to Marquette students by Miss Lenore Cahill, high school registrar and general office secretary. Miss Cahill has been serving Marquette for almost 10 years.

THE AMIABLE ASSISTANTS to Father Flahavan in work around the high school and the residence are Marion Reichmuth, S.J., and Robert Joyce, S.J., pictured in the residence garden. Brother Reichmuth helped at Marquette this year while studying medicine at the University. Brother Joyce is assistant building and grounds superintendent at Marquette.

OPERATING

Enabled us to study, worry-free . . .

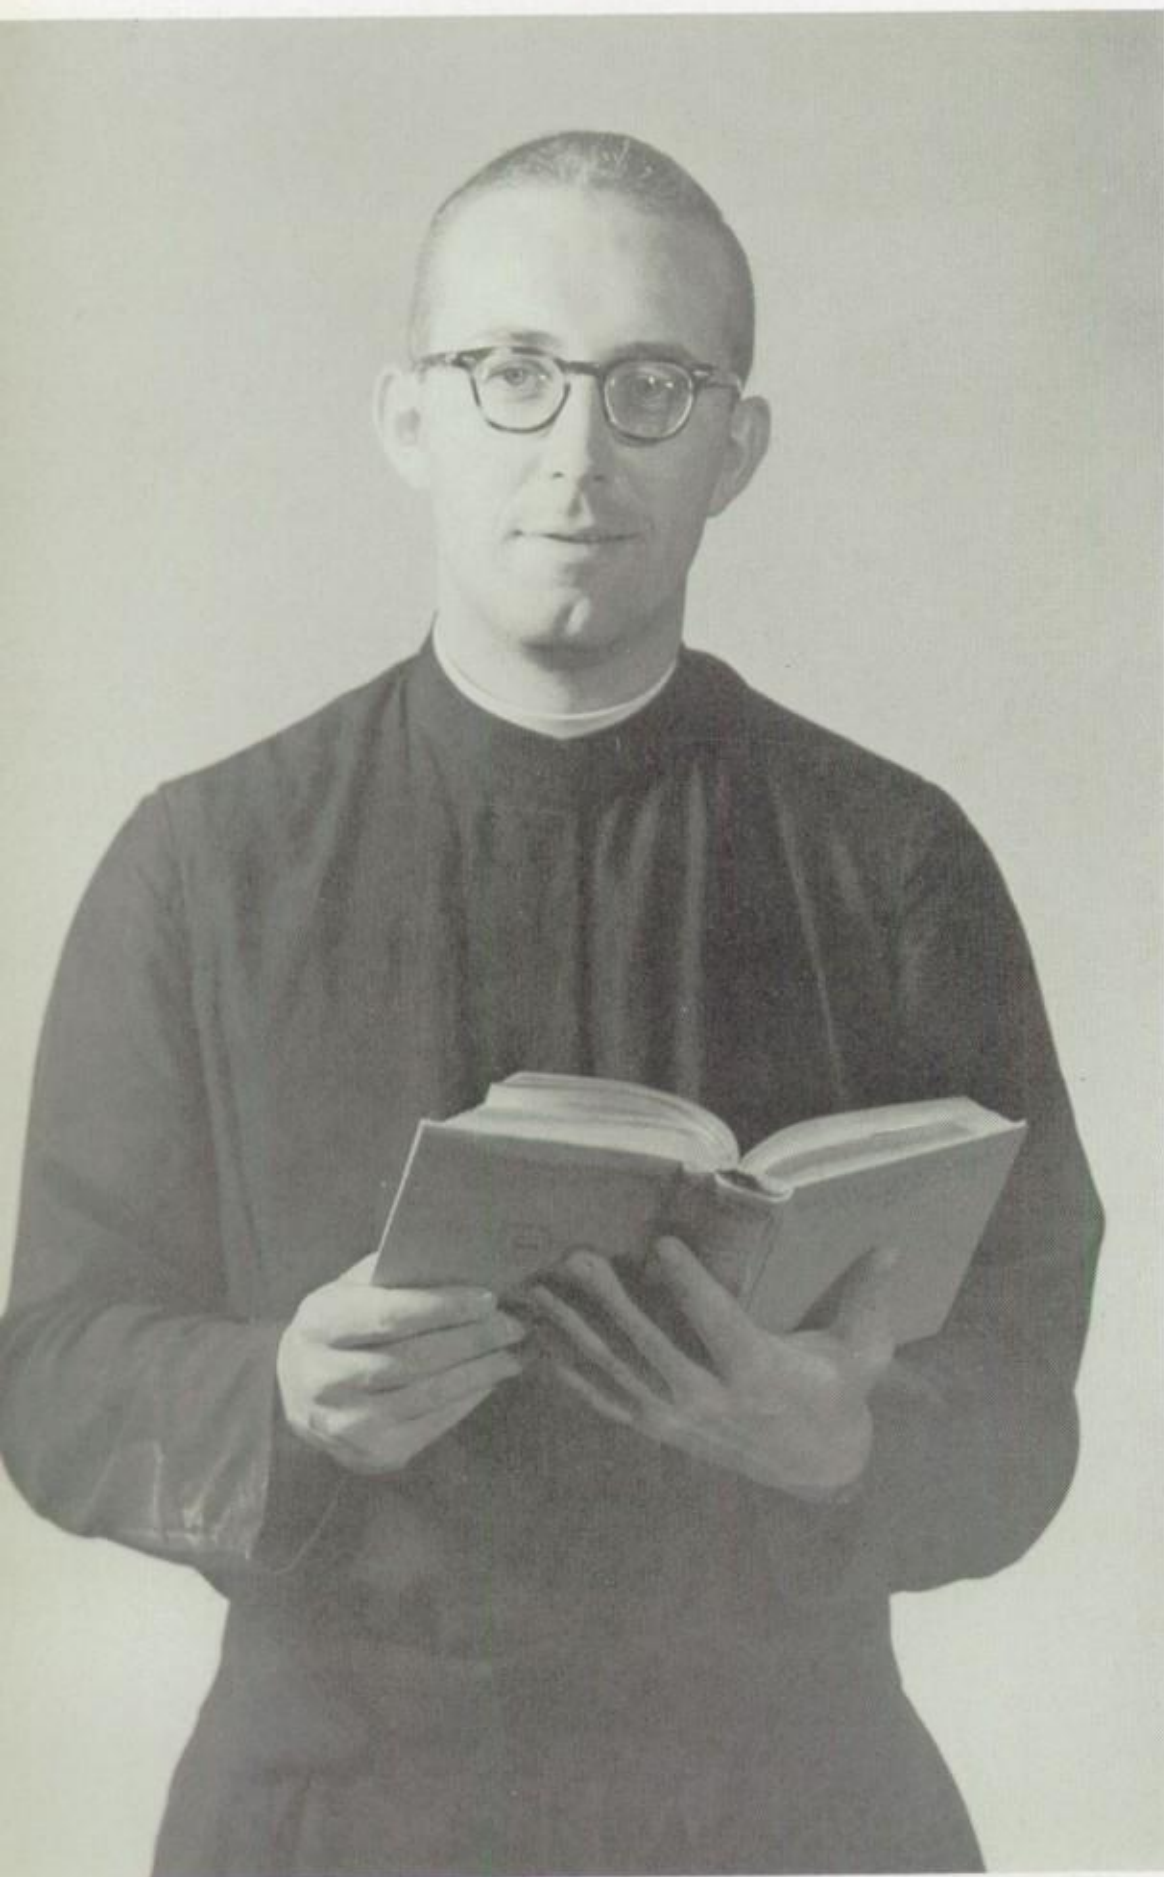

FIRING THE FURNACE is just one of the tasks that keep Marquette maintenance men Joe Stachowiak, Frank Dmytriw, and Julius Kakulis, busy, in the day-in-and-day-out work of taking care of Marquette buildings.

BETTER BISCUITS and hot meals for hungry Marquette students and faculty members are provided by cooks Mrs. Elsie Meyers, Mr. Alex Sliwa and Mrs. Jennie Litzau. A feature of the lunchroom program this year was a 40 cent Thanksgiving dinner, complete with trimmings, on the Wednesday before Turkey day.

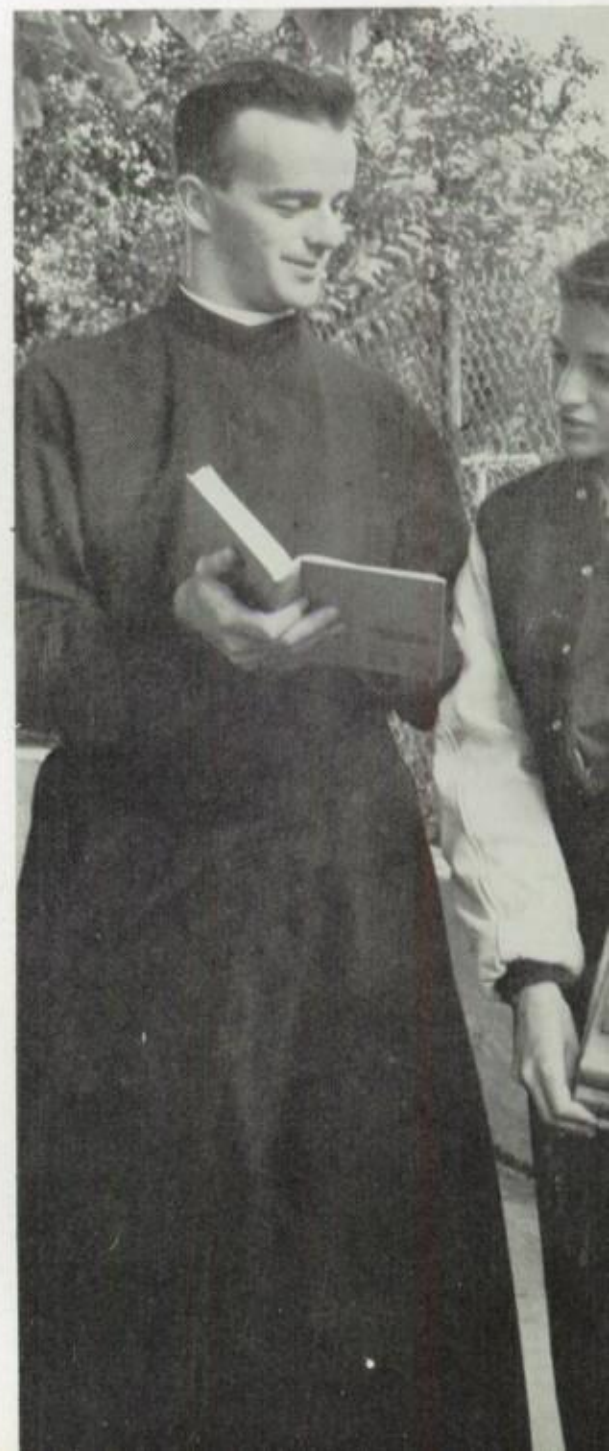

STAFF

The world of books! Oh, joy beyond compare!

"AND SO, the beastly dragon carried away the fair damsel." Mr. Kenney, the freshman's friend, relates another tale of woe to his charges. Besides teaching Directed Reading, English and Religion classes, Mr. Kenney heads a Catholic action group and coaches frosh football, frosh basketball and golf.

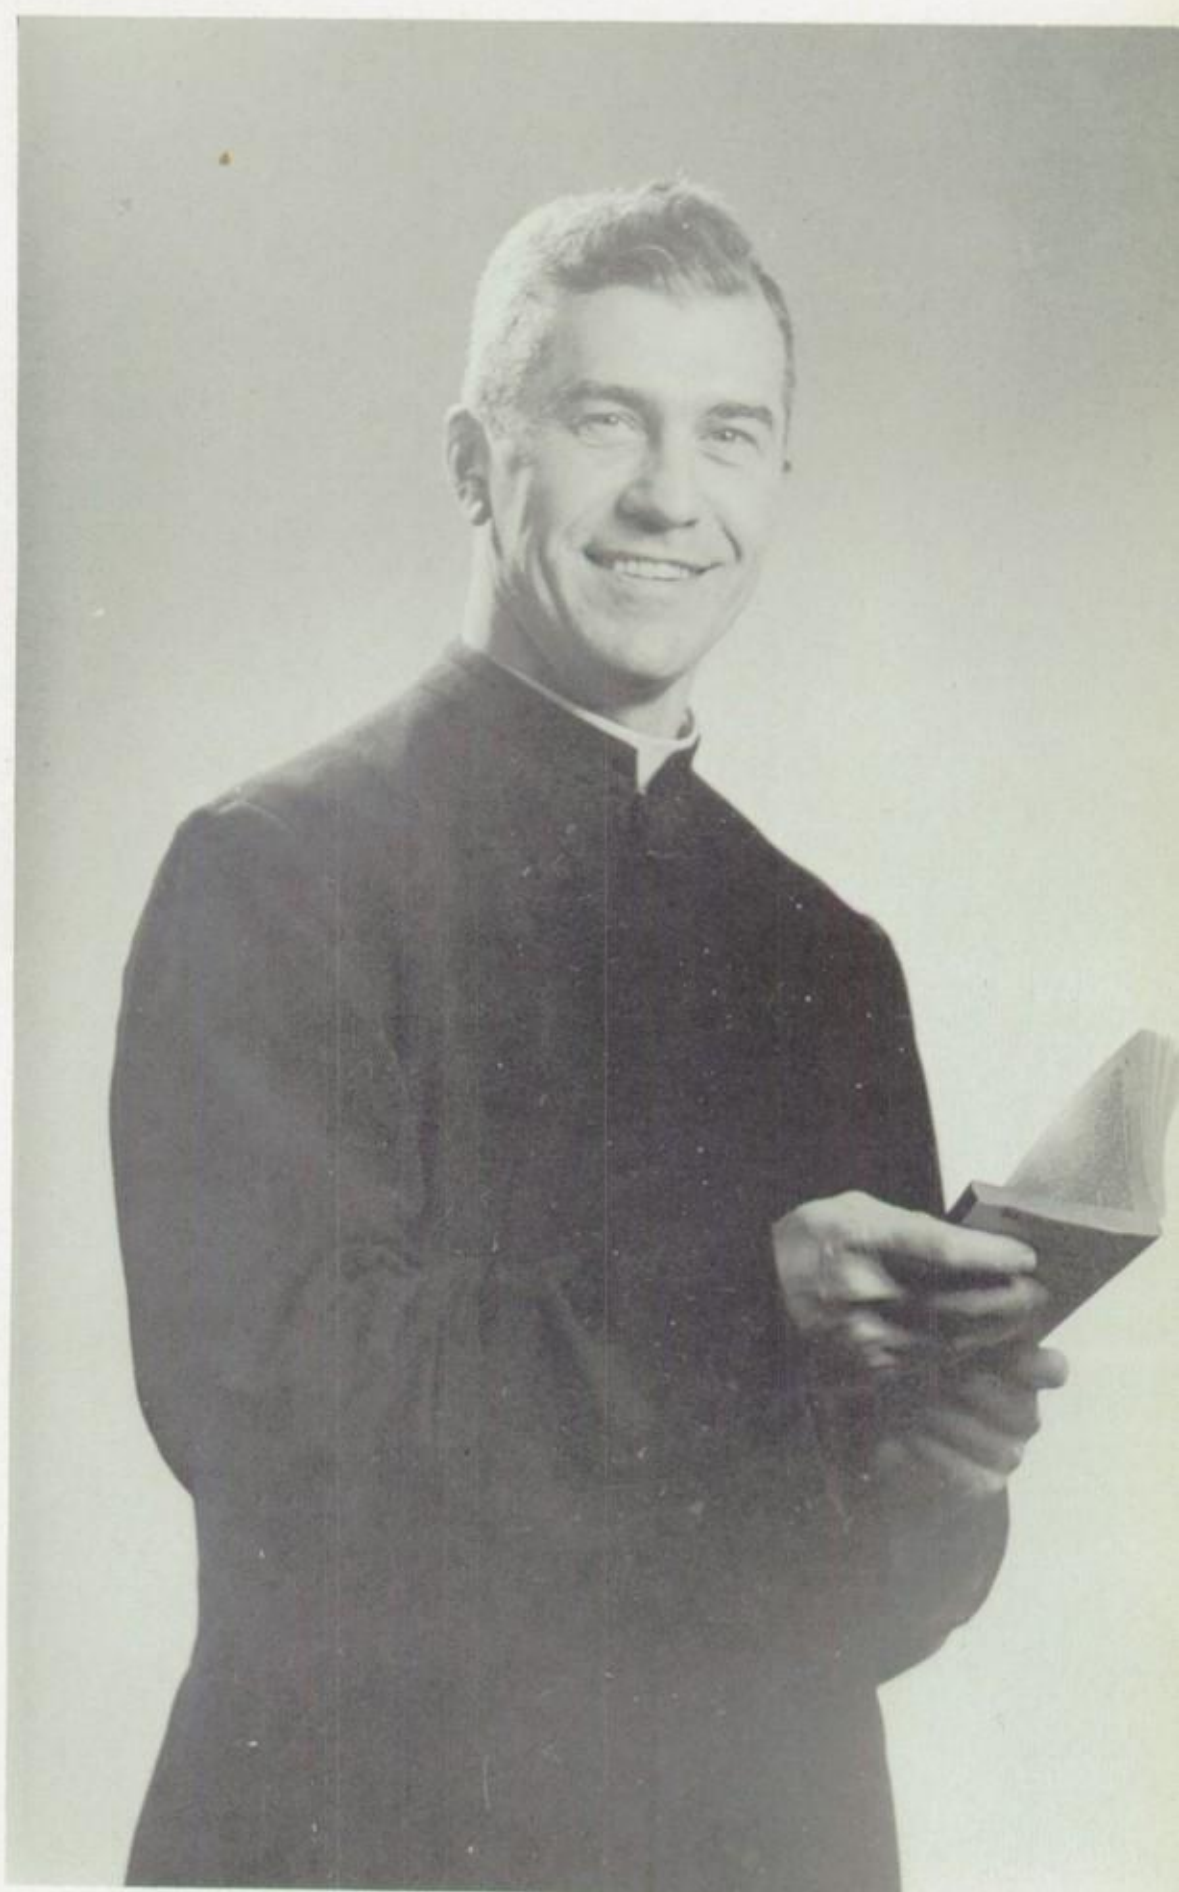

"AND THERE, my fine fellow, is a picture of the horrid dragon," says Mr. Driscoll, instructing a freshman in the study of dragon lore. In addition to such specialized directed reading work, Mr. Driscoll teaches classes in Latin and English, moderates a Catholic action group, and is in charge of acolytes and sacristans.

To sit and read through all the livelong day . . .

WHETHER THEY NEED a good book for directed reading or for a book report, or whether they need special material for a theme topic, Marquette students find ready assistance in Miss Elizabeth Connelly, Marquette High's kindly and experienced librarian.

DIRECTED READING

BACKGROUNDS in world literature might be said to be the keynote of Marquette's directed reading program. The old standbys in literature—mostly fiction and biography—have been augmented by more recent titles, and freshmen can be found in class or home eagerly perusing pages of "The Last Hurrah," "Hiroshima," or "Damien the Leper", books which afford students an acquaintance with good American writing of the post World War II period, and prepare them for contact with the ideas of their own generation.

"BUT ALL was not lost," explains Fr. Edward O'Brien. "The brave Sir Rutherford and his trusty steed came to the rescue." Fr. O'Brien's five classes represent the heaviest teaching load in the directed reading program at Marquette.

ENGLISH

TO DEEPEN AND BROADEN a student's acquaintance with the literature of his own language, to introduce him to the world of ideas, to acquaint him with the basic forms and syntax of English grammar, and to teach him to use words in vivid and effective written communication: these are major aims of Marquette's English courses. Emphasis is placed on enjoyment in freshman year and on appreciation in sophomore year; while the juniors stress American writings, and the seniors, the literature of England.

Through magic lands of poetry and prose . . .

"'ENGUARDE, YOU WELSHERS, or I'll gore you and give you the Wales.'" says Fr. John Crowley, S.J., quoting an unknown Beowulfian balladier. Father Crowley teaches English to seniors, and in addition serves as National Honor Society moderator and publications censor.

O happy classics classes! Treasured riches :

HAVE CHARIOT—will dash: Fr. Richard Rudolf, S.J., Latin instructor in three senior classes, doubles as frosh religion teacher. He has been known to go to the length of requiring that students parse important words in a given passage of Vergil.

THE SWIFT SAGE — Sladky sizes up the strategic situation and gives Fr. Rudolf the lines which brought about the downfall of Troy.

The culture of the ages ours to share . . .

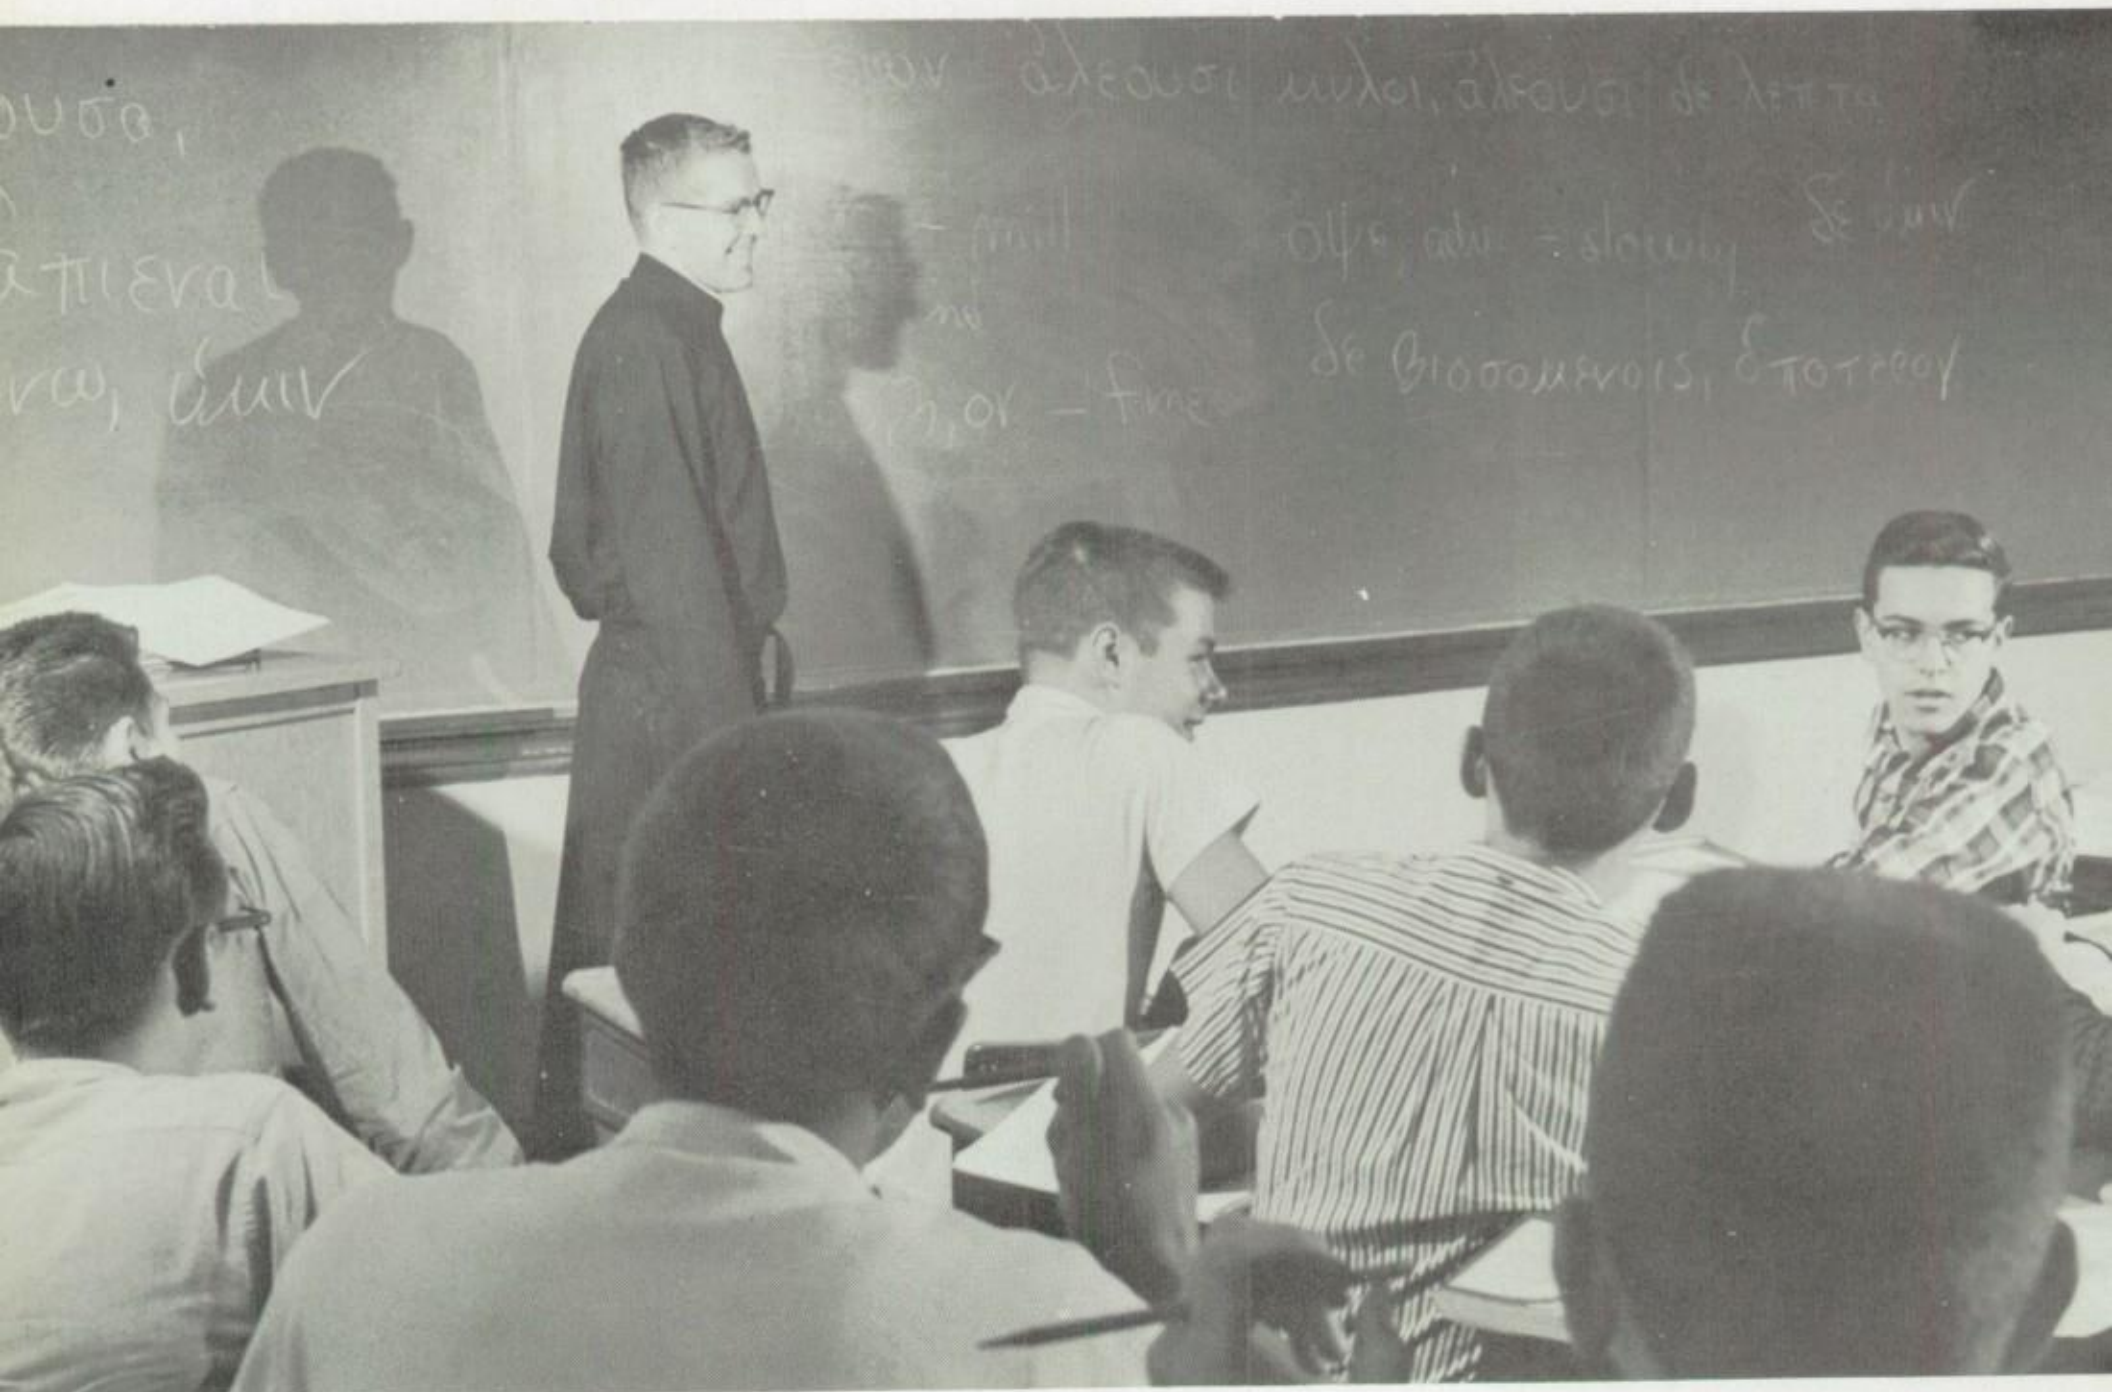

LATIN

Latin is taught at Marquette as a basic language, one standing at the root of all the Romance languages and of English; and as a language useful in later scholarship. Attention is given in the newly developing syllabus to Latin as a vehicle for sacred literature. A combination of traditional analytic methods and modern direct methods are used by teachers of Latin at Marquette High.

HAVE CATAPULT — Will smash: Actually, the only thing the gentle kind-hearted Latin teacher, Mr. Marvin Vens, S.J., intends to knock, is some sense into the heads of his sophomores. Mr. Vens doubles as a Webster moderator and an assistant coach of the cross country team.

The living glory that was ancient Greece . . .

"YOU DON'T SEEM to be getting the answer, you people in the last aisle I'll alph(t)a try a beta ro." says Mr. Patrick Burns, S.J., Greek teacher, to the smiling sons of Homer who sit before him. A feature of Mr. Burns' classes was his work on ideas and world literature in the second semester of the senior course.

LANGUAGES

Greek, the most fundamental of Western languages, which contains the greatest deposit of classic literature, is taught to top junior and senior classes at Marquette. Emphasis in the course at Marquette is on the Odyssey and the Iliad of Homer, and the dual objective is first hand knowledge of some of the major passages of this most ancient of Western epics, and proficiency in the vocabulary of a central Western classical tongue.

"Que serra, serra," means, in Spanish, "Whatever will be, will be": and it seems certain that the future will indicate the importance of the study of foreign languages, in a world where alien lands are only hours away. At Milwaukee Marquette, the presence of German in the curriculum is no surprise. In addition, Spanish is taught here, and Marquette instructors have in the past tutored in other languages. Signs point to increased attention to modern languages as a major component of the Marquette curriculum in years to come.

Mr. Ivan Kramoris

"AU-DI-OS translate this word?" asks Spanish instructor Mr. Ivan Kramoris of the somewhat subdued seniors in his happy hacienda. Mr. Kramoris has had much experience in special tutoring, and has, in the past, tutored Marquette students in Russian.

RELIGION

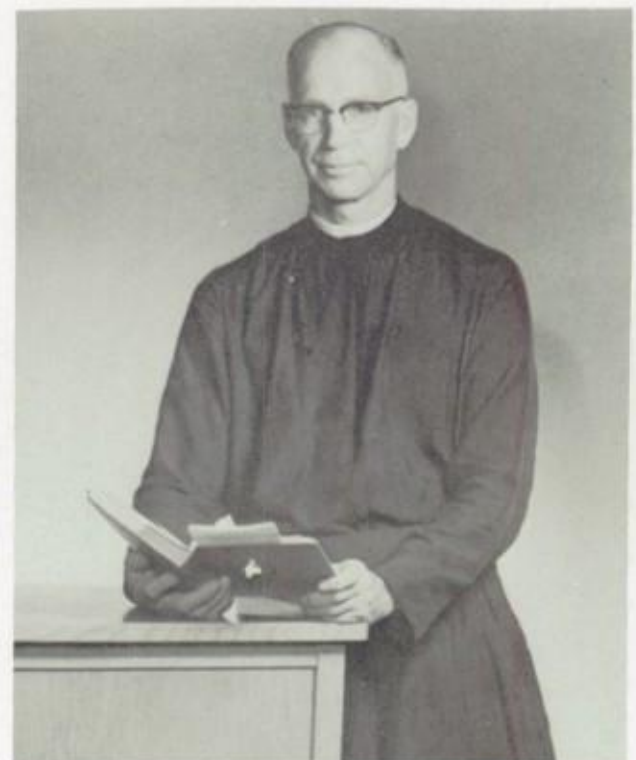

A Catholic who doesn't know his religion is not an educated Catholic: This may be taken as the motto of the religion courses at Marquette. The Marquette man does more than follow out the four year, "Our Guide to Happiness"; religion series; from outside reading, study of the scriptures, historical and philosophical investigation, he gets a more realistic and informed view of God and man.

ANSWER MAN in sophomore and junior religion classes is Fr. Harold McAuliffe, S.J. Class discussion is a technique used perhaps more in religion than in any other course at Marquette.

And others to assist us in our plans...

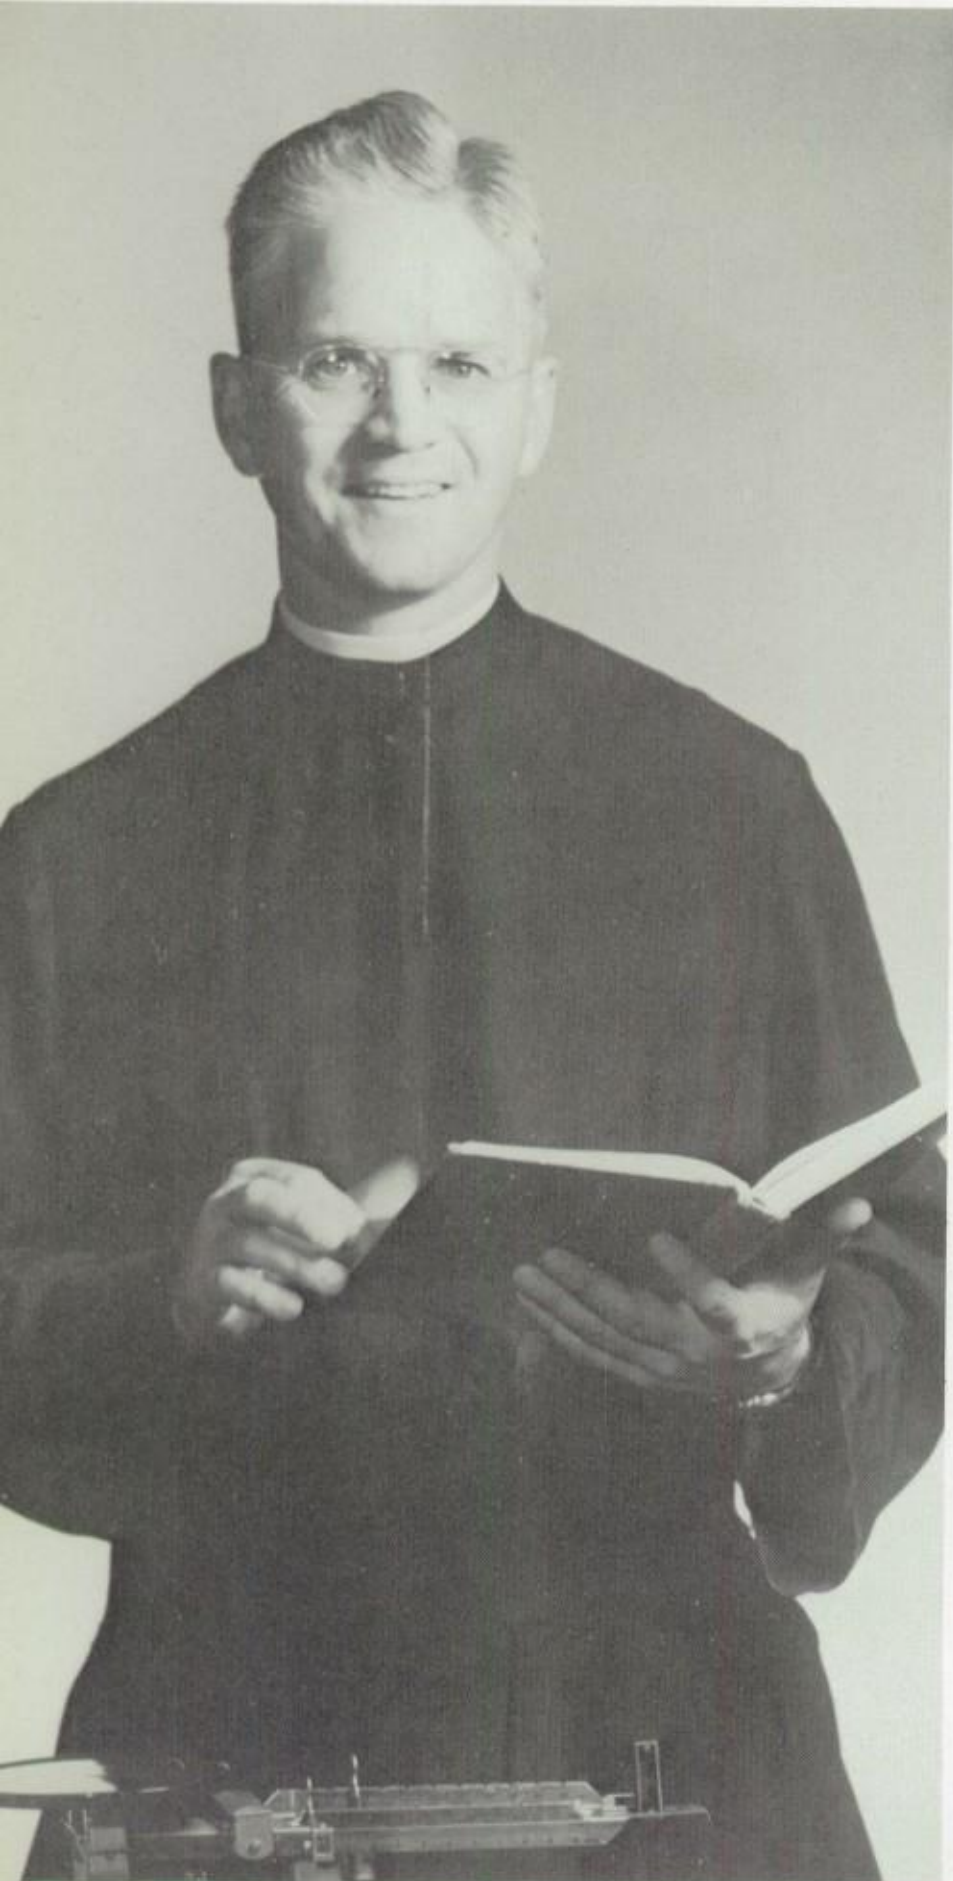

COUNSELING SESSION in 213 finds sophomore Mike Park consulting Fr. Leonard Piotrowski, who directs the homeroom and college counseling group at Marquette High. Full information for seniors embarking on a college career is a feature of the Marquette program. Provision is also made for special counseling by individual homeroom counselors several times each year, and for sodality counseling in the spiritual life.

COUNSELING

The molding of character and the moral training of men are not neglected at Marquette. Provision is made for each of the 28 homeroom counselors to interview his students throughout the year, and to direct them in class discussions of typical student problems. Frequent opportunities are given parents each year to talk over "difficulties" with their son's instructors. In addition to the homeroom and teacher counseling provisions, there is a program of Sodality counseling in force in sophomore, junior and senior groups.

PHYSICS

The physical plan of the universe, and the physical properties of nature are objects of study for the Hilltop physicist. Preparation for a future life in the age of space travel and rocketry is enhanced by Marquette's active science club, and by private after-school instruction in the physics lab.

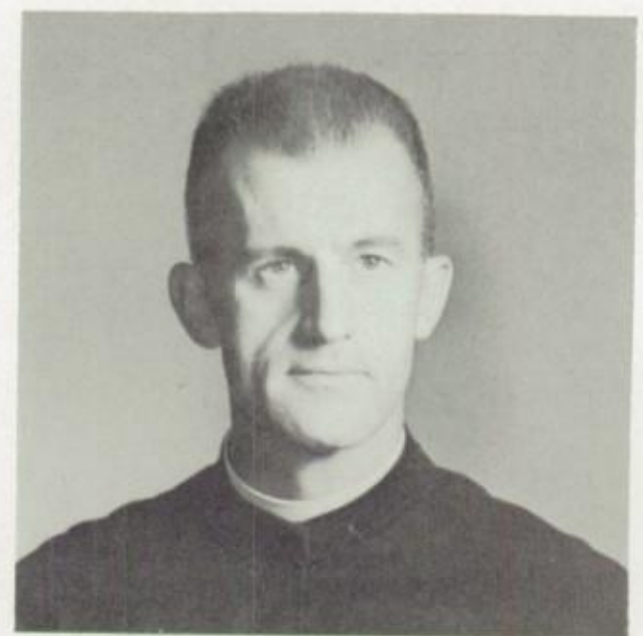

"WELL, EVEN IF the experiment didn't work, Boyle's Law still stands," says Fr. Francis Nawn, S.J., as he supervises inquiring juniors at work in the Physics Lab.

Beckoned us on, to undiscovered spheres . . .

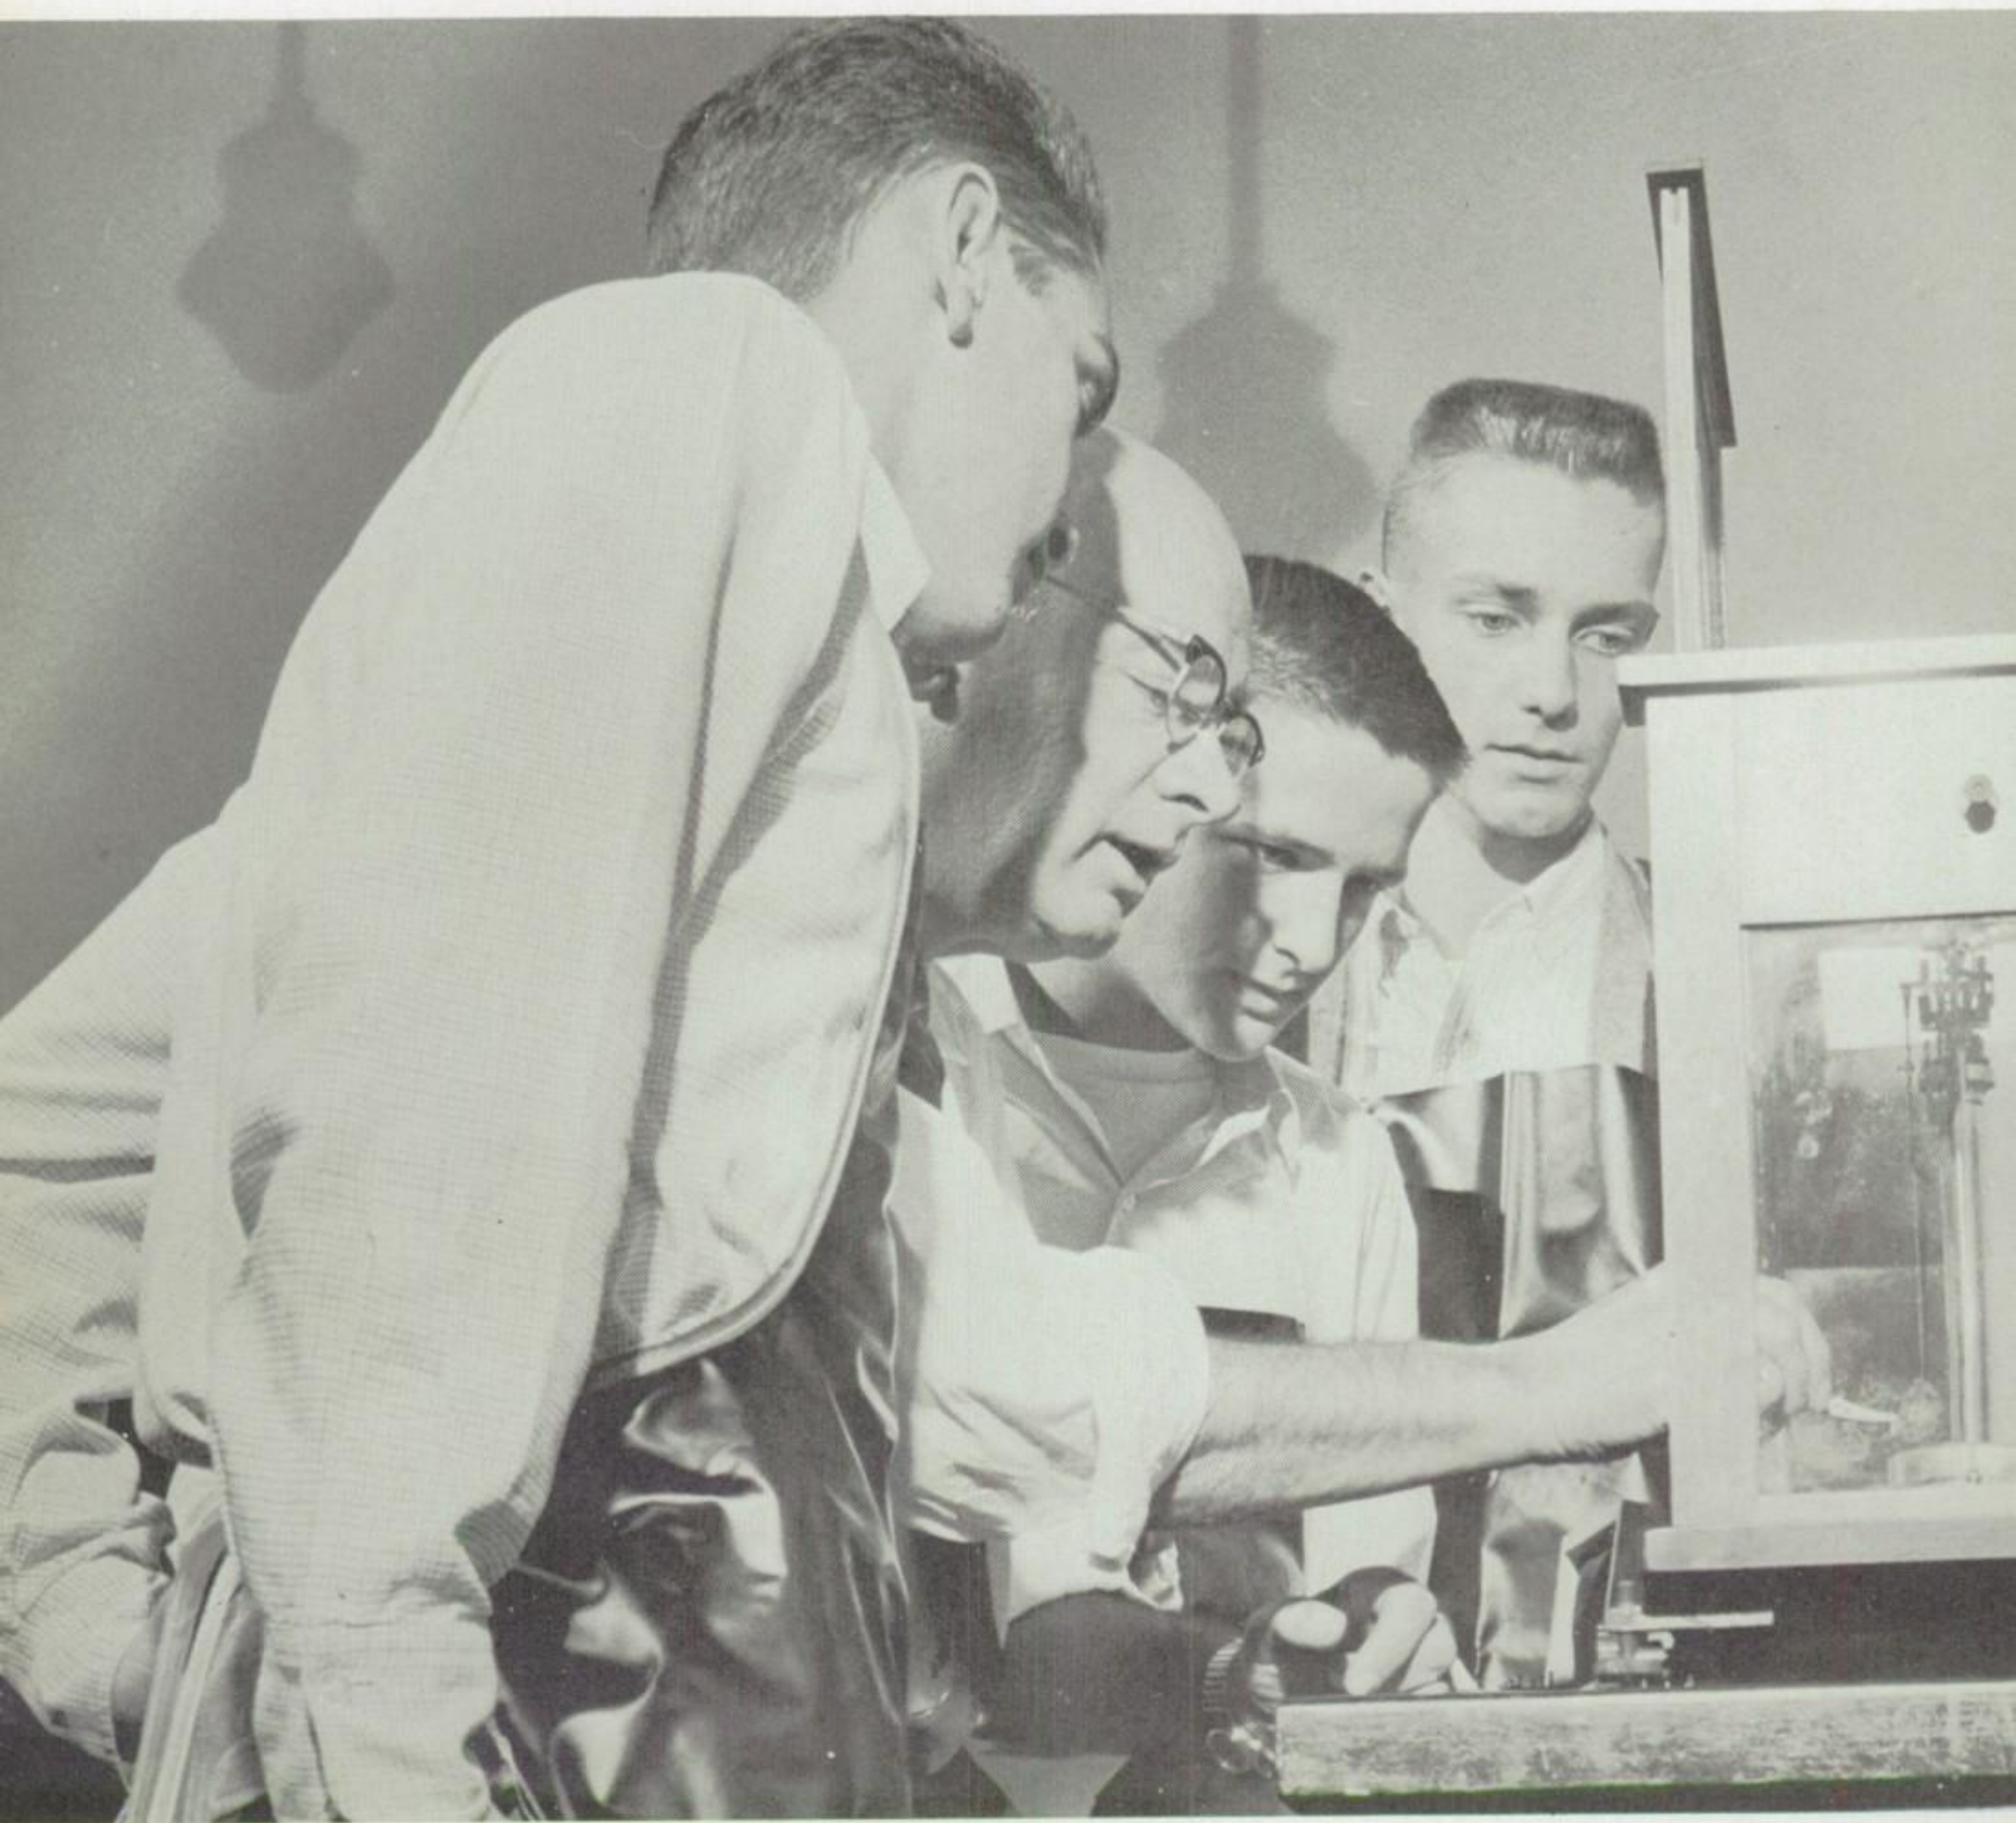

X-RAYING A RADIO for his physics students is Fr. Robert Ostertag, S.J., the other half of Marquette's physics faculty. A full program in the more difficult sciences is given to top students in junior and senior year. All students take at least a year of physics.

WEIGHING-IN CEREMONY in fourth-year chem lab takes place under supervision of Mr. Louis Lemieux, who has been instructing Marquette students for over three decades.

CHEMISTRY

Fourth-year scientists at Marquette study chemistry, which is devoted to the study of elemental structure in material bodies and changes affecting this structure. Emphasis is placed on theoretical developments in the field, with attention to changes in accepted scientific laws. Thus the Marquetter is prepared for his future in a world strongly conditioned by the study of chemical properties.

And secrets from the slender vial explode . . .

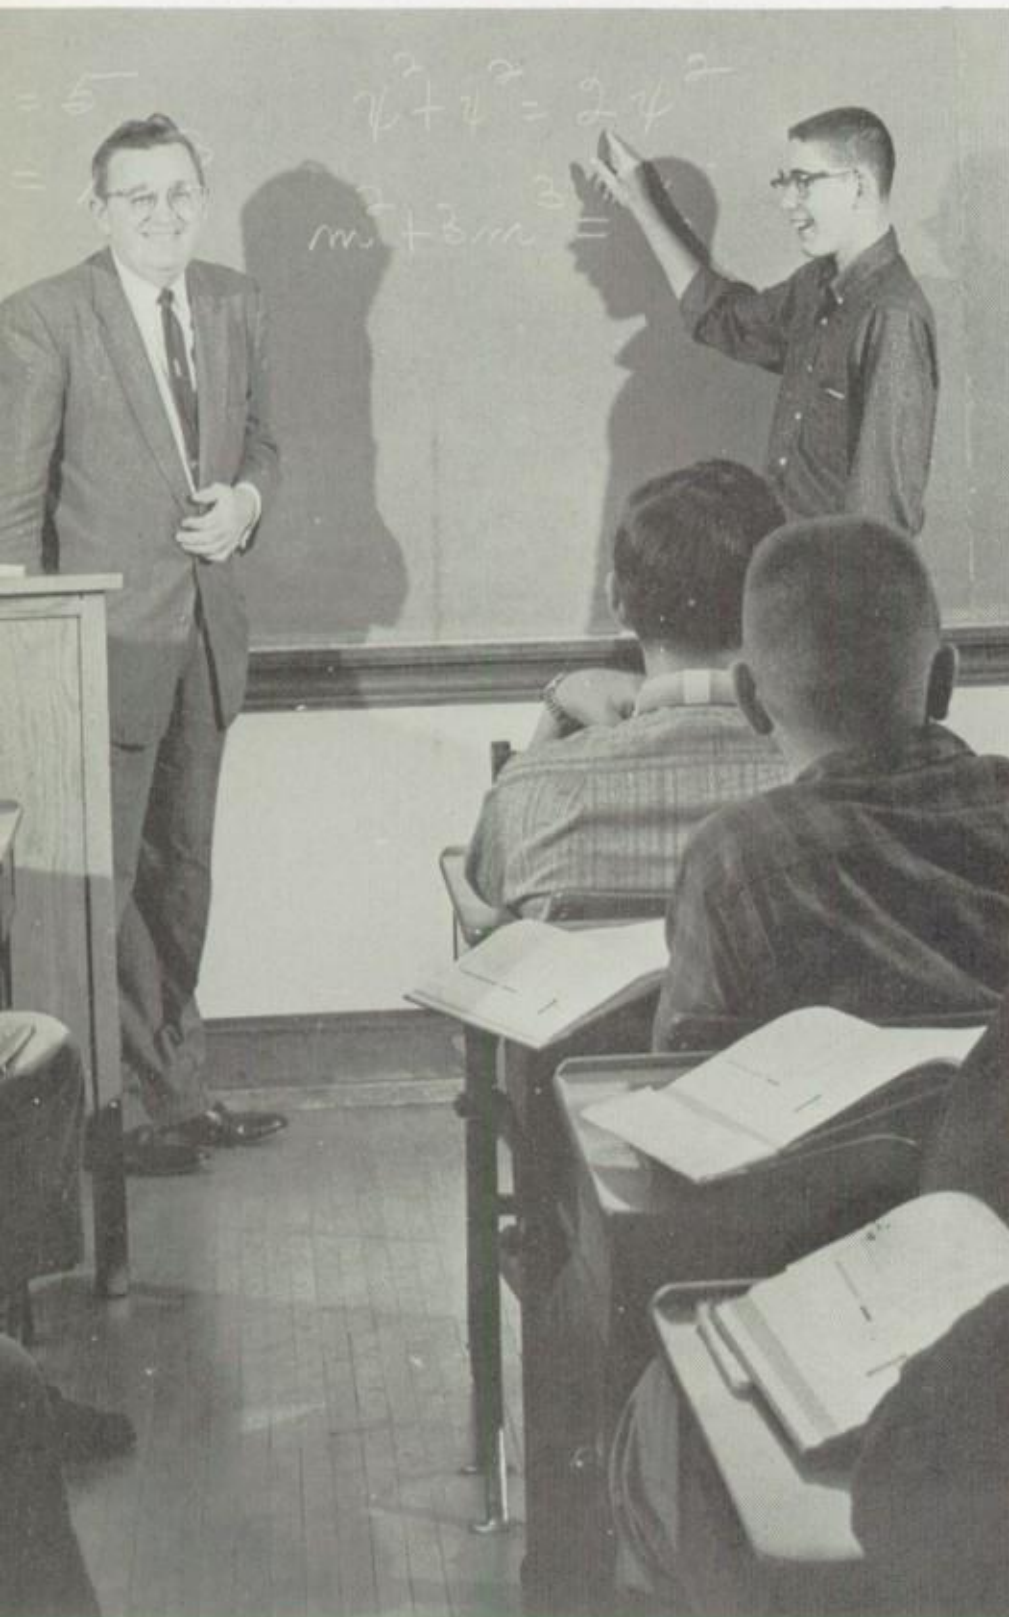

SOLID STONES or rough rocks? Either way, they furnish Mr. Louis Lemieux with an opportunity to demonstrate the properties of natural substances. Swift progress through the syllabus is a mark of the chemistry courses at Marquette; as much attention is given to modern developments as possible in chemistry as well as physics courses. Students are encouraged to follow the "Continental Classroom" series of science courses on television.

MATHEMATICS

The purpose of Marquette math courses is training in basic arithmetical and algebraic skills needed in later life, and associated advantages such as increased order and clarity of thought. The speeded up math program prepares more gifted students for advanced college standing and later specialization.

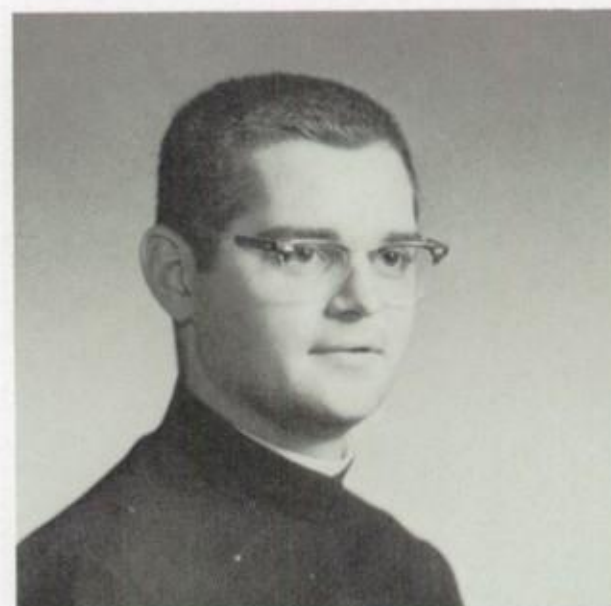

ROE SAID that it was Meyers' mistake, but Mr. Frank Michuda doesn't seem to mind seeing his students occasionally buffaloed by a big 'un. Personally, though, we'd rather blame Roe.

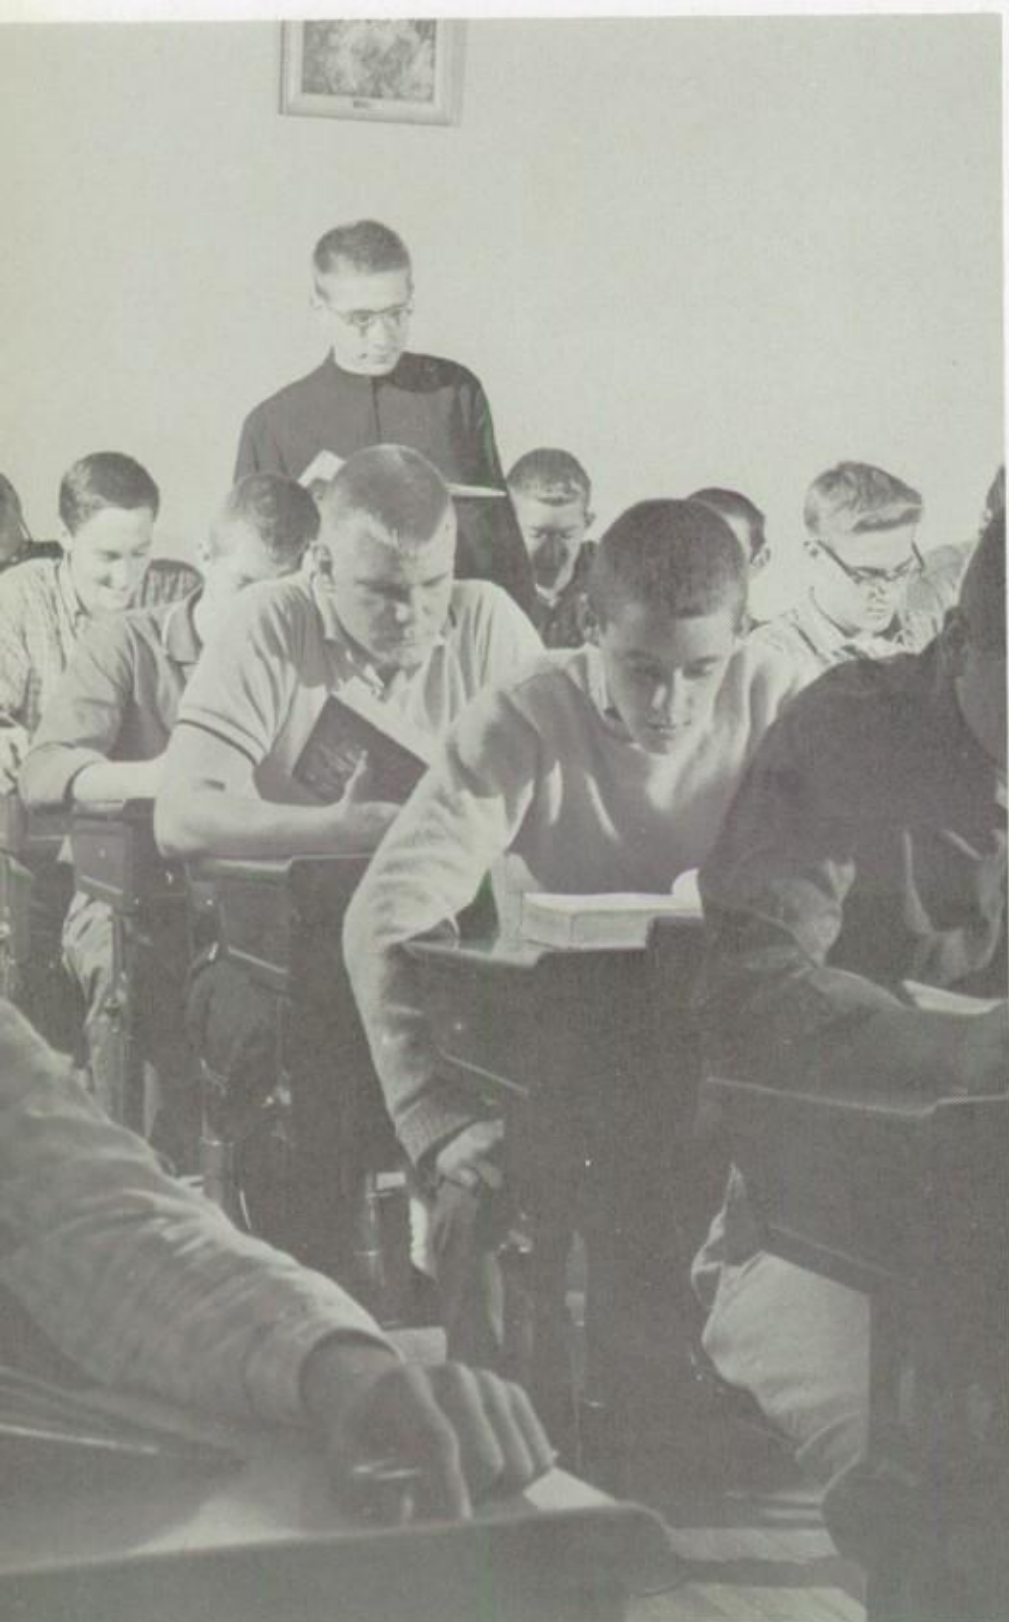

The endless march of ages, and of men

HISTORY

Man — from the stone age to the period post-World War II — is the subject of the history course offered at Marquette. The culture and customs of this unusual creature, and his problems in setting up and preserving civilized society: these are some of the specialized topics Marquette historians study. Freshmen study world history, sophomores American history, and juniors are taught a special course in modern history by Mr. Thomas Brennan, S.J.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

A sound mind in a sound body: This is an old cliché; but physical education is a necessity recognized by faculty and student alike at Marquette. In addition to a most complete athletics program, there is class time for exercise, games and competitive sports during freshman and sophomore years.

Looking on are senior members of his sociology class. Father Healy's stockpile of maps and charts represent the hard effort of long hours spent by himself and students in an effort to make his teaching more graphic.

SOCIOLOGY

Group behavior, group relations, human dignity: These things are the special study of Marquette sociologists. Economic and ideological relationships and conflicts are specially emphasized in Marquette's sociology courses.

Man economic, social, man yet free.

THE COMMUNIST conspiracy is carefully documented in the files kept by Father Healy and his sociologists. A special cabinet section is set up to house anti-Communist materials. The group publishes a periodical, The Truth, designed to expose the movement of communist propaganda and Soviet aggression.

MUSIC

Objectives of the course are the perfecting of students in a sense of rhythm and harmony, increased technical skill, and preparation for pleasant and profitable activity in later life.

Mr. Donald Witas
Bookkeeping, Typing, Bookstore

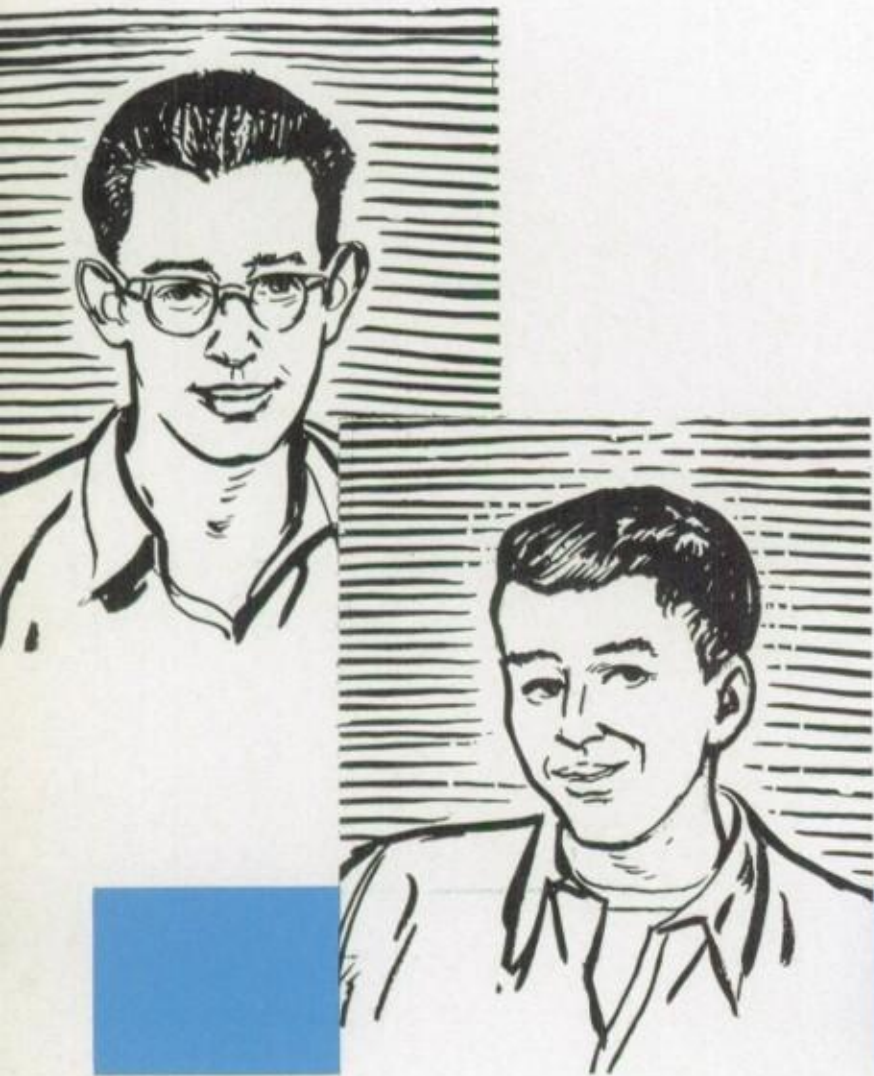

TYPING

Preparation for practical living is the keynote in Marquette's Typing and Bookkeeping courses. A secondary advantage of the typing course is added respectability in the presentation of homework assignments. Bookkeeping teaches neat, orderly and precise work in keeping accounts, and contributes to training in organization of thought. It is especially designed for the student whose college work will lie in business administration and allied fields.

"QWERT/YUIOP — Why do we have to have all this pain just to get some symbols down on paper?" Through the long suffering sophomore days, Marquette students bring their word counts up to quota.

These were the joyous, carefree, early years;

UNDERCLASSMEN

They Watch with interest the seniors climbing the mountain. For they too will make the same ascent. Soon the seniors are out of sight. The underclassmen turn back toward the school, the freshman, newly introduced to Jesuit education, the sophomores, veterans of two years, and the juniors, next to make the ascent. It is now their job to keep alive the tradition of Marquette, to preserve the vision.

They marched below the mountain, scanned the skies.

FRESHMEN

FUN-LOVING FRESHMEN listen to wise words from Mr. Daniel Kenny, S.J., the perennial "freshman's friend." Plenty of mischief mixed with hard work typifies the part played by the freshmen. Problems, such as hurrying to class and coping with the traditional "bubbler passes", all add to the fun and amusement of the Frosh.

The graduation march began that night —

SENIORS

Over their shoulder are four years of Jesuit education. Ahead stands the mountain, their future. And at the summit, their goal. The ascent at times may become difficult, sometimes impossible. Then it is that Marquette's training shows forth — the four years of work, study, play, and prayer. With the assurances that this training provides, the graduates will be able to look at their future life looming ahead and the summit far in the distance and feel confident that someday both will be theirs.

That night in June when seniors stood like men

In caps and flowing gowns to face the world!

The Class of 1960

KENNETH G. AMEND

St. Sebastian parish . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Webster Club, senior years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Webster Club, sophomore year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Bowling, senior year . . .

A sodalist, Kasual Ken kept everyone happy as a Flambeau editor and contact man.

JAMES F. ARPE

St. Jude parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore, junior and senior years . . .

If one picture is worth a thousand words, Jim must, by now, be out of breath. He's responsible, among other achievements, for the faculty-academic "shots" and activity section pictures in this year's Annual.

THOMAS J. ANTLFINGER

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Cross Country, junior and senior years . . . Band, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Track, all four years . . .

Tom, who was often seen skipping out with the harriers, was also a fleetfoot for the track team.

LUKE B. BALISTRERI

St. Sebastian parish . . . Choir, freshman year . . . Cartoonist Club, junior and senior years . . .

Bal never won any, ahem, money at sheepshead; but he's worth millions in art.

JAMES B. ARNDORFER

Christ King parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . .

Whether he was fast-stepping on the dance floor, or tearing apart opposing linemen, Arny had a rip-snorting good time.

SCOTT M. BARTOSCH

Blessed Sacrament parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Bowling, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Political Science Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . .

One of Marquette's hardest workers, Scott was one of the old reliables of the Webster Club.

They strode into the auditorium,

RICHARD C. BERGHAMMER

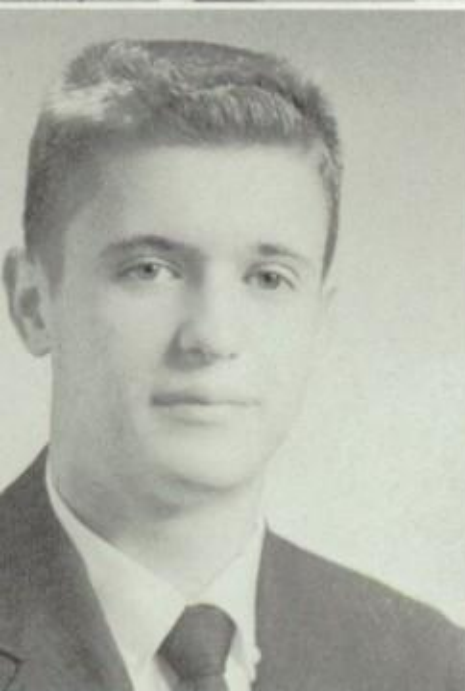

St. Eugene parish . . . Golf, junior and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

"Hans," a bowling expert, made big impressions at Marquette High.

JAMES D. BLOMMER

St. Robert parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Jim, who was an artist at the ping-pong table, paddled his way to success as a state champ.

DONALD R. BERTLING

St. Aloysius parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sacristan, junior and senior years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Science Club, freshman, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, senior year . . .

West-sider Don maintained a steady record as sacristan and student.

JAMES A. BOJAR

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Sacristan, junior and senior years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Science Club, senior year . . .

Who hid that altar cloth? Find it, Jim; you always could. He could always find good grades, too.

BRIAN BIELEFELD

St. Agnes parish . . .

A Journal representative, generous in helping with homeroom activities, quiet Brian will cash in on four years of further education in college.

ALAN J. BERGEALT

St. Anthony of Padua . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Webster Club, junior year . . . Bowling, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Al was a 90-90 man — bowling and grades.

ROBERT P. BLAZEL

St. Robert parish . . .

Finished with the long pull at Marquette High, Bob is considering a career as molar-checker: His tentative plans are for Dentistry.

MICHAEL J. BROPHY

St. Bernard parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, senior year . . . Track, senior year . . .

An expert in matters mathematical, Mike was a welcome addition to the Class of '60.

Filled each and every seat in front, but one;

GEORGE L. BRUCKNER

Holy Cross parish . . . First Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .
Gorgeous George hid his handsome visage behind the books, hitting honors all four years.

DAVID J. CARAVELLA

Starting with only a weed, Dave sprouted into the foremost ranks of Marquette's noontime smoking club.

TIMOTHY A. BRUETT

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Soph Basketball . . . Varsity Basketball, senior year . . . Baseball, junior and senior years . . .
The "end" of a fine football season, Tim latched on to all-state honors; he scored, too, as one of the basketball dependables.

JAMES R. CARPENTER

St. Anthony of Padua parish . . . Sodality, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Swimming, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .
Jim made a big splash here at Marquette, both as a person and as a swimmer.

THOMAS R. BUTLER

St. Jude parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Cross Country, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Cartoonist Club, senior year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Track, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .
"Long-winded" Tom served as captain of Marquette's harriers.

GREGORY A. CHERNEY

St. Margaret Mary parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Baseball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .
Baseball player and fast man with the funny comment, Cherney managed to mix football and studies well enough to place well on both the sports roster and the honor roll.

ROBERT J. BRUST

St. Jude parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Choir, junior and senior years . . .
Bob is a man who could prepare himself for his chosen profession, meteorology, in Marquette's backyard.

MICHAEL R. CAVANAUGH

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . .
Mike, the "malt man," spoke softly but drove a big stick.

For as the graduation march was played,

FRANK C. CHORNY

St. Rita parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . First Honors, junior year . . . Science Club, junior and senior years . . .

The "south-side scientist" blended a highly successful four years here at Marquette.

MICHAEL F. COLBERT

St. Bernard parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Band, all four years . . . Frosh Football . . .

It's very "cymbal": Mike drummed up audience enthusiasm and interest at many school affairs.

RICHARD T. CLARK

St. Matthias parish . . . Prep Players, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Baseball, sophomore and junior years . . .

Though he was no relation to "Click Dark," of Variety Show fame, Dick was a star with the Prep Players.

WILLIAM H. CONLEY, JR.

St. Robert parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Cross Country, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Soph Basketball . . . Track, all four years . . .

Buff put his track experience to good use in running the Yearbook. He was co-editor of this year's annual.

ENJOYING the unaccustomed luxury of the library, Bruckner, Bojar, Hammel, and Gigl await, with bated breath, the start of afternoon classes.

And Seniors stood in caps and gowns and smiled

MICHAEL CONTER

St. Francis Borgia parish . . .
Better late than never, Mike, obviously a thinking man's thinking man, joined us in junior year.

ROLAND E. DAY

Holy Assumption parish . . . Band, all four years . . . Bowling, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . .
From dawn to dusk — from the rising to the setting of the sun — Day was here.

PAUL V. CROWLEY

Holy Family parish . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Soph Basketball . . . Varsity Basketball, senior year . . .
Steady, unobtrusive, Paul worked hard on the varsity basketball team. He'll take the grand tour through Europe this summer.

DONALD C. DEMITROS

St. Rose parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore and junior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior year . . .
Don, the Greek gladiator, was a fine student. Helpful on the Flambeau, this brainy lad is said never to have made an enemy.

MICHAEL H. CZERWINSKI

St. Vincent parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .
Mike was one of those strong silent types who never got involved in too many activities. He leaves behind him, however, a host of Marquette friends.

JOHN A. DESMOND

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . First Honors, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Prep Players, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Tennis, senior year . . .
A talented Thespian, "Des" was also a valued Flambeau man. As we lean on the horn we say, "Here's a man worth waiting for."

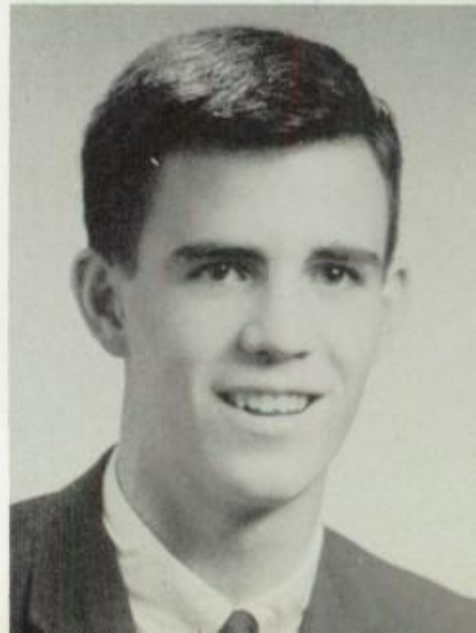

ANTHONY J. DANNINGER

St. Bernard parish . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Cartoonist Club, freshman year . . . Bowling, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . .
Towering Tony was always ready to contribute his bit to a class discussion.

MICHAEL J. DEVITT

St. Robert parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .
"Heavy Devy," the man behind the wheel, plans to push on down to M.U. next year.

One of their number took his place in jug.

ROBERT E. DEYSACH

Christ King parish . . . First Honors, sophomore year . . . Second Honors, freshman, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Bowling, freshman year . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

A prize student, Bob can look forward to a highly successful college venture.

GEORGE J. DREIST

Holy Redeemer parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Band, freshman year . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . . Baseball, junior year . . .

George's charm made itself felt wherever he walked. Marquette's School of Engineering will gain a bright young man in Mr. Dreist.

DENNIS W. DONOVAN

Christ King parish . . .

The school needs more listeners like Dennis. Besides, his silence kept him out of trouble.

THOMAS D. DROLSHAGEN

Immaculate Conception parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Track, all four years . . .

Tom is well prepared for life. A Flambeau regular, he was also chairman of the Student Responsibility Committee.

ALAN J. DOYLE

St. Jude parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Cross Country, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Track, all four years . . . Cheerleader, junior and senior years . . .

One of Marquette's voices this year as a cheerleader, "Mush," the man with the astronomical IQ, is a man to be heard from in the future.

JOHN A. DUNPHY

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, junior year . . . Cheerleader, senior year . . .

Dunphy, best dressed young man as a waiter at Club '59, will be remembered for his portrayal of one of "the three haircuts" in the Variety Show's prize winning act.

DAVID J. DOOLAN

St. Peter and Paul parish . . . First Honors, junior and senior years . . .

A late comer by two years, Dave completed junior and senior years in fine fashion.

ROBERT M. DUNN

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, sophomore and junior years . . . Cheerleader, senior year . . .

Faculty basketball team members trembled as they watched Dunn's "Raiders" in action.

His case was not as theirs who walked on high

MICHAEL J. EBERHARDT

Blessed Sacrament parish . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

"Anchors aweigh" again! Mike was a boating enthusiast taking to the seas when he wasn't sailing the sphere down the Eagles bowling lanes.

THOMAS C. EWENS

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Tennis, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Bowling, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . .

Another good racquet man from the illustrious Ewens family, Tom made his contribution in other activities, too.

JAMES A. ECKS

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Band, freshman year . . . Tennis, freshman year . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . . Political Science Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Jim's full schedule of activities and studies gave him a full life at Marquette High.

WILLIAM P. FALLON

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Conclave, freshman and sophomore years . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

"Willy" did a whale of a job filling a tackle slot in Marquette's rugged line this year.

PATRICK T. EISENHART

Holy Rosary parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Acolyte, freshman year . . . Webster Club, sophomore year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . .

Pat, always ready with a quip and a kind word, will add his interesting comments to the colorful courtrooms of the future.

RICHARD E. FEDLER

St. Mary parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Prep Players, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

The most frustrating thing in the world for a man of lesser intelligence was to see Friendly Feds breeze through MH with first honors. Dick was co-editor of this year's annual.

EDWARD F. FARRINGTON

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Bowling, senior year . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

Easy Ed, a close friend of Hansen, managed to knock down honors as well as ten pins during his stay at Marquette.

JAMES R. FINKLER

St. Margaret Mary parish . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . .

"Jimbo," as he was affectionately known, always had the last word in class. He'll give engineering a whirl in college.

To take their prized diploma 'mid the cheers.

PETER A. FISCHER

St. Eugene parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Prep Players, all four years . . .

Pete, a four year man in the Sodality, Acolytes, and Prep Players, was the man to see about seats in the balcony.

JAMES M. FORAN

Holy Family parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . First Honors senior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .

Jim, honors winner and ping-pong artist, left many a fond memory behind him at Marquette High.

RICHARD R. FISCHER

St. Pius parish . . . First Honors, junior and senior years . . . Science Club, senior year . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

Dick was quiet but appreciated — a valued fellow-student and a scientist of note.

RICHARD J. FLEISSNER

St. Pius parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Band, freshman year . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

Electrical Engineering at MU is high in the hopes of Dick. A four-year bowler, he was Fr. Boyle's absentee man during his senior year.

SOLES OR HEELS? The three most prominent seniors on the Flambeau staff, Bruce O'Neill, Bill Conley, and Dick Fedler got their feet off the desk often enough to keep the presses humming.

As speeches drifted into 202,

MICHAEL W. FRIAR

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

Connoisseur of styles and subtle wit, Mike, "the Weekend Warrior," moves on to the University next year.

JAMES R. GEYER

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Science Club, senior year . . . Cartoonist Club, sophomore year . . .

Jim's bright red head will light up the field of Metalurgical Engineering as it has the corridors of Marquette High.

JAMES E. FUCHS

St. Bernard parish . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Choir, senior year . . . Webster Club, sophomore year . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

National Merit scholar and chorister, Jim always had a unique contribution to make in English class.

JON MICHAEL GRABER

Immaculate Heart of Mary parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .

A dependable worker in the cafeteria, Jon reportedly has a military career in mind. He has an honors record behind him to back up his plans for the future.

DAVID J. FUYS

St. Florian parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Science Club, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Baseball, junior and senior years . . . Stamp and Coin Club, junior and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Friendly Dave, a four-year honors winner, lent a hand when needed on the Flambeau. He made his presence felt in many other Marquette projects as well.

MICHAEL H. GILLICK

Blessed Sacrament parish . . . Conclave, all four years . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, junior year . . .

The Senior's Senior, popular Mike was our choice for class president.

DAVID J. GEHL

St. Albert parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Varsity Football, junior year . . .

Dave began Marquette a year late, but left his mark on both the sports and academic world. His specialty was intramural football competition.

PAUL D. GIGL

St. Gregory parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . .

Paul is noted for his baseball prowess and rugged honesty. He managed to score on the honor roll during his final years at Marquette.

His memory recalled the hallowed time

JAMES F. GREGORSKI

St. Rita parish . . . First Honors, sophomore and junior years . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Sacristan, junior year . . . Acolyte, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, all four years . . . Science Club, junior year . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Certainly one of the most popular seniors, silent Jim always managed to knock out high grades. He was always a dependable typist and darkroom man for the Flambeau.

ARTHUR W. HAMANN

Mother of Perpetual Help parish . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

Art's four years at Marquette saw some of the school's best bowling. They also saw one of the most amiable of men. Good luck, Art.

JOHN R. GREGRICH

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . Acolyte, senior year . . .

The big redhead did big things for Marquette High, but sheephead was not his forte!

CHRISTOPHER L. HAMM

St. Robert parish . . . Second Honors, second year . . .

Chris, who was always making sparks fly, will try even harder down at the Marquette Engineering School.

STEPHEN F. GROSS

St. Mary parish, Elm Grove . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Prep Players, sophomore and junior years . . .

Stevo, an ace both on the bowling lanes and in school, will continue to score heavily in engineering.

BARRY J. HAMMEL

St. Florian parish . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . .

Barry's chief asset was not the fact that he remained in the top class all four years, but his winning smile and good disposition.

RUSSELL L. HABERMAN

Visitation parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Stamp and Coin Club, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Russ piled into the books with considerable success, winning honors for three years running. His good nature should stand him in good stead, whatever his future career.

JOSEPH T. HANSEN

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Frosh basketball . . .

Joe scored not only as a National Merit Scholar but also as one of the popular St. Sebastian boys.

Four years ago when other speakers said:

JAMES C. HANSON

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, all four years . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh basketball . . . Track, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Vice president of the Senior class, all-conference guard and star half-miler, Jim will long be remembered by the Class of '60.

RICHARD J. HENDY

Christ King parish . . . Sodality, freshman and senior years . . . Choir, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Cross Country, senior year . . .

Everyone is grateful for Dick's height. If he were any shorter, he couldn't reach the organ pedals and Marquette would have missed his swinging music.

GREGORY J. HARRINGTON

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Stomp and Coin Club, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Marquette's contribution to the Italian diplomatic corps, Greg was one of our finest intellectuals and hardest workers.

MICHAEL G. HENK

St. Rita parish . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Cross Country, junior and senior years . . . Science Club, junior year . . . Cartoonist Club, senior year . . . Soph Football . . . Track, junior and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Though he did perfectly well as a student and as a cross country man, Mike made one mistake while he was here — buying that Pontiac.

Holy Redeemer parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Acolyte, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Cartoonist Club, senior year . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . . Track, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Joe, an intelligent student, attempted, with some success, to bring order out of chaos in the Flambeau office.

JOSLYN H. HOERL

St. Mary parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Golf, senior year . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Four years of honors and three years of bowling took up most of Jacques's time. He's off to engineering school now, with best wishes from all.

MICHAEL W. HAYES

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . First Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Varsity basketball, junior and senior years . . . Soph Basketball . . . Baseball, sophomore year . . .

We won't be surprised if big Mike's hands get bigger or his smile gets wider. He put them both to good use on and off the basketball court during the last four years.

JOSEPH H. HOFF

St. Catherine parish . . . Cartoonist Club, all four years . . . Poster Club, senior year . . .

Joe was one of few at Marquette gifted enough to draw. Thanks to him our corridors were often enlivened by Poster club cartoons.

"We greet you, future seniors of Marquette.

JOHN W. HOLLORAN

St. Jude parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore and junior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Band, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

Jay's chief attribute was his sheer courage. He showed the football world that the little man can be a tough customer.

PHILIP J. HUGHES

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Stamp and Coin Club, junior and senior years . . .

His Flambeau efforts alone proved the great future that lies in store for one of the brainiest personalities at Marquette.

THOMAS P. HORTER

St. Jude parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

That '55 Ford, with that speedy Corvette engine, carried the old Killer to and from football practice and other important activities.

THOMAS F. JANCZAK

St. Joseph parish . . . Bowling, senior year . . .

Gentle Tom improved his grades by serving as switchboard operator at the residence during his spare evenings. With that pleasant smile, he can't go wrong.

CHEMISTRY GENIUS Michalski, thoroughly convinced that society has rejected him, plays the part of a mad scientist brewing new and unheard-of destruction in a little glass tube, while McNamara, Listwan, and company attend to more constructive endeavors and Mr. Le Mieux casts a watchful eye.

We hope you will enjoy your stay — and, yes —

VERNON E. JAQUES

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Bowling, freshman year . . .

An able sports correspondent, Vern was one of Marquette's articulate champions.

KENNETH J. KAESTNER

St. Margaret Mary parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Cheerleaders, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . .

If ever the whole of Marquette would lose its voice, Ken could carry on very well all by himself.

DENNIS J. JASTER

St. Pius parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior year . . .

Marquette's own Louis Nye, Denny gets the prize for the fine sense of humor he so readily contributed when the occasion arose — even if it meant jug.

DANIEL A. KAIN

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, sophomore and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Cartoonist Club, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Cheerleader, senior year . . .

We will never laugh as hard again as we did when Danny Boy made us laugh. We'll never draw as well as Dan drew for us. We are thankful to Dan for his hard work and his fine Marquette spirit.

RONALD A. JOHNSON

St. Aloysius parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Science Club, freshman year . . .

Ron, a far west-sider, and a true gentleman, managed to do alright scholastically during his stay at Marquette.

TERRANCE M. KEENAN

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, all four years . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . MH Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, freshman year . . . Track, freshman, junior, and senior years . . .

Terry was a Captain on the football field, in the Conclave, and behind the wheel of that '50 Ford. Mr. MVP truly commanded everyone's respect.

JAMES C. JOHNSTON

St. John de Nepomuc parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Mr. No. 1 Well-dressed man could make his way through life simply on personal appearance; his many other fine qualities wouldn't be needed.

J. THOMAS KELLY

St. Catherine parish . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Bowling, junior year . . .

Tom was a soft salesman with a purpose. His homeroom was usually known for its outstanding mission average.

Here is a new demerit card for you."

PAUL F. KELLY

St. Mary parish . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Choir, all four years . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Track, all four years . . .

Track manager and four year sodalist, Paul was a Marquette man around the clock.

GERALD P. KLEIST

Sacred Heart parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Track, sophomore and junior years . . .

Gerry, who commuted each day from Hales Corners, impressed all Marquetters with his outstanding sincerity.

FRANK D. KENDA

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .

A keystone is always missed. Big Frank will never be forgotten.

WILLIAM F. KLUG

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

You can't put down these bowlers. Bill was a straight shooter in all respects.

WILLIAM B. KENNEDY

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

The senator from Massachusetts might wish he had brains like those of his namesake. Go show 'em all, "Deacon."

JAMES J. KOLATA

St. Joseph parish . . . First Honors, junior and senior years . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Science Club, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Soph Basketball . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

Oh, those science problems! We could always talk them over with this sure-fire future electronics engineer.

ROD J. KING

St. Augustine parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Science Club, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Political Science Club, junior and senior years . . . Stamp and Coin Club, freshman and sophomore years . . .

With a name like Rod King, how can he miss the moon? Rod's political convictions made themselves felt in the letters column of the Sentinel.

JOHN G. KNAACK

Christ King parish . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

A knack for knocking down ten pins came easy for John. His varied interests assure him of success.

The scholars in the class rose up to speak;

MICHAEL P. KRESS

St. Alphonsus parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Bowling, junior year . . .

High numbers in his studies, high numbers in bowling scores, and high esteem from his classmates point to a successful career in engineering for Mike.

DAVID G. KRILL

St. Sebastian parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . .

Dave, the mild-mannered reporter of the Flambeau staff, made sure each new edition was better than the last.

MARK L. KORB

St. Mary parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Political Science Club, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . . SUMA representative, junior year . . . SUMA prefect, senior year . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Marcus Aurelius managed honors, Websters and Conclave, and was a leader in all. He served as SUMA prefect during his senior year.

ROBERT M. KRILL

St. Mary parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Bowling, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

"Pins and Needles" best describes Bob. An avid bowler, bright Bob plans to move on to MU's Medical school.

CARL J. KRAMPF

St. Helen parish . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Band, junior and senior years . . .

Carl's musical talents brought him honors in the Variety Show; his scholastic talents, honors on that little white card each quarter

KRIS P. KRIOFSKE

St. Bernard parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Varsity Football, sophomore and junior years . . . Track, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

King Krio had an undying sense of humor. Injuries alone kept this redoubtable football lineman from making headlines.

JAMES C. KOLLER

St. Mary parish . . .
"Still waters run deep." Quiet Jim made photography his special hobby.

RALPH R. KUBAL

Christ King parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Swimming, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Annual, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . .

Ralph, with a well-rounded participation in activities to his credit, will surely make his presence felt wherever he goes.

They called the lists of unforgotten names —

ROBERT H. KUFAHL

St. Bernard parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Track, junior and senior years . . .

Bob, elder of the two Marquette Kufahls, matched a musical imagination with a fine scholastic record during his four years on the Hilltop.

RICHARD J. KUSTRA

St. Josaphat parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . MH Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Kustrowski, the beloved Polish Cowboy, contributed greatly to the spirit of the football team and of the 1960 senior class.

RICHARD J. KUNTNER

St. John Nepomuc parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Annual, senior year . . .

Steady honors winner, Dick was one of the hardest worders on the senior section of the annual — a first-class thinker, who really made the typewriter hum.

WILLIAM A. KWAPY

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Annual, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Track, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

There's only one thing better than a King — an Ace! Willy's artistic talent "sketches" a bright future for him.

OBVIOUSLY ENTHRALLED with Greg Harrington's entrancing description of his latest trip to Italy, Bill Kennedy strikes a pensive pose.

Names glorious, familiar, names of friends

THOMAS A. LAESER

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Baseball, senior year . . .

A steady honors winner and close friend of Fr. Rudolf, Tom was a familiar figure on the sports scene around Marquette.

RICHARD J. LITTLE

Cathedral parish . . . First Honors, junior year . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . .

The only small thing about Dick was his name. An entertainer who could always be depended on, Dick proved a big man to all who knew him.

JAMES R. LANG

St. Jerome parish . . . Sacristan, junior and senior years . . . Acolyte, freshman and sophomore years . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Prep Players, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . MH Club, senior year . . . Baseball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

Jim, Oconomowoc's contribution to Marquette and to the Prep Players, leaves behind him the lasting impression of his sincerity.

GEORGE W. MACE

St. Sebastian parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Annual, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . .

George, noted for his acute sense of humor, gave a tangy flavor to the daily experiences of those high school days.

WILLIAM J. LISTWAN

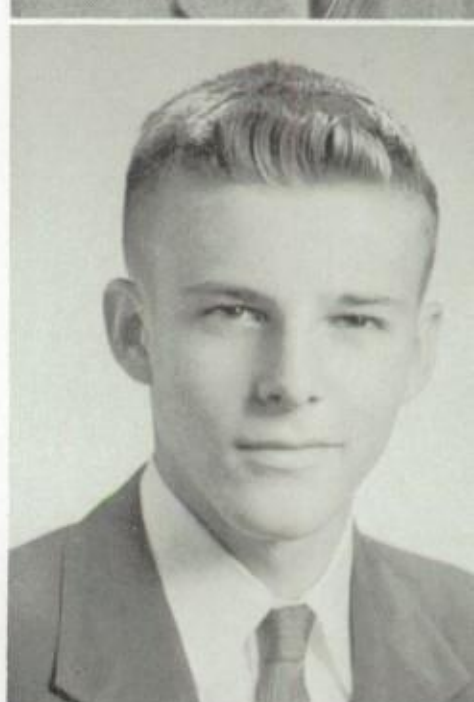

St. Rita parish . . . First Honors, junior year . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Prep Players, sophomore year . . . Band, all four years . . . Bowling, senior year.

No one represents MH in the National Merit Scholarship exam unless he's good. Bill plans to follow up in Medical school.

JOHN F. LUKES

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, sophomore and junior years . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Flambeau Annual, junior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, freshman year . . .

Serving the school as an acolyte, as a Sodalist, or as a friend, John was always respected at MH.

JAMES J. LEPAK

Holy Rosary Parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Frosh Football . . .

"Leaps" hurdled his way to popularity here. All who worked with him greatly valued his loyal friendship.

DAVID R. LORCH

St. Catherine parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . .

Dave could handle himself, whether in an argument or a fast car. We'll be watching for the clouds of glory trailing from the pipes of this speedy senior.

That conjured up all kinds of memories:

JOHN W. MACKIN

St. Mary parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Acolyte, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Band, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

An honors student, John will no doubt continue to make sweet music when he proceeds to college.

RICHARD F. MARUSZEWSKI

Blessed Sacrament parish . . . First Honors, freshman, junior, and senior years . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Bowling, all four years . . . Stamp and Coin Club, freshman year . . .

Shoot that ball; knock those pins; here comes Dick with all his friends.

DAVID J. MANGAN

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Soph Basketball . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

Dave eats, sleeps, and thinks basketball. Besides, he's been the life of many a Social affair.

THOMAS E. MARUSZEWSKI

St. Alexander parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Track, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

A stalwart sodalist, Tom was one of the rougher "Rough Rocks" who made this year's football team the strong and undefeated unit it was.

RICHARD F. MANN

St. Catherine parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Acolyte, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Annual, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, senior year . . .

Dick's unchained humor and his friendly approach made him an unforgettable addition to the class.

PATRICK W. McCARVILLE

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Golf, junior and senior years . . .

Pat has his sights set on sinking shots on some lucky University's course. His abilities as a writer should stand him in good stead.

MICHAEL L. MANKOWSKI

St. Lawrence parish . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

M & M, like his Siamese twin, King Kris, was always a force to be reckoned with.

PATRICK M. McELIGOTT

St. Jude parish . . . Flambeau Monthly, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, freshman, sophomore, and junior years.

Friendly Pat, who swings a mean iron, towered over most of his peers at Marquette, but managed to level in on many a solid friendship before his departure from the Hilltop.

Of games and of unconquered football heroes,

DENNIS J. McNALLY

St. Jude parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . MH Club, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Track, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Dennis, ace sports writer and sports editor of the Monthly, made his mark on Hilltop football, too. Injuries kept a hard-fighting gridder from the full measure of glory he deserved.

MICHAEL M. MIERZWA

Holy Ghost parish . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore year . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

Mike really took to the football. Here's good luck to Mr. Schlenk's fast-moving class ad salesman.

JAMES O. McNAMARA

St. Jude parish . . . Conclave, freshman, junior and senior years . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Golf, junior and senior years . . .

If nothing more, Mac was one of the most likable guys around. He was a hard-working, dependable Catholic Actionist.

JOSEF L. MOLEND

St. Ignatius parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Choir, junior and senior years . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . .

Father Portz will miss Joe, always a first-class chorister.

JAMES L. MICHALSKI

St. Veronica parish . . . Conclave, all four years . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, freshman year . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

The core of our core of hardworking seniors, "Jimbo" worked as hard and did as much for MH as anyone.

JOSEPH H. MIOTKE

St. Catherine parish . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Prep Players, freshman and sophomore years . . . Science Club, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Joe was one of the best-known seniors. He managed to fill the gap in many an activity during his stay at Marquette.

JAMES J. METZGER

St. John Nepomuc parish . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

It seems impossible that such a small body could carry such a large brain and such a tremendous sense of humor.

GERARD C. MONDAY

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolytes, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Tennis, freshman year . . .

Genial Gerry was an earnest acolyte and sacristan. His plans are to go on to Engineering.

Of grades and arguments, of fine debates,

JOHN M. MOONEY

St. Pius parish . . . Conclave, sophomore and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Webster Club, sophomore and junior years . . . MH Club, senior year . . . Sophomore Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . .

Likeable "Moon" shone on and off the gridiron throughout his years on the Hilltop. He earned distinction for himself and the school as "Athlete of the week" for his exploits in the Dominican game.

JOHN E. MUEHLENBACH

Mother of Good Council parish . . . Muehlenbach, a transfer student, made a lot of progress in that Pontiac of his.

NORMAN J. MUEHLECK

St. Mary's of Waukesha . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . .

Norm seems to take to the idea of becoming a naval architect. And he has the grades to back him up.

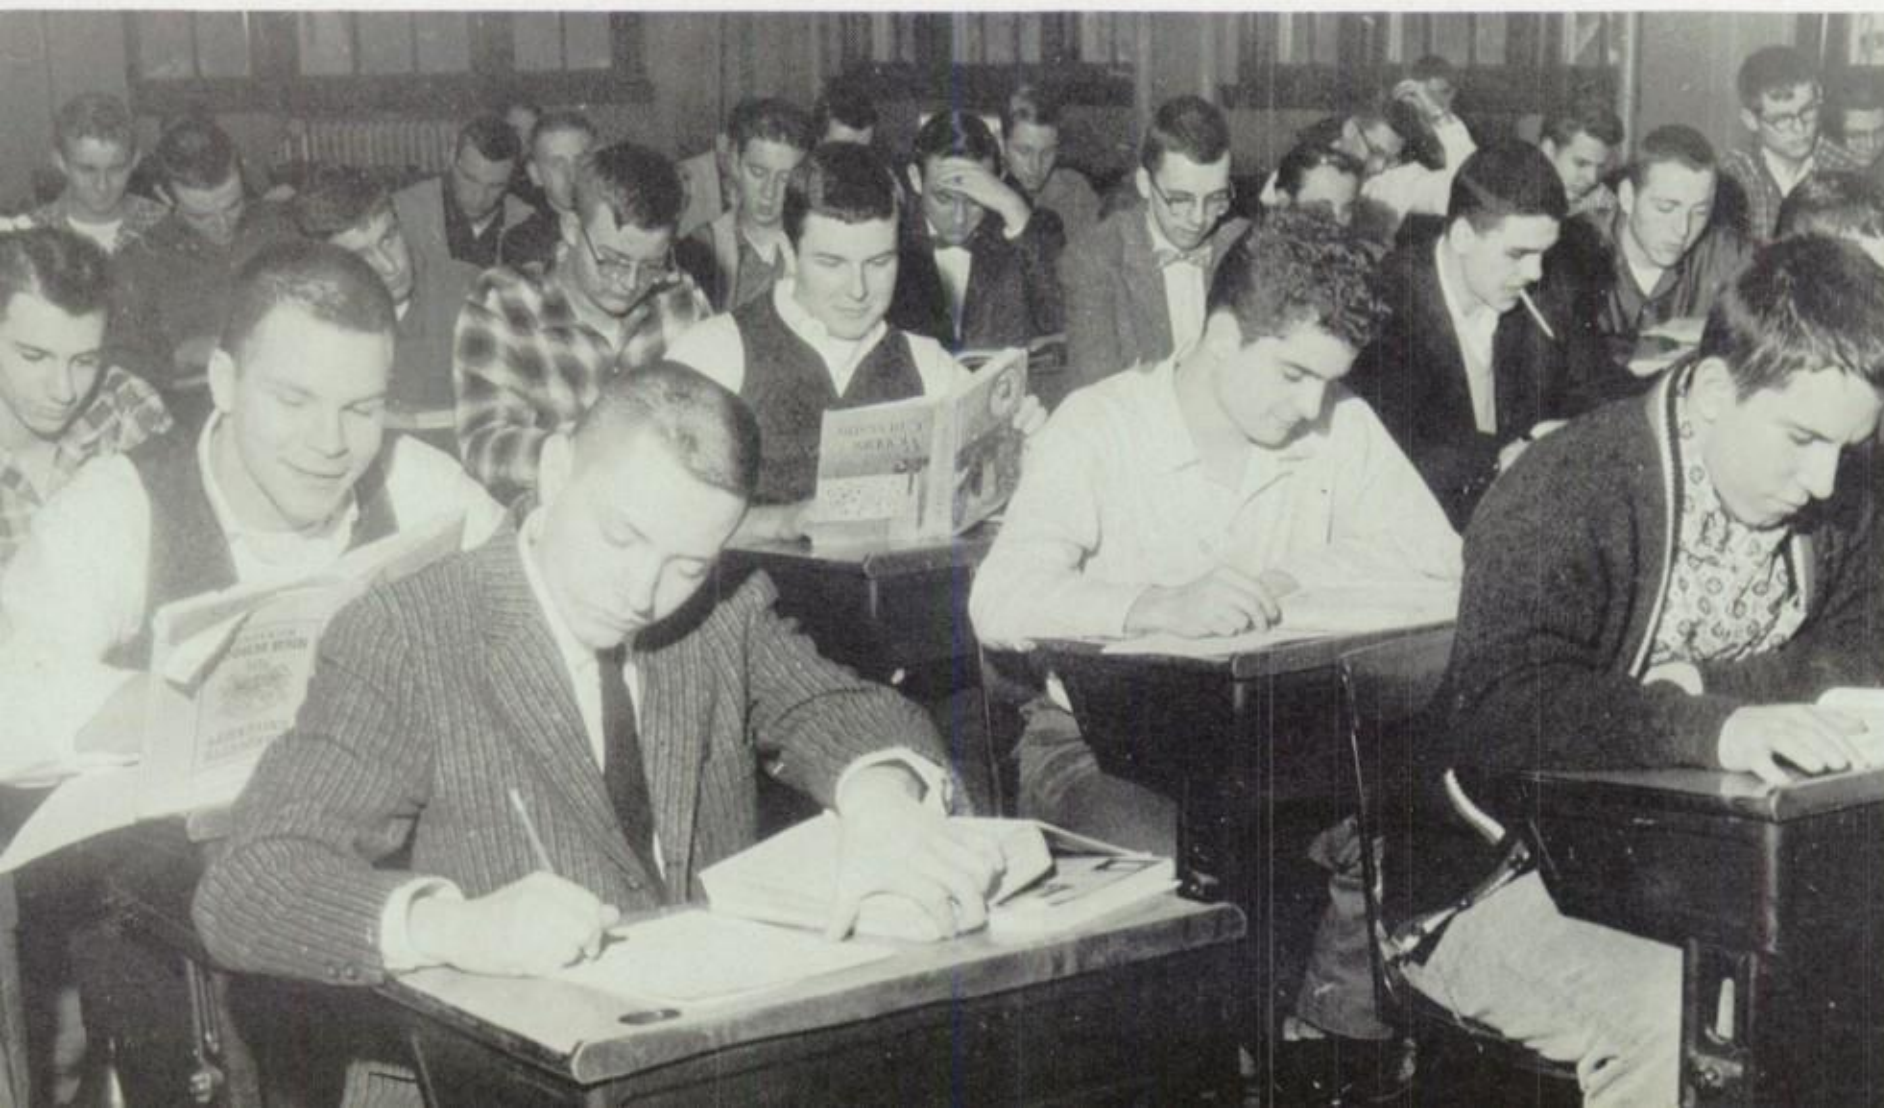

THOMAS P. MURPHY

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

Murph, with his warm friendly Irish smile and his Gaelic sense of humor, certainly ranked among the most popular seniors.

THE CHIEF REASON Hanson and his friend have such a hard time with their studies is that they still haven't found out which way is up.

Variety and dances and the sounds

GREGORY L. NADOLSKI

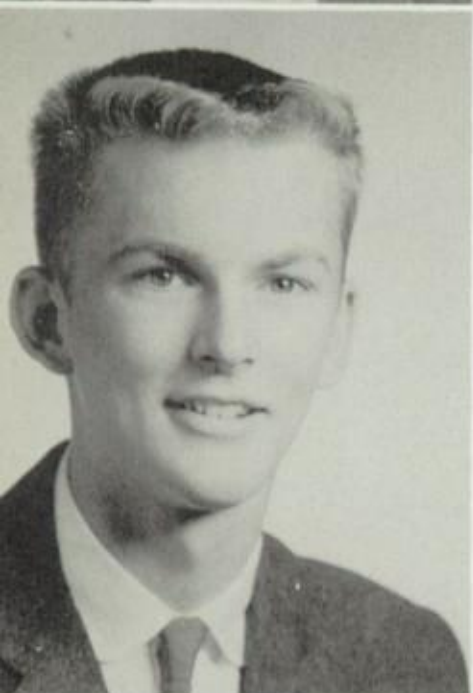

St. Aloysius parish . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Stamp and Coin Club, freshman year . . .

A cloud of smoke, a screech of tires, and the mighty thunder of tenpins falling are among the unforgettable sounds associated with this Southland boy.

GERALD J. OFFENBACHER

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Prep Players, junior and senior years . . .

Four years a Sodalist and three years an acolyte, Jerry always put first things first.

THOMAS R. NEIS

St. Jude parish . . . Conclave, sophomore year . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Science Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Tennis, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . .

For four years, Mr. Happiness gave fine musical accompaniment to everything at Marquette.

GARY R. OLEJNIK

St. Hyacinth parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Sophomore Football . . .

Big Gary's trademark was his Chevrolet. We'll be watching for him to go places on the high road of the future.

CARL C. NELSON

St. Agnes parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . .

A common name for an uncommon man. After four years in the Sodality, Carl is ready for his conquest of life.

BRUCE C. O'NEILL

St. Sebastian parish . . . Conclave, senior year . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sophomore Football . . . Frosh Football . . .

Bruce distinguished himself as a fine writer and Co-Editor of the Flambeau Monthly. Few will forget the brewing prose which made his "Editor's Notebook" such a popular Monthly feature.

THOMAS J. NOVOTNY

St. Sebastian parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

If Tom hadn't smoked so much, he might have grown big and tall. Tom is looking ahead to four years of college, possibly at St. Norbert's.

MICHAEL G. O'NEIL

St. Jude parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Swimming, junior and senior years . . . Cross Country, junior and senior years . . . Prep Players, sophomore year . . .

This plucky German lad from St. Jude's can really swim and run. His next plunge will be into college.

Of intramural struggles and the songs,

JOHN L. ONESTINGHEL

Christ King parish . . . First Honors, sophomore year . . . Second Honors, freshman and junior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Track, junior and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

John can stand with the many Marquetteers who have shown that what they're made of is not clay. May John, his brains, his speed, and his smile bring him continued success in Engineering.

THOMAS A. PALMER

Immaculate Heart of Mary parish . . . Sodality, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Choir, junior and senior years . . . Band, freshman and sophomore years . . . Golf, senior year . . .

A teaching career looms in this outspoken Marquetteer's future.

Holy Trinity parish . . . First Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Acolyte, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Honors winner, acolyte and darkroom operator, George seems headed for an outstanding career in some phase of science or engineering.

JAMES M. PAPIN

St. Robert parish . . . Conclave, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore year . . . Varsity Basketball, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Sophomore Basketball . . .

Somebody always towers above the rest. The class of 1960 could nominate Jim as its most outstanding member.

THOMAS R. PACKEE

Christ King parish . . . Sodality, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Band, freshman and sophomore years . . . Varsity Basketball, junior and senior years . . . Golf, senior year . . .

Swing that sof-f-ft shot! Tall Tom advanced from All-CYO ranking to a berth on the Hilltop basketball varsity

JOHN R. PARK

St. Alphonsus parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . First Honors, freshman, sophomore and junior years . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Sacristan, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . . Prep Players, freshman and sophomore years . . . Science Club, sophomore and junior years . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . .

John's many high school activities conditioned him for the active life ahead. He's making tentative plans for medicine.

JOHN PALATELLA

Sodality, senior year . . . Swimming, senior year . . . Track, senior year . . .

John, an exchange student from Italy, seemed to show more genuine classical learning in one year than most of us do in a lifetime. We hope that he'll remember us when he returns to Europe.

MICHAEL V. PAPKA

St. Catherine parish . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Mike, Flambeau circulation director, was always a dependable friend. We wish him the very best of everything.

And Father Crowley's jokes and of the Play

PAUL A. PIASKOSKI

St. Robert parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Swimming, freshman and sophomore years . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . .

"Skowski" managed mission collections, honor study hall, and a very good report card in senior year. He was a forceful influence on our class.

DONALD M. QUINLAN

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Golf, senior year . . . Bowling, all four years . . . Political Science Club, all four years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

Don managed to take top honors all four years while winning friends everywhere he went. One of the most celebrated of the Varsity Websters, Don looks to high achievement in the years to come.

JAMES D. POLLOCK

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . First Honors, senior year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . . Baseball, junior and senior years . . .

With his strong heart and melodious voice, Senor Slim hit the spot in Spanish class and in opponents' lines.

ANDREW M. RAJEC

St. Stephen parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Science Club, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Baseball, senior year . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

Quiet Andy, a fine student and an active sodalist, brightened up the class considerably. Our best wishes go to Mr. Rajec.

JAMES E. POMASL

St. Catherine parish . . . Sacristan, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . .

A devoted sacristan, Jim and his comments made these last four years interesting and entertaining.

JOSEPH C. REICHENBERGER

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . First Honors, junior and senior years . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . .

Joe kept things developing down in the Flambeau darkroom. An able photographer, he is responsible for many of the sports pictures in the current yearbook.

TERRY F. PUTCHINSKI

Immaculate Heart of Mary parish . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

Putchy became known for the mop atop that whirling brain — which so constantly ground out little gems of useful information.

THOMAS D. REBEK

Christ King parish . . . Bowling, all four years.

Tom secured himself a high place on the Bowling league tally sheets and a warm place in the hearts of all.

And Marquette's marching band, and all the rallies,

DONALD E. REINBOLD

St. Jude parish . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, all four years . . . Cross Country, junior year . . . Prep Players, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Band, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . .

Don "beat the drum" for Marquette in all of his endeavors here, and he kept things buzzing backstage.

JOHN C. RICE

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore and junior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore and junior years . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

If there was any fun going on, John was there. However, he managed to add good records in studies and activities to his social accomplishments.

PAUL T. RIEDL

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . .

A football Hilltopper, Paul was the epitome of the gentleman off the gridiron.

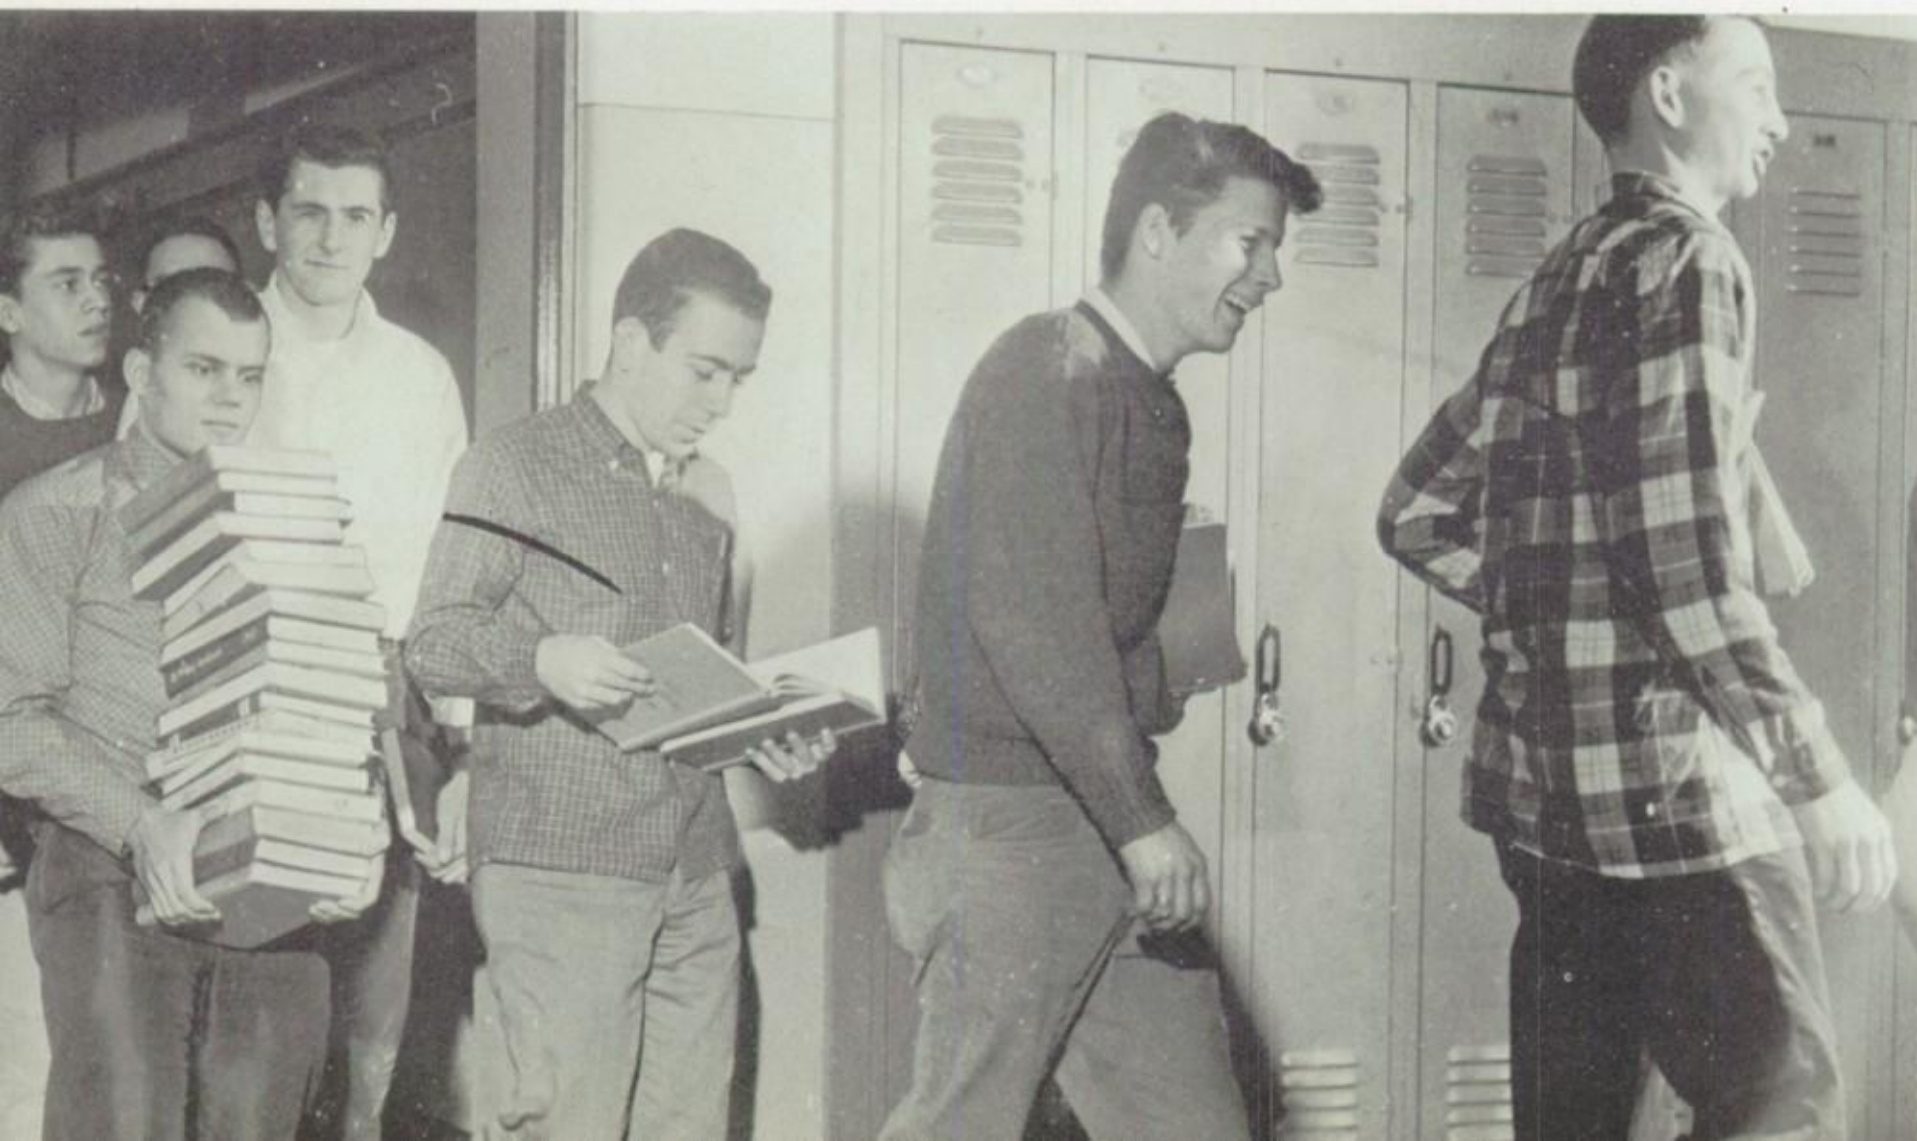

DONALD G. RINZEL

St. Augustine parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, freshman year . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Basketball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Soph Basketball . . .

Easy Don devoted much of his talent and energy to unrewarding tasks. He was always in there hustling.

HERE WE HAVE Ken Kaestner the student! Most people know him as Kenny the Commentator, but Gregrich, Hamann, Balistreri, and the rest of the crew from senior English six know that this is the real Ken.

The pressure of the College Board exams,

JAMES F. ROBAK

St. Joseph, West Allis, parish . . . Conclave, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Choir, sophomore and junior years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Prep Players, senior year . . . Band, all four years . . . Baseball, senior year . . . Political Science Club, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Jim headed the band this year, and found time to keep a combo of his own going at the same time. An ardent antagonist in the fight against Rock 'n Roll, he nevertheless managed to make many a rocker his friend.

WAYNE A. ROSS

St. Rita parish . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Swimming, junior year . . . Bowling, senior year . . .

Wayne dressed as well as his sister — Miss Wisconsin — looked. How good is that? Not bad. College calls for Wayne. We wish him the best.

DEAN M. ROBINSON

St. Monica parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Daddy Dan was our "intelligence" man on the bowling squad. Scientific approach, you know. Engineering seems to be his calling.

THOMAS S. RYPEL

St. Gerard parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Acolyte, freshman year . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Small but resourceful, Tom was a great friend of Schimelfenyg. He did his share to keep things lively at Marquette.

RICHARD A. ROCKHILL

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Webster Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, freshman and senior years . . .

Rock was one of the nicest good humor men we have ever met. Number your enemies; he has none. Good luck in Engineering, Rock.

MICHAEL R. SALICK

St. Sebastian parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Prep Players, junior and senior years . . . Band, sophomore and senior years . . .

Chapel organist, Mike could strike a sympathetic note in any heart, however flinty. He plans to turn to Law for his bread and butter.

ROBERT G. ROLOFF

St. Thomas Aquinas parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, sophomore, and junior years . . . Bowling, senior year . . . Baseball, senior year . . .

Bob was an honors winner and sports enthusiast. His loyalty to Marquette may be gauged by the distance he had to come to get to school. We'll put our chips on this senior from Waterford.

CARL J. SANFELIPPO

St. Monica parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . .

A poly sci enthusiast — it runs in the family — Carl impressed teachers as well as fellow students with his consistent kindness.

And waiters at Club '60, and the Swift —

JAMES F. SAZAMA

Christ King parish . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Prep Players, sophomore year . . .

"Saaazamaaa" was the cry of his classmates. Jim will certainly give a good account of himself in Bus. Ad.

FRANK C. SCHMIDT

St. Catherine parish . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, junior year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . .

Frank was the old reliable on the Flambeau exchange staff. This intelligent young man will make his mark for Marquette in future years.

DAVID P. SCHAEFER

St. John Nepomuc parish . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

National Honor Society president and consistent honors winner, Dave was a valued member of the Class of '60.

JOSEPH J. SCHMITT

St. Bernard parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Swimming, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Cross Country, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Track, junior year . . .

A record with many victories — especially in swimming — and few defeats. We're proud that Jay-Jay cast his lot with the class of '60.

JAMES A. SCHALLER

Visitation parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Golf, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Wily Jim, who worked hard to get his marks, made his contribution in several sports on the Hilltop.

RAY J. SCHMITZ

St. Sebastian parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

Ray was a connoisseur of automobiles. He has more than his Corvette, however, to speed him to success in college.

THOMAS F. SCHIMELFENYGY

Immaculate Conception parish . . . Conclave, freshman and sophomore years . . .

Tom did his bit in Conclave. Silent and efficient, he's bound to be a success, whatever career he chooses.

ANDREW P. SCHNEIDER

St. Elizabeth parish . . .

Andy, one of the bigger men about Marquette, left lasting friends as he bade farewell to the Hilltop.

These were the recollections of their years,

DAN V. SCHOENECKER

Christ King parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Sodality, sophomore year . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Tennis, sophomore year . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, sophomore year and senior years . . .

Dan rode on a stick to school each morning. One of the most influential seniors, he can hardly fail to succeed in later life.

JOHN C. SERAMUR

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Webster Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, sophomore year . . . Political Science Club, freshman year . . .

John bounced down to school every morning in a beautiful custom-built car. His lanky frame seemed to make him an easy mark for study hall prefects, but his good nature will carry him through.

THOMAS J. SCHULTZ

St. Bernard parish . . . First Honors, freshman year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Prep Players, senior year . . . Science Club, junior and senior year . . . Political Science Club, freshman and sophomore year . . .

Quiet Tom, who turned many a neat phrase for Mr. Dervin and for the Flambeau, had one weakness. He loved to watch people drive automobiles — fast.

WILLIAM F. SHEAHAN

St. Jude parish . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . MH Club, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, senior year . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

Li'l Billy, the ballplayer's ballplayer, teamed with Mooney to make the best linebacking combination in the state. It was this hard-driving half-back who broke open the Catherine game, bringing us our first victory over the Racine team in five years.

DAVID P. SCHULZ

St. Rose of Lima parish . . . Conclave, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, junior year . . . Track, junior and senior years . . .

Dave was an acknowledged senior leader. Prominent in the Conclave, he lent his wholehearted support to any important Marquette activity.

PATRICK B. SHEEHAN

St. Robert Parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . MH Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Varsity Basketball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Baseball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

All-state football quarterback, basketball and baseball mainstay, Pat won his teammates' votes as Homecoming King. He was the authentic "golden boy" of the class of 1960.

JOHN W. SCHWANTES

Christ King parish . . . Second Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Prep Players, sophomore year . . .

Easy John, a golfing enthusiast who is also a good student, should have no difficulty setting out a career for himself after graduation.

DENNIS A. SHEBESTA

St. Aloysius Parish . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

Dennis took to the pins in senior year. An extrovert from the word go, he was one of the most popular, both on and off the lanes.

That night in June the final march began

ROBERT G. SIMSKE

Our Lady of Sorrows parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Soph Football . . .

Bob rambled in each day from the far North Side. An able student, he was number one man in the Milwaukee Engineering essay contest in junior year.

MICHAEL J. SKIERAWSKI

St. Aloysius parish . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior and senior years . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Varsity Football, senior year . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . National Honor Society . . .

"Red" always scored high in track, in football, in studies, and with his friends.

RICHARD J. SKOWLUND

Our Lady of Sorrows parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

This unscowling Norseman managed to make a good classroom record for himself while studiously knocking down pins in his after-school hours.

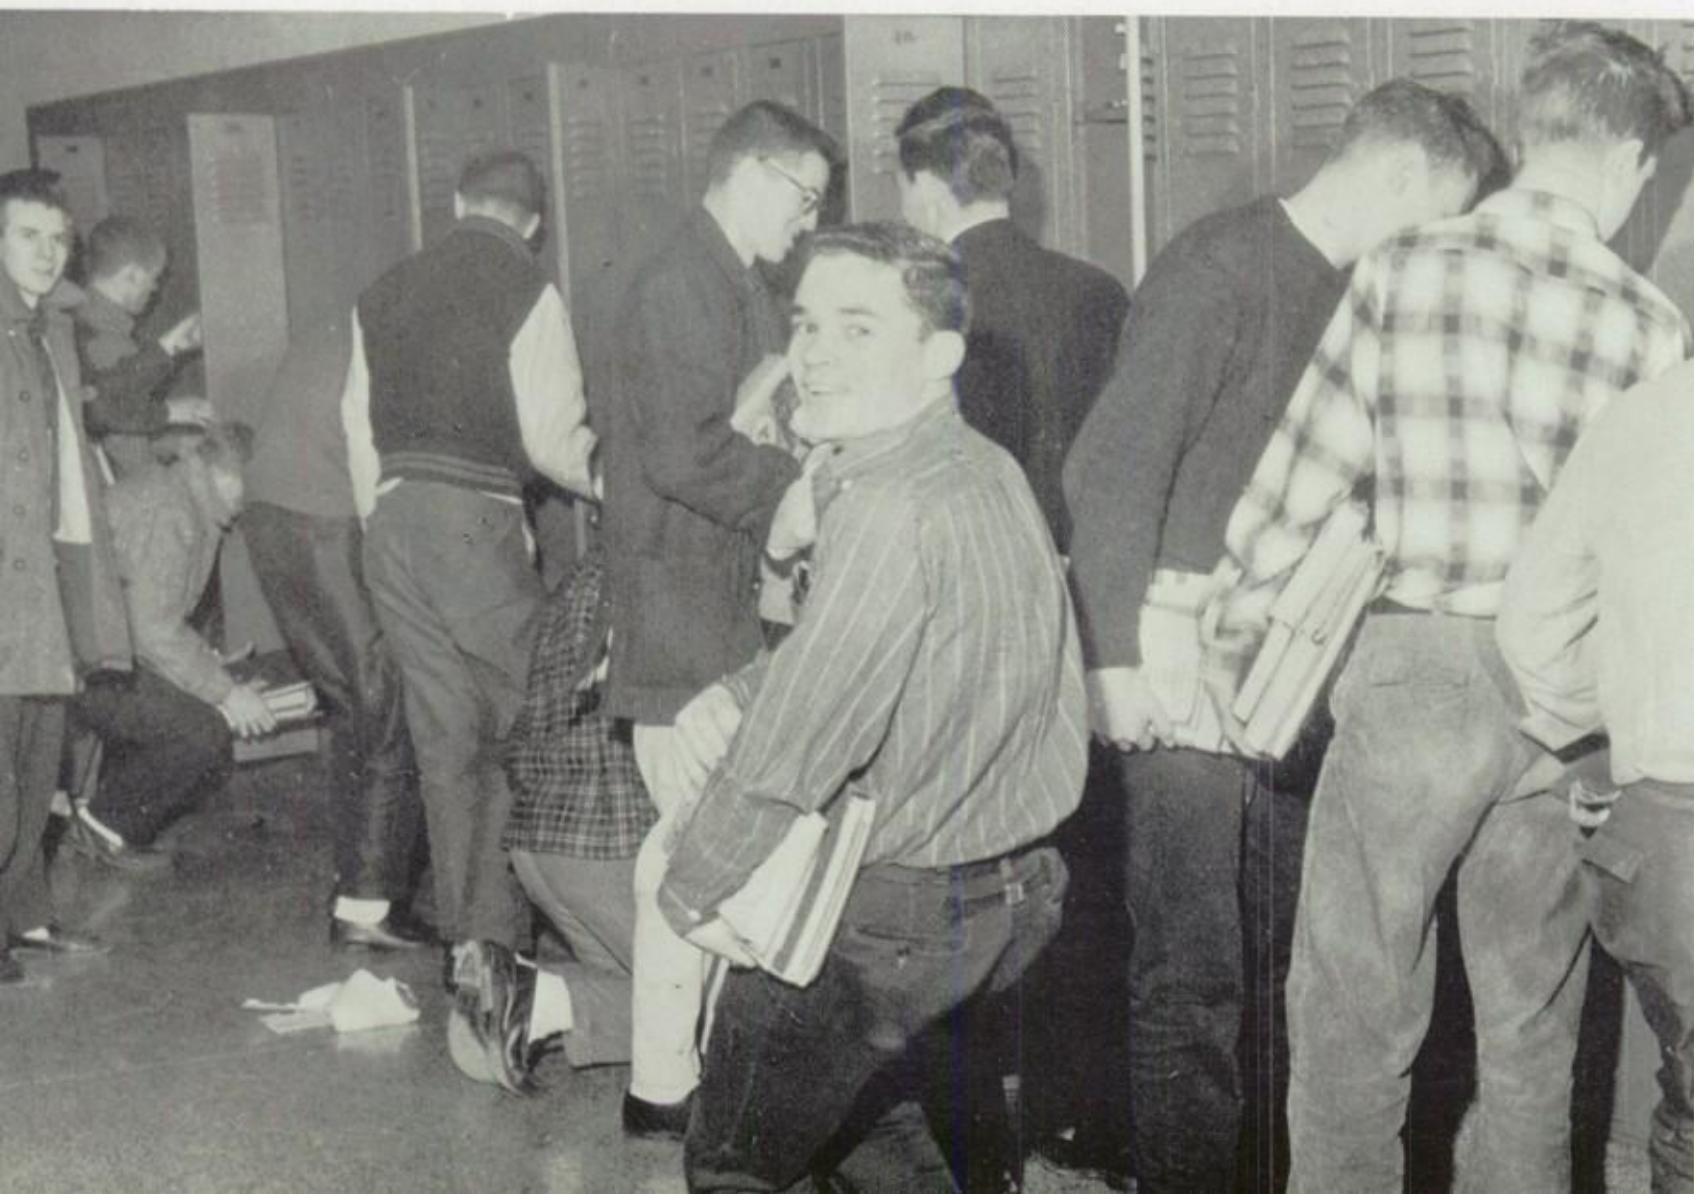

ROBERT J. SLADKY

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Conclave, sophomore year . . . Second Honors, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Choir, senior year . . . Webster Club, freshman and senior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, all four years . . . Band, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Tennis, freshman and sophomore years . . . Political Science Club, Senior year . . .

"Slad" was a Flambeau ad salesman par excellence. Despite his many Marquette activities, he somehow found time to maintain a consistent record of honors.

"WHAT I-D CARD?" Jim Finkler is painfully surprised as he hurries to join the troops headed for chapel.

When seniors strode outdoors to meet the world,

JOHN F. SNYDER

Christ King parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . MH Club, junior and senior years . . . Golf, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

This "iron" man excelled not only from tee to green, but socially as well.

FRANK J. STIGLICH

Holy Trinity parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Sophomore Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . .

Skip had hosts of friends at Marquette. We hope he will triumph as often in the future as he has in the past.

RICHARD G. STAAT

Christ King parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Bowling, all four years . . . Track, senior year . . .

Dick, always a good-tempered young man, was a reliable on the bowling lanes, but he managed to get out and give track a whirl during his last year here.

CRAIG R. STREFF

Christ King parish . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Baseball, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

A fine pitcher, Creamy really knew how to toss it around. He will be remembered for his stage debut at the variety show this year.

GERHARD J. STEFAN

St. Leo's parish . . . Conclave, freshman year . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Choir, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman year . . . Cross Country, sophomore and senior years . . .

"Herr Gerry" hit the high notes at Marquette as a choir member and CA man. He promised to get a haircut for graduation.

TIMOTHY M. SULLIVAN

St. Peter and Paul parish . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Flambeau Monthly, senior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, junior and senior years . . .

Tim, quiet as all get out but a steady man in the sodality, made his mark on the senior section of the Annual during his final year at Marquette.

MICHAEL W. STARCK

St. Monica parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Frosh Football . . . Tennis, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Golf, freshman year . . . Bowling, all four years . . .

An old racquets man, Mike also was a fine bowler. Too bad he didn't always win at sheep-head!

ROBERT A. SULLO

St. Sebastian parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Webster Club, junior and senior years . . .

A man who knew the right answers as a debater, Bob has in mind the law — a profession for which he seems ideally suited.

And carefree Marquette days were all gone by;

JOHN F. SUSTAR

St. Catherine parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Catholic Action, all four years . . . Science Club, junior and senior years . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, junior and senior years . . .

Gentleman John kept things well in hand in chapel and, in addition, disciplined quite a few linemen as one of Coach Noack's "Rough Rocks."

JOSEPH E. TIERNEY

St. Jude parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Webster Club, all four years . . . Political Science Club, all four years . . .

Perry Mason, beware. Joe's quick mind and tongue, sharpened in debate, will be formidable courtroom weapons.

JAMES F. SWEENEY

Mother of Good Counsel parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, freshman year . . .

Jim, a perfectionist when it came to memorizing Shakespeare, broke in his big Ford while entering the scene at Marquette. His good nature would make him a memorable member of any class.

THOMAS M. TOLE

Immaculate Conception parish . . . Second Honors, freshman, junior, and senior years . . . Swimming, senior year . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior and senior years . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior and senior years . . .

Tall Tom will always be remembered for his clever features in the Flambeau. His creative flair should find many an outlet in college.

JAMES M. SZYMANSKI

St. Augustine parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Acolyte, senior year . . . Frosh Football . . . Varsity Football, sophomore and junior years . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .

A wide variety of interests, from football to printing presses, marked the high school years of this far South-sider.

ANDREW J. THON

St. Sebastian parish . . . Conclave, junior and senior years . . . First Honors, freshman and sophomore years . . . Second Honors, junior year . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Webster Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Flambeau Monthly, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Varsity Basketball Manager, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .

The office sought the man. Andy's intellectual ability, spirit, and leadership made him a natural choice as Conclave President.

JAMES M. TORCIVIA

Holy Family parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .

Smooth bowling and smooth T-bird flights to the "Wildwoods" made life just a breeze for Torcley.

JAMES H. TRECKER

St. Mary parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . .

Trecker seemed to prefer close association with prefects to the trials of honor study hall. A successful future, however, is already under construction for Jim.

In later years they will remember this,

RONALD R. TUTAJ

St. John Nepomuc parish . . . Sodality, freshman and sophomore years . . . Frosh Football . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Track, sophomore and junior years . . .
A real bowling King-pin, Tutaj relentlessly waged a one-man war against barbers.

GREGORY T. VAN AACKEN

St. Anne parish . . .
Greg, who came here as a Junior, would often rise to startle a class with a genuinely acute comment on the progress of affairs.

MARK C. URMANSKI

St. Frederick parish . . . Second Honors, senior year . . . Conclave, senior year . . . Prep Players, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . .
Mark was the man behind the scenes at Marquette. He plans to be right on the spot as a Medic.

JEROLD F. VOIGT

St. Albert parish . . . Second Honors, freshman year . . . Soph Football . . . Frosh Basketball . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . .
This number one speedster in frosh and soph football will surely take college in stride.

JOHN M. USZLER

St. Lawrence parish . . . Second Honors, all four years . . . Webster Club, junior and senior years . . . Bowling, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . Political Science Club, senior year . . .
"Get your programs here!" John always showed kegler fans the lineup; and his honor cards showed quite a lineup too.

MICHAEL K. WACKER

St. Mary parish . . . Frosh Football . . . Soph Football . . . Bowling, sophomore year . . .
If hard work and determination are ingredients of success, here's to Wacker. He was always willing to make the extra effort.

JAMES H. UTZERATH

Christ King parish . . . First Honors, sophomore year . . . Second Honors, freshman and junior years . . . Flambeau Monthly, junior year . . . Flambeau Yearbook, junior year . . .
Here was a literary wit who could explain Einstein's theory easily and well. Make way, engineers!

JOHN R. WALKER

Holy Cross parish . . . First Honors, all four years . . . Sodality, all four years . . . Political Science Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years . . . National Honor Society, senior year . . .
Information Please! First Honors all four years more than qualified this man as an outstanding senior.

Cartoonist Club, freshman and sophomore years . . . Bowling, freshman, sophomore, and senior years . . .

Tall though he was, Jude remained unbowed beneath the weight of Flambeau work piled on his slender shoulders.

RONALD V. WATERS

St. Jude parish . . . Sodality, freshman year . . . Bowling, sophomore and junior years . . .

"We can't spare this man; he produces." They will be lucky students who get Ron for their teacher!

"SHABOOOM, BROOM, putt, putt, pow, pow, varoom! Fo ma next selecshun, Ah'll sing da see-queel to da motahcycle blues." Bob Dunn, "The Big Schlobber" of Variety Show fame, exhausts himself amid the screams and screeches of his loyal fans.

His "strike" expert is sure to be a hit in all arts as well.

SCHOOL IS JUST A LAUGH with a pair of loafers. John Snyder and Bob Wieber merrily emerge from another happy classroom experience.

So let the drums roll: let the bugles blow

ACTIVITIES

and ORGANIZATIONS

THIS WAS the year — and on this year we left our mark. We had, in Marquette High's activities, opportunities to work together in recreation or special fields of development. Some of these activities served to develop the hobbyist, some were meant for the technical man, and some were for men of varying interests and abilities. Common to all these endeavors was the promotion of combined effort and fun. This was the extra-curricular year — and now it can be told in the 1959-60 history of Marquette High's Activities and Organizations.

Activities shall set the spirit free

Responsible in council, noble leaders

CONCLAVE REPRESENTATIVES — First Semester
Back row: Gillick, O'Neill, Mooney, Fedler, Urmanski, Hanson.

Third row: Upton, Frey, Finnegan, Pfeifer, Lukes, Bartosch, Robak, Wysocki, Michalski.

Conclave

A WORKING relationship between the student body and the faculty is a necessary and indispensable factor for the success of any school year. This fact brought about the establishment of the Student Conclave five years ago. Its value to the school increased as each year passed by. This year it has reached the apex of its achievement.

Since the entire student body selects the students considered most representative of their particular classes, the Conclave is composed of men who are leaders, men who are expected to know the wants and needs of each person they represent. The Conclave meets formally once a month. At these meetings the members present their recommendations and suggestions in an orderly, parliamentary fashion. These ideas are then considered, argued pro and con, and voted upon by the entire representative body. If the idea seems feasible and helpful to the school, a committee is appointed and the plan put into action. Time and time again this procedure has produced brilliant results, results that have made Marquette High School a better school, results that have evidenced the desire of students to contribute responsibly to its welfare.

Back row: Carney, Olivas, McCaffrey, Siebold, McGowan, Roe, McNamara, Schulz, Doyle, Cavanaugh.

Front row: Holson, Winker, Casper, Donegan, Sonnenberg, T. Fraf, McGavick, Klotz, Cotter, Cary, Short.

HAPPY ABOUT something, the ten senior committee heads show their teeth to the Flambeau photographer. Standing (l. to r.) they are Jim McNamara, Dave Schulz, Tom Drolshagen, Jim Michalski, and Dan Kain. Seated are Jim Robak, Dennis McNally, Terry Keenan, Jim Hanson, and Mike Cavanaugh. Standing by is the social committee moderator, Mr. Thomas Brennan, S.J.

Consideration for the poor of Christ

FR. JOHN EAGAN, S.J., sodality coordinator, meets with Catholic Action and sophomore Sodality moderators and prefects to discuss means for sanctifying the men of Marquette. They are (l. to r.) Fr. John Eagan, S.J., Gary Foy, Mike Upton, Mr. Donald Driscoll, S.J., Dennis Holleran, Fr. Robert Hoene, S.J., John Sustar, Mr. Francis Mininni, S.J., Steve Keane, Mr. Daniel Kenney, S.J.

Sodality and Catholic Action

THE SODALITY and Catholic Action groups seek to develop the practical spiritual side of the Marquette High student. The Sodality's main force is mental prayer while Catholic Action employs various physical projects to help others while it builds its members.

The way to best communicate with God is to talk to Him within the quiet of one's self. With this in mind the Sodality urges and instructs its members in mental prayer. It teaches them, in a manner of speaking, to talk to God. Self-sanctification, now and in later life, is the supreme goal of the Marquette Sodalists.

Catholic Action, meanwhile, seeks to aid the "other half" in the sanctification of its members. Working with the needy, the mentally ill, and the physically handicapped, the Catholic Actionists come to a realization of the responsibilities of their place in life. Forging a better world through self-application is the work and ideal of Marquette High's Catholic Action organization.

Brought sacrifice to meet a neighbor's need

THINK OF THOSE happy families on Christmas Day! Fr. Grau, Dick Hendy, and John Lukes pack Christmas baskets for poor families.

"I HAVE SWIPED me a bird!" cries Mike Roe, boy goosenapper, while Dennis Holleran deliberates on things more profound — Thanksgiving dinner for the recipients of this fowl gift.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR SODALITY heads have the responsibility for the heaviest burden of the Sodality program at Marquette High. In the front row, pictured here are (l. to r.): the moderators, Jesuits Mr. Patrick Burns, Fr. Joseph Grau, Mr. Thomas Brennan, Fr. Lawrence Kelly, Mr. James Empereur,

And plans to serve, and special tasks for each.

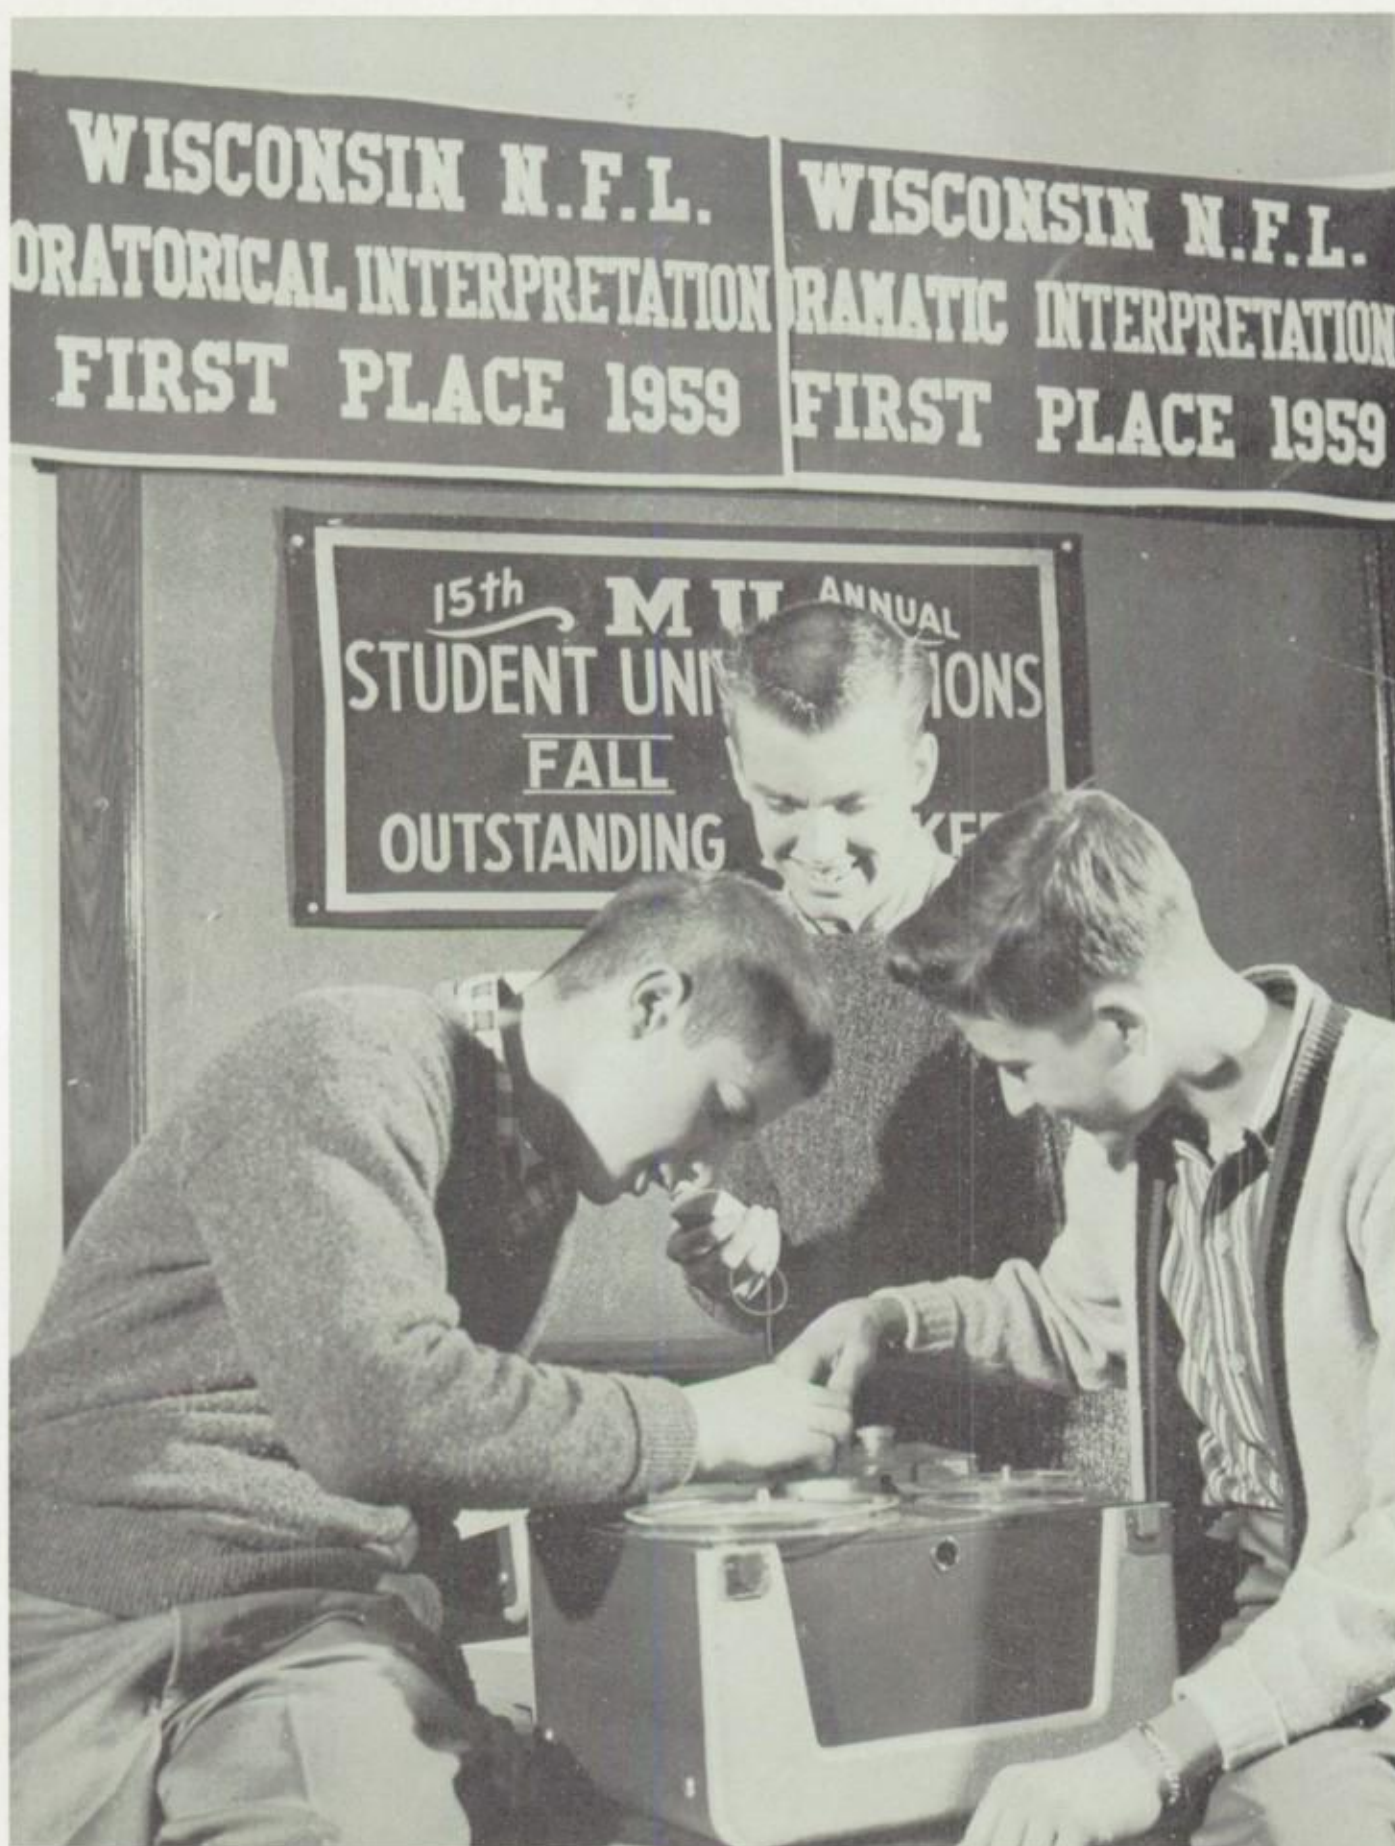

SODALISTS who represented Marquette out in the great world are: Jim Gauer, Mark Korb, and Jim Robak. Korb was prefect of SUMA, the Sodality Union of Milwaukee Archdiocese.

FIGURING OUT new ways to serve the cause of Catholic Action was the job of CA office staffers: Jim McGarty and Mike Meyers, and (seated) Jim McNamara and John Lukes.

Their golden eloquence, their silver speech

USING NEW devices to keep alive a championship tradition generations old are Soph Websters Jim Hart, Guy Williams, and Dan Ticcioni.

The Webster Club

"FRIENDS, ROMANS, Countrymen, lend me your ears."

The speaker who orated these memorable lines was noted for his ability to sway the feelings of the assembled multitudes; yet, through the hallowed halls of Marquette High words of equal, or at times greater, emotional appeal have re-echoed. These pleas would not have been used for the same purpose, the stirring of a mob to violence, but rather to stir a most honorable judge to the recognition of an ironclad argument.

Such arguments, requiring a good deal of research, direction, and speaking ability, give a large number of students the chance to think on their feet and gain self-confidence.

This is, essentially, the main goal and purpose of Marquette High's Webster Club. An unbeatable combination of hard work and expert guidance have again produced a fine winning season.

Exposed our problems, reproposed our laws

MR. McNALLY and his quick-thinking, fast-talking senior Websters give Marquette a show of strength. They are (l. to r.): Robak, Bartosch, Molenda, Uszler, Mr. J. R. McNally, S.J., Korb, Sullo, Tierney, Ecks, Quinlan.

WILD ABOUT Webster prospects for a victorious season are these two dependables — Bob Sullo, a senior, and junior John Lemerond.

And brought to life locutions long since lost

WHILE CHEWING (no doubt) on their pebbles, frosh Webbies pose with their moderator, Mr. James Empereur, S.J. They are (l. to r.): Top row: Hanser, Kapusta, Nelson, Hqlaska; Sixth row: Porath T., Kimmel, Knopp, Geiger; Fifth row: Parath, J., Guardalabene, Sarosiek, Townsend; Fourth row: Hellman, Klawitter, Zimmermann, Petrusek; Third row: Dean, Pietrzynski, VanHecke, Holzhauer; Second row: Schroeder, Noelke, Nolan, Bruce; Front: Mr. Empereur and Dessel.

ED LARSON reports on Chicago police-labor situation to Mr. Marvin Vens, S.J.

Some delved into Geoff Chaucer's treasure trove

Flambeau Publications

"Tell me, O Flambeau, of a school — a school with a vision, a school rich in tradition and spirit."

The Flambeau's reply to this distressed plea is not accompanied by lyre, but rather by the pummeling of typewriter keys. Yet, like the epic poetry of yore, the Flambeau Publications — the Monthly, alumni Newsletter, and yearbook — have captured the many and varied poses of the student body for future generations to behold in wonderment and awe.

The Flambeau Monthly, under the editorship of Dave Salentine and Bruce O'Neill, by means of such popular columns as the "Editor's Notebook," the "Roving Inquirer," "From the Sidelines," and fine reporting and feature writing, told the month-by-month story of the Marquette student, his activities, sports, triumphs, and complaints. The Newsletter, edited by George Kuetemeyer, brought the news of the school to alumni, parents, and past parents. The Flambeau yearbook, under the direction of Bill Conley and Dick Fedler, tells the tale of the "mighty '60 year." This year's new yearbook features include the use of color for the division pages and the running topline poetry.

And some, flamboyant journalists, marched forth

◀ National Honor Society

THE INTELLECTUAL and cultural development of the Marquette University High School students was augmented by the after-school sessions of the National Honor Society. Selected members — who merit admittance on their scholastic record, extra-curricular performance, and general leadership — convened on the first Wednesday of each month. Members read, report on, criticize, and discuss the year's topic. In 1959-60 a study was made of "The Canterbury Tales," written by Geoffrey Chaucer, "the story teller par excellence of the Middle Ages," who, according to moderator Fr. John Crowley, S.J., "portrayed 'merrie England' in brilliant versification with vitality, vividness, and satiric humor." The meetings were comprised mainly of talks — on alchemy, nature lore, individual Chaucerian tales and figures of speech — by designated members of the group.

GHOST WRITERS in the sky? Flambeau moderator and editors (l. to r.): Dick Fedler, Mr. Thomas Collins, S.J., Bill Conley, Dave Salentine, Bruce O'Neill, and George Kuetemeyer peruse the heavens in search of ghostly talent for their ghostly publications.

To capture words to celebrate our year

And science fixed its gaze upon the moon.

Science Club

BEADS OF SWEAT must appear on Nikita Khrushchev's hairless pate each time he hears of the accomplishments of the Marquette High Science Club. The perspiration must flow freely when Nik hears how students of all four years are engaged in such dark, mysterious doings as personal science projects. Comrade "Krush" must wince when he finds out that these students, under the subterfuge of engaging in an extracurricular activity, actually attend demonstrations and hear monthly reports on scientific findings. And the final straw is provided when the paunchy premier discovers the jarring fact that these student scientists are taken on tours of the highly developed Milwaukee area scientific and industrial institutions. Luckily for peace of mind in Russia, none of these reports make any mention of the Marquette University Science Fair held each spring. It is here that all the scientifically-minded young capitalists present projects representing their respective years; there are monetary rewards, usually cash for the best projects. So go pour yourself a vodka, Nikky, and drown your sorrows in one of your secret missile bases. We have no fear, for we will always have the Marquette High Science Club.

"I LOOKED toward Birnam and, anon, methought the microwaves began to move." A representative of Bell Telephone laboratories explains the high jinks of high wires in an after-school talk sponsored by the Science Club.

While seeds of social questioning were sown

Political Science Club

"You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

The flustered dictator picked up the small newspaper; he began to read the contents. His face became red; then slowly, beads of cold sweat began to form on his forehead. He took the newspaper and crumpled it into a small little ball, and threw it on the floor.

Any Marquette High student would vouch that the newspaper in question was THE TRUTH, a publication of the Political Science Club which is under the direction of Fr. Cletus Healy, S.J.

In addition to publishing papers, these future aldermen, senators, and dictators meet regularly to discuss almost all the current issues facing civic society and the modern world. Although the members are certainly well accustomed to carrying on a learned conversation on any subject, the club does condescend (for the benefit of the freshmen members) to engage various speakers to address the Political Scientists on topics in specialized fields.

But the highpoints of the year for students belonging to this organization are the simulated United Nations assemblies. Here, debating world issues almost as hotly as the "real McCoy's" in New York, these determined men of the future get a chance to display their grasp of the science of politics.

Stamp and Coin Club

The philatelist (stamp collector) and numismatist (coin collector) at Marquette High has been given a wonderful opportunity to develop his interests by the Stamp and Coin Club. Room 103 is the habitat of this little-known organization. Every second Wednesday of the month, the discussion of new and old stamp issues, the buying and selling of stamps, the exhibiting of albums and collections, and the auctioning of coins fills the club's meeting with activity. Parliamentary procedure is followed, minutes are kept, and financial reports are recorded. Fr. William Duffey, S.J., moderator, helps organize the club, supplies information about stamps, and fills in the background behind stamps and coins of different countries. A familiarity with foreign countries, their languages, customs, manner of dress, and scenery is achieved by a study of the stamps and coins; interest and appreciation grow as the magic world of tiny but significant objects unfolds for the Marquetter who is privileged to be a member.

NOT ROLLING BONES but reading inscriptions on rare stamps are these friendly philatelists (l. to r.) Arpe, Fuys, Scheu and Tewes.

BETTER ART is Vater art. Mike Vater explains a painting of a high-speed aerodynamo to experts Balistreri, Mr. Joseph Amrhein, S.J., Poster club moderator, Falk, Ksobiech, and Fobian. On the wall are more of the posters which did much to enliven the bulletin boards and to bring school events before the eyes of the student body.

Poster Club

THE POSTER CLUB is a strong but silent faction which exerts its influence on every event Marquette's participate in. While school spirit has been peddled in assemblies and in homerooms intermittently through the fall, winter and spring, here is an organization which shows strong spirit constantly, the whole year round. The boys in the club put many hours of time, much effort, and considerable skill into the advertising of school functions. No sports letter or public praise is theirs. Their only reward is the satisfaction which comes from serving the school.

They served the Master, yeomen of the altar

Acolytes and Sacristans

VARIED WERE the activities of the sacristans and acolytes, two very closely-knit and relatively unrecognized groups at Marquette. Preparing the altar and serving Mass were only a few of their many chores. Among the others were the replacement of burnt-out vigil lights, laying out of the priest's vestments, and preparing for confessions. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Driscoll, S.J., these tasks were promptly and efficiently completed.

Serving on a rotation basis, the acolytes showed their reverence to the Blessed Sacrament by their excellent behavior both on and off duty in chapel. The sacristans showed their loyalty to the organization by frequently sacrificing part of their lunch-time to prepare the chapel.

HELPING OUT behind the scenes in chapel were sacristans Murphy, Stoffel, Reichenberger, Harrington, Quirk, Bojar, Bertling, Pomasl, Park.

"INTROIBO ad altare Dei." Servants at God's altar included seniors and juniors (top): Stoffel, Harrington, Reinbold, Offenbacher, Gregrich, Amend, Heim, Mr. Donald Driscoll, S.J. moderator; (bottom): Murphy, Bertling, Bojar, Carr, McCarville, Schulz, McNamara.

The sounds of song, melodious, filled the night

HIGHLIGHTING MANY of Marquette' cultural activities were the performances of the Senior Chorus. Under the direction of Fr. James A. Hauser, S.J., the chorus sang at many Fathers' Club and Mothers' Guild meetings as well as at the Winter Concert. The members are (l. to r.) Back row: Brust, Ramczykowski, Reinbold, McCaffrey, Lassa, Archer, J. Molenda, Calvey, Fuchs, and Frommel; Middle row: Horak, Stefan, Ody, Rowe, Kuetemeyer, Cordes, O'Connor, Kocovsky, Brophy, and Dehnel; Front row: Kestermeier, Hall, Madden, Krah, P. Molenda, Lemerond, Fr. Hauser, Klecza, P. Kelly, and Ehlman.

Senior and Junior Chorus

ALTHOUGH they don't contain any Perry Comos, Bobby Darins, or Mario Lanzas, the two choruses do encompass those Marquette students interested in making the most of their singing abilities. Average talent and willingness to sing are the only requisites for these clubs. A schedule of participation at sponsored musical programs and entertainments keeps the two organizations musically active. The occasional Masses at school and performances at musical concerts utilize the singing ability of the chorus.

ALSO VERY MUCH in evidence this year was the Junior Chorus. They were directed by Fr. Bernard Portz, S.J. The members are (l. to r.) back row: Nelson, J. Black, Osborn, Zeps, Hanser, John Dean, Kropp, Deda, and Shebesta; Front row: Moore, Guardalabene, Kuzniewski, Klawitter, T. Porath, Wycoff, Guile, Dessel, and Fr. Portz.

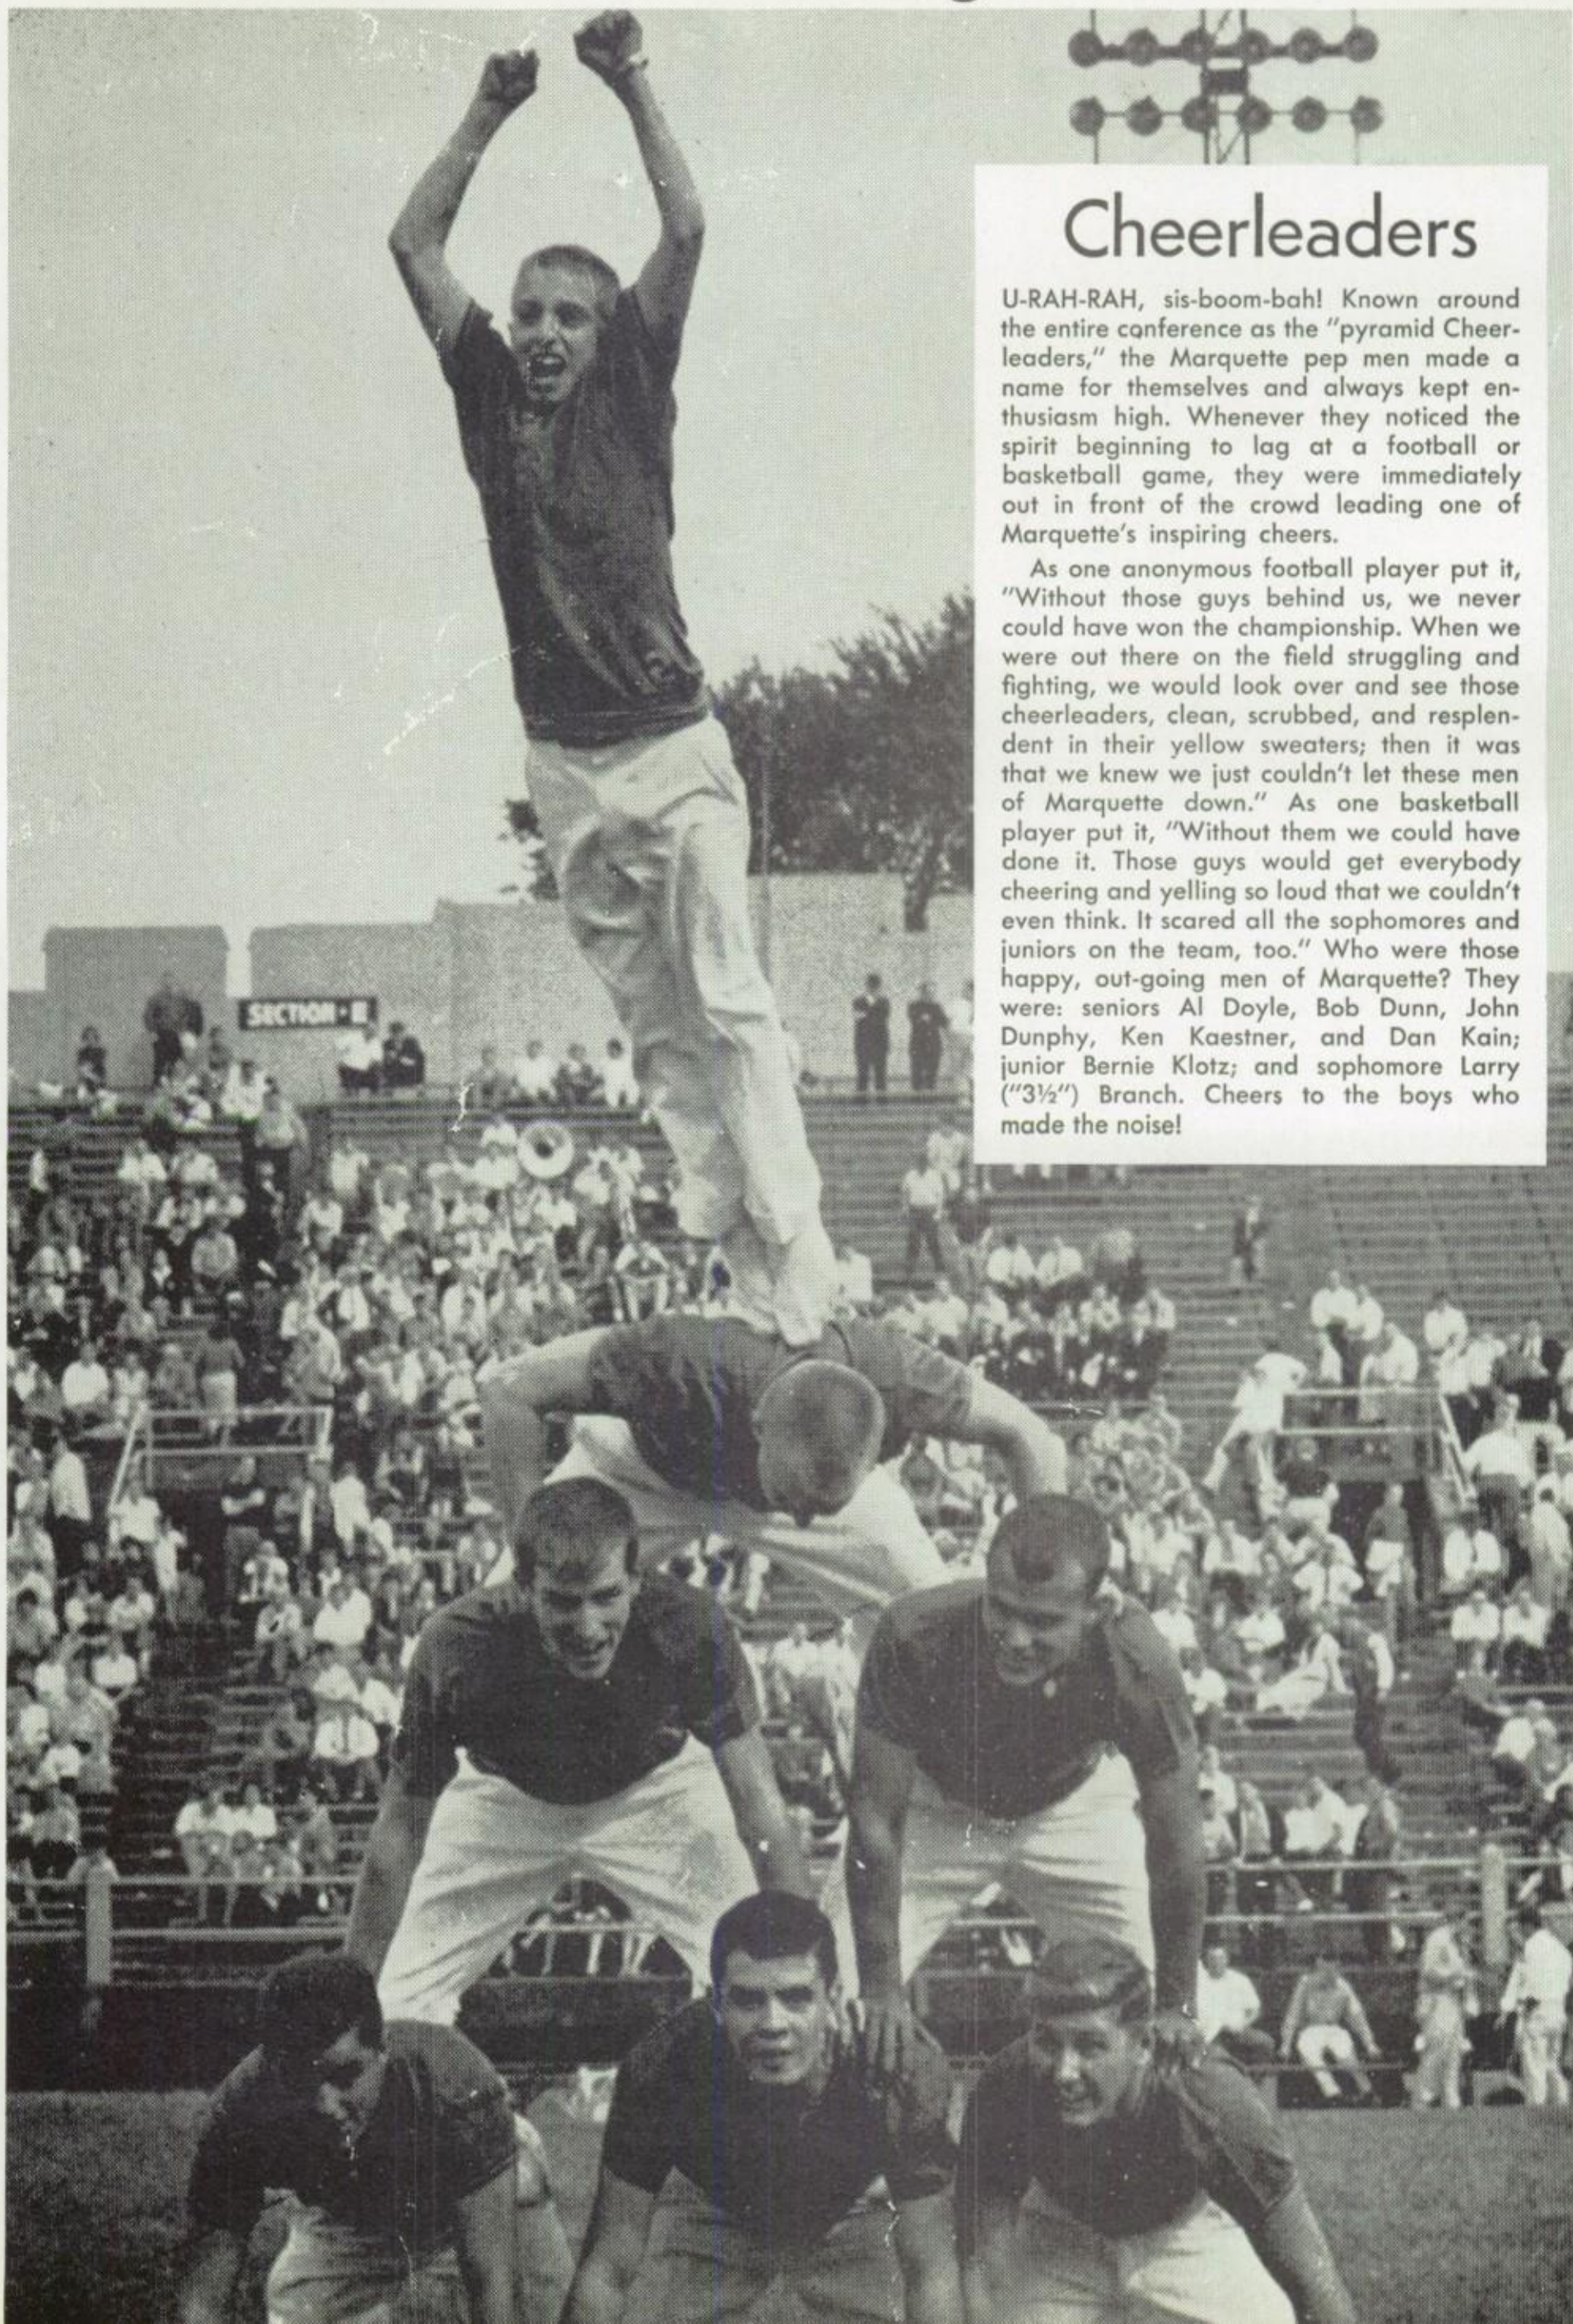

Their mellow bellows brought us to our feet

Cheerleaders

U-RAH-RAH, sis-boom-bah! Known around the entire conference as the "pyramid Cheerleaders," the Marquette pep men made a name for themselves and always kept enthusiasm high. Whenever they noticed the spirit beginning to lag at a football or basketball game, they were immediately out in front of the crowd leading one of Marquette's inspiring cheers.

As one anonymous football player put it, "Without those guys behind us, we never could have won the championship. When we were out there on the field struggling and fighting, we would look over and see those cheerleaders, clean, scrubbed, and resplendent in their yellow sweaters; then it was that we knew we just couldn't let these men of Marquette down." As one basketball player put it, "Without them we could have done it. Those guys would get everybody cheering and yelling so loud that we couldn't even think. It scared all the sophomores and juniors on the team, too." Who were those happy, out-going men of Marquette? They were: seniors Al Doyle, Bob Dunn, John Dunphy, Ken Kaestner, and Dan Kain; junior Bernie Klotz; and sophomore Larry ("3½") Branch. Cheers to the boys who made the noise!

The blasting of the trumpets, thumping drums

FROM "RING OUT AHOYA" to "Rhapsody in Blue," from bandstand to concert platform, the music of the Marquette University High School Band certainly fitted in to make this year Marquette's year. They keyed the spirit of the school at the pep rallies and games; they presented two concerts and sponsored another — the Dizzy Gillespie jazz concert; they added their musical touch to the school's activities. And they made this contribution to Marquette's championship year — the winning of first place in the Wisconsin High School Dance Band Contest.

Reverberated through the sounding halls

wan, J. Hajewski, Klement, Holleran, Bohusch, Ponasik, Lubeley, T. Hajewski, Wojcik, Krause. Front row: Mertz, Woodward, Fitzpatrick, Carl Krampf, Harbort, Hochhaus, Finley.

They spent their hours of silence, reading, prayer

TAKING IT EASY at a conference during a Holy Hill closed retreat is Tom Butler, seen here talking things over with retreats director Fr. John Eagan, S.J.

Retreat

"BAH, FOILED AGAIN," muttered the frustrated devil deep in the heart of Hades. The poor fiend, assigned to cover the seniors of Marquette High, had once again met defeat on a wind-swept plot of ground known as Holy Hill. It was another group from the Class of '60 making their closed retreat.

There, in a peace and solitude not often to be found in daily life, these seniors were given time to think, time to pray. Gradually, over the three-day period, the students became used to the silence and even gave thanks for it. Through a carefully prepared schedule of talks and meditations, the seniors began to realize the true perspective of life — that life, in its essence, is but a short time away from God, during which man must prove he is worthy of Him. They learned that whatever the future might hold for them — be they future doctors, lawyers, or Jesuits — that future must be channeled toward an eternity, toward our after life. And when they came back from retreat, they were glad they had been given this opportunity to carefully consider their relationship with God. For many of these men, these were three of the most important days of their lives.

The retreatmasters responsible for the poor, above mentioned devil's trials and tribulations were: Fr. John Eagan, S.J., Fr. George Hass, S.J., Fr. James Hauser, S.J., Fr. Gene Jakubek, S.J., Fr. Richard Rudolf, S.J., and Fr. Jerome Boyle, S.J. Father Boyle was the "workhorse" of the staff, with two retreats to his credit.

POUNDING the pews might be an irreverent way to put it, but seniors at Holy Hill put in a lot of time on their knees, asking graces necessary for good lives after the retreat is over.

Some brought home booty, spoils of champions

HAVING REASON to be happy, these men are the finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Contest. Flanking their proud and happy principal, Fr. Daniel Laughlin, S.J., are (first row, l. to r.): Phil Hughes, Bill Listwan, Rod King, Tom Whipp, and Tom Butler; (standing): Mike Gillick, Tom Schultz, John Mackin, Don Quinlan, and Jim Fuchs. Not pictured: Jim Kolata.

Contest Winners

MARQUETTE HIGH proved itself truly a school of champions this year. Not only did the Hilltoppers spear the Catholic Conference football crown, but also brought down many scholastic honors for MUHS. Marquette proved themselves superior in recent essay contests and scholastic exams. By taking five of six places in the "Help the Handicapped" contest and placing finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Contest, Marquette again distinguished itself as one of the top academic schools in the country.

Their victory banners fluttered in the breeze

A VERY discouraged-looking scout was caught in the act by a sneaky photographer during the Marquette-St. Catherine game. It is unknown whether he was from Pius or Messmer, but whichever school employed him did so in vain.

Homecoming

ONE OF THE most important ingredients for a successful Homecoming dance is a successful Homecoming game. In this respect this year's dance was one of the best in Marquette High's history. The football team set the mood for the night of October 17 with a victory that afternoon over St. Catherine's of Racine for the first time in five years. Decorated with multicolored streamers and pictures of the football players, the gym was the scene of post-game jubilation and exuberance.

Quarterback Pat Sheehan, flanked by two halfbacks, Bill Sheahan and Tim Graf, reigned as king over the 270 upperclassmen and their dates. Bob Stevens and his orchestra set the mood for the dance. The musicians seemed to save their best number for the Victory Waltz, danced gracefully by coaches Frank Kopenski and Paul Noack and their wives.

The night ended with a rousing rendition of "Ring Out Ahoya" by a student body happy and proud of a football team that had made Homecoming '59 a night to remember.

Variety, the spice of carefree life

"THE TWANG was the thang" as Tom Neis and Fred Pascoe won first place in the music department of the Variety Show.

Variety Show

WEEKS of diligent practice paid off for the many students who participated in the Variety Show, Monday, November 23, 1959. Comedy and music prevailed during the three-hour show, and the overflow crowd that jammed the auditorium appreciated both.

Heading the list of prize winners was "Click Dark's American Broadstand," an all-senior presentation and an amusing satire on a popular teen TV show. As MC Click Dark, Jim Papin revealed the top ten records, introduced several singers, and led the audience in screaming and hair pulling. The Haircuts — Fabian (Al Doyle), Ricky (John Desmond), and Kookie (John Dunphy) — sang their latest hit, "Rock." The thrill of the evening was the appearance of the Big Schlobber, Bob Dunn, attired in motorcycle hat, jacket, and boots, cigarette, and sideburns — the "ideal of every red blooded type American boy."

Top musical act was the "Accents." Tom Neis, Greg and Carl Krampf, and Fred Pascoe combined to play four current hits. One of the funniest acts of the night was the one that took the honors for the best single or duo, Gordie Falk's interpretation of a Shelley Berman monologue in which Sammy Spiral calls his host to find out what he, Sammy, did at the party the night before.

AHOY THERE MAC! A double for my ailing friend. Because of the overbearing personalities of three beautiful girls (Kris Kriofske, Frank Stiglich, and Bill Kwapy) Dan Kain is overtaken with ecstasy.

"HEY MAN, whatcha doin' here?" asks Mike "Hambones" Gillick.

Produced a special brand of home-grown ham

"ALL RIGHT, man, let's rock" wails John Desmond as the "Haircuts" break into another set of dance steps. Desmond, Al Doyle, and John Dunphy were one of the more important factors in the "American Broadstand's" sweep of first place in the Variety Show.

"C'MON man, I ain't got no peer" . . .

"BUT I'll grant you, man, you came pretty near" cackles Kenny Kaestner.

They romped about in limelight on the stage

"UND JA, DIS WAS sehr gut variety show," harmonize the all-sophomore German band in a final salute to the Marquette High Variety show of 1959. Gathered about a misty-eyed Cyborowski are his fellow Reichists: Greske, Krause, Klement, Mertz, Bubnick, and Duben.

"THE WHOLE window, eh?" bemoans a hungover Gordie Falk in his prizewinning takeoff on Shelley Berman. His act garnered him a first place in this year's variety show competition. Gordy is pictured here in his repeat performance at the Basketball Hop.

And trotted minuets throughout the night

Club '60

THERE HAD NEVER been an off-campus dance, with the exception of senior proms, at Marquette High before. That was until the class of 1960 swung the deed and did their swinging at the War Memorial at the "Club '60." February 14 conveniently turned out to be St. Valentine's Day and so the decorations consisted of hearts, streamers and cupids. 140 couples squeezed into the Memorial to dance to the music of Bob Stevens and his orchestra, back for a return performance. Root beer and cookies (once again the Class of '60 dared to be different) were provided by junior waiters appropriately attired in white bermudas and red gauchos.

The most eagerly-awaited moment of the night was the appearance of the "Broadstanders," fresh from their Variety Show triumph. They came on strong as gangsters of the prohibition era. The most unfortunate part of the evening was probably the singing (an overstatement) of the junior waiters. But, all in all, the seniors thoroughly enjoyed their "social escape" from the familiar confines of Marquette High. The den of antiquity was quiet and dark the night of February 14.

AMEND and O'Neill and their dates are enthralled by the epigrammatic utterances of Drolshagen. No doubt Tom was discussing the submarine races in progress outside the War Memorial.

"I USED to splash paint around like that when I was a little kid, but all I ever got for it was a spanking," Russ Haberman confides to Bob Krill and their dates.

Our angels, men of righteousness and blood

"CURSES, JILTED AGAIN," bemoans an unhappy Jay McGarty as he receives news of his sweetheart's change of heart. Hoping he is at least lucky in cards, the three angels (top to bottom) John Desmond, Mike Cotter, and Jim Michalski stand by.

Stole all the spotlights, captured many hearts.

"YOU'RE SURE you're 21, now" questions Bob Archer as Joe Seelman eagerly reaches for the inviting bottle of cognac. Supposedly buying it for his wife, Joe finally made his purchase, and the Parolees' Christmas was a happy one.

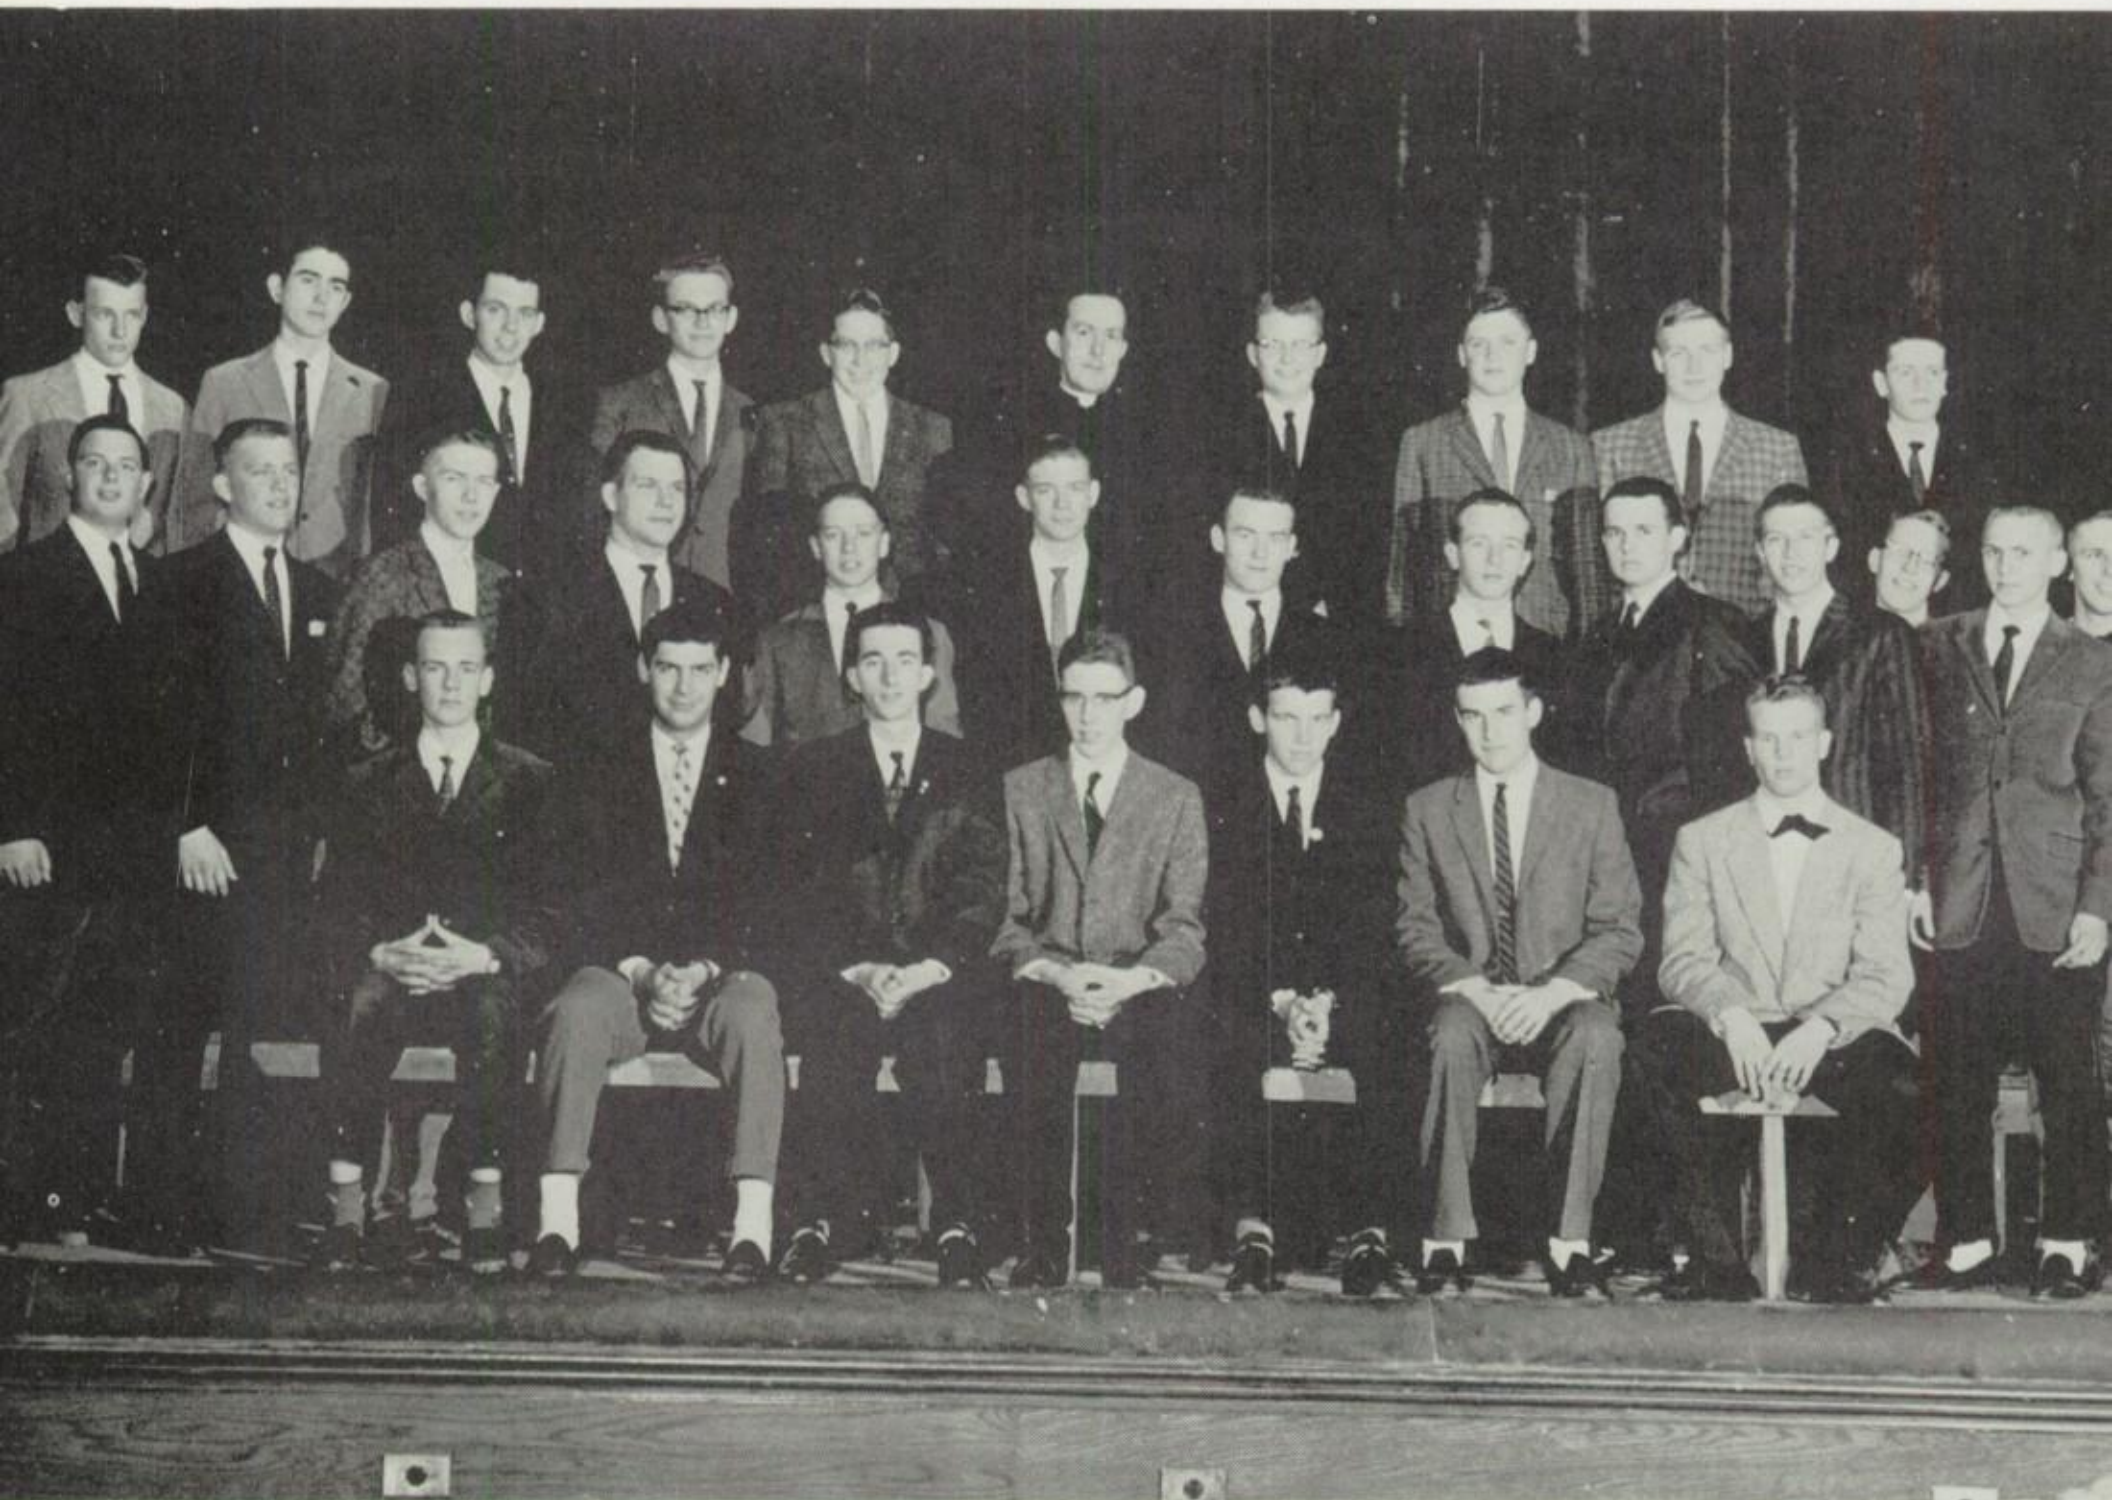

SEEMINGLY OBLIVIOUS of the fact he is face to face with a convicted criminal (Jim Michalski) is Mike Meyers, the crooked cabbie. Realizing the state of their employee, the store owners, John Frey and Dirk Murphy, view Mr. Michalski with snobbish disdain.

"My Three Angels"

LAUGHS came easily to a satisfied audience of students, dates, parents, and other chuckling customers as the Marquette High Prep Players, under the experienced direction of veteran Mr. Leon J. Schlenk, presented their annual effort, "My Three Angels." The production, a humorous farce in three acts, was a polished result of much tedious rehearsal by those with dramatic inclinations. Applause is due not only to the talented thespians, but also to those unsung heroes behind the scenes without whom the play would have been impossible. The greatest credit, however, must go to Mr. Schlenk, whose expert direction insured a howling success.

They kept alive an old Marquette tradition

Prep Players

THE HISTORY of the Prep Players' success over the last 30-odd years is the story of the personal success of Mr. Leon J. Schlenk as director of the Marquette group. He has often been characterized by his young thespians as a modern-day slave driver. His ratings in state play competition have borne out the fact that he is a perfectionist — a man who probably gets more performance out of a group of high school actors than any other director in the state. He has been a tireless worker over these many years, devoting literally hundreds of hours to each full-length production — from the first casting of actors to the final curtain.

Our mothers backed our projects, did our dishes

THE HEADS of the mother's guild pictured here are (reading clockwise): Mrs. Louis Martin, general chairman of the fall card party; Mrs. Ray Piaskoski, treasurer; Mrs. Oscar Thiel, graduate mother; Fr. Robert Flahavan, S.J., moderator; Mrs. James Fallon, ticket chairman; Mrs. Donald McGowan, secretary; and Mrs. F. Edward Treis, Bake Sales chairman. Mrs. Robert Crowley was president of the Guild during the 1959-60 school year.

MERRYMAKING planners for a fall card party outstanding for its decorations were (l. to r.): Mesdames Harold Schoenecker, John Kennedy, Paul McCarville and Donald McGowan.

Mothers' Guild

MOTHERS, ALWAYS interested in their sons' undertakings and achievements at Marquette, have their own organization at MUHS—The Mother's Club. Once a month the Club adds its touch of femininity to the hallowed corridors of Marquette. The monthly meetings find the mothers listening to various guest speakers, discussing school activities, interchanging stories of their sons' successes on the Hilltop, and planning for various club-sponsored projects.

FATHER'S AND ALUMNI, members of the board of governors, meet with Fr. Richard T. Jones, S.J., (left foreground), president of Marquette High, and Fr. Joseph T. Shinnars, S.J., Alumni Association director, to make final arrangements for the Annual Giving program for 1959-60. Clockwise from Father Jones are Messrs. Thomas W. Korb, Laurie Graf, chairman of the 1959-60 phase of the program, James E. Hoff, Francis J. Hart, Walter J. Lazynski, John H. Schlosser and Father Shinnars. The officers of this year's Father's Club were: Messrs. Thomas J. Callen, president; Walter S. Stumpf, vice-president; B. F. Thompson, Secretary-treasurer.

Fathers' Club

THE FATHERS of Marquette High students have their own special organization in the Fathers' Club. Advocating better parent-teacher relations, supporting various athletic and school functions such as the play, concerts, and games, sponsoring the annual Father-Son Baseball Night, and backing numerous other school projects, the Fathers' Club stands as a traditional and enduring organization at Marquette High School.

Lettermen, lettermen, champions all

MH Club

EVERY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, at approximately 3:02 p.m., Fr. Laughlin's booming voice announces over the P.A.: "All MH Club members must wear their letter sweaters tomorrow. Failure to do so will merit a fine of 25 cents." Many students, mainly Freshmen, wonder what this is all about.

Well, what this means, actually, is that Marquette High's most muscular organization will meet on the morrow. And in their meeting, they will discuss many school problems and their solutions, chiefly problems concerning athletics. The club's main duty is to create and maintain school spirit. They also sponsor activities in order to raise money for the athletic fund. Most noteworthy of these are the annual Booster Tournament, the Basketball Hop, and other mixers. In these, members work hand in hand with the conclave's Social Committee. The members of the MH Club also help the school each year by assisting in the proctoring of the entrance exam for Eighth Graders. The moderator of the MH Club is Fr. Hoene — the school's athletic director.

This was the year we found the combination

Men, young men, men strong in mind, soul and body — this is the Marquette vision. To facilitate the development of a sound body, Marquette High has provided a well rounded sports program including such activities as football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, tennis, swimming, cross country, and bowling. A strong mind, soul, and body go hand in hand; they complement each other and make for a stronger boy, a happier young man, a better Catholic and a more stable adult citizen.

FOOTBALL — 1959

WITH THE HEAT of August came the unmistakable signs of another Marquette High football season: ripped dummies, dust, a broken sled, rocks, a blue sweatsuit, and the closing of the usually wide open apartment windows.

But this particular season was not to be just an ordinary season; it was to produce a championship.

By the time school had begun, the large number of football-minded boys had been reduced to a team consisting of some forty-four members — and what a team it proved to be!

They did not have an overabundance of material but they did have what counts much more — they had unity. This unity was the bond — the prevailing spirit — a spirit that characterized the entire season. They were athletes who were determined to win, not for personal glory alone, but to place Marquette on top and to bring their coach the championship that he had deserved for a long, long time.

This true team spirit was embedded in every senior on the squad, and was soon imparted to the entire team by the triple effort of the elected tri-captains. Their ability and encouragement made our team the best team.

One could not talk long about our champs without realizing that the undefeated season they boasted could not have been possible without its distinctive coaching. Coach Kopenski can truly be proud of the rough-rocks he produced.

These are the main factors that made this year's individuals a champion team. But these factors might not have been enough for the St. Catherine and Pius games. The team needed something more. They needed that support that the student body gave them so abundantly.

They flashed with all the speed of summer lightning

PAT SHEEHAN (16), known throughout the conference as a pin-point passer, was also on occasion an excellent runner. Pat scored six touchdowns by rushing and 10 by passing to earn laurels as All-State Catholic quarterback.

WATCHING AND WAITING: The men on the sidelines could always be seen anxiously backing up the eleven on the field.

To soar like eagles in the autumn sky

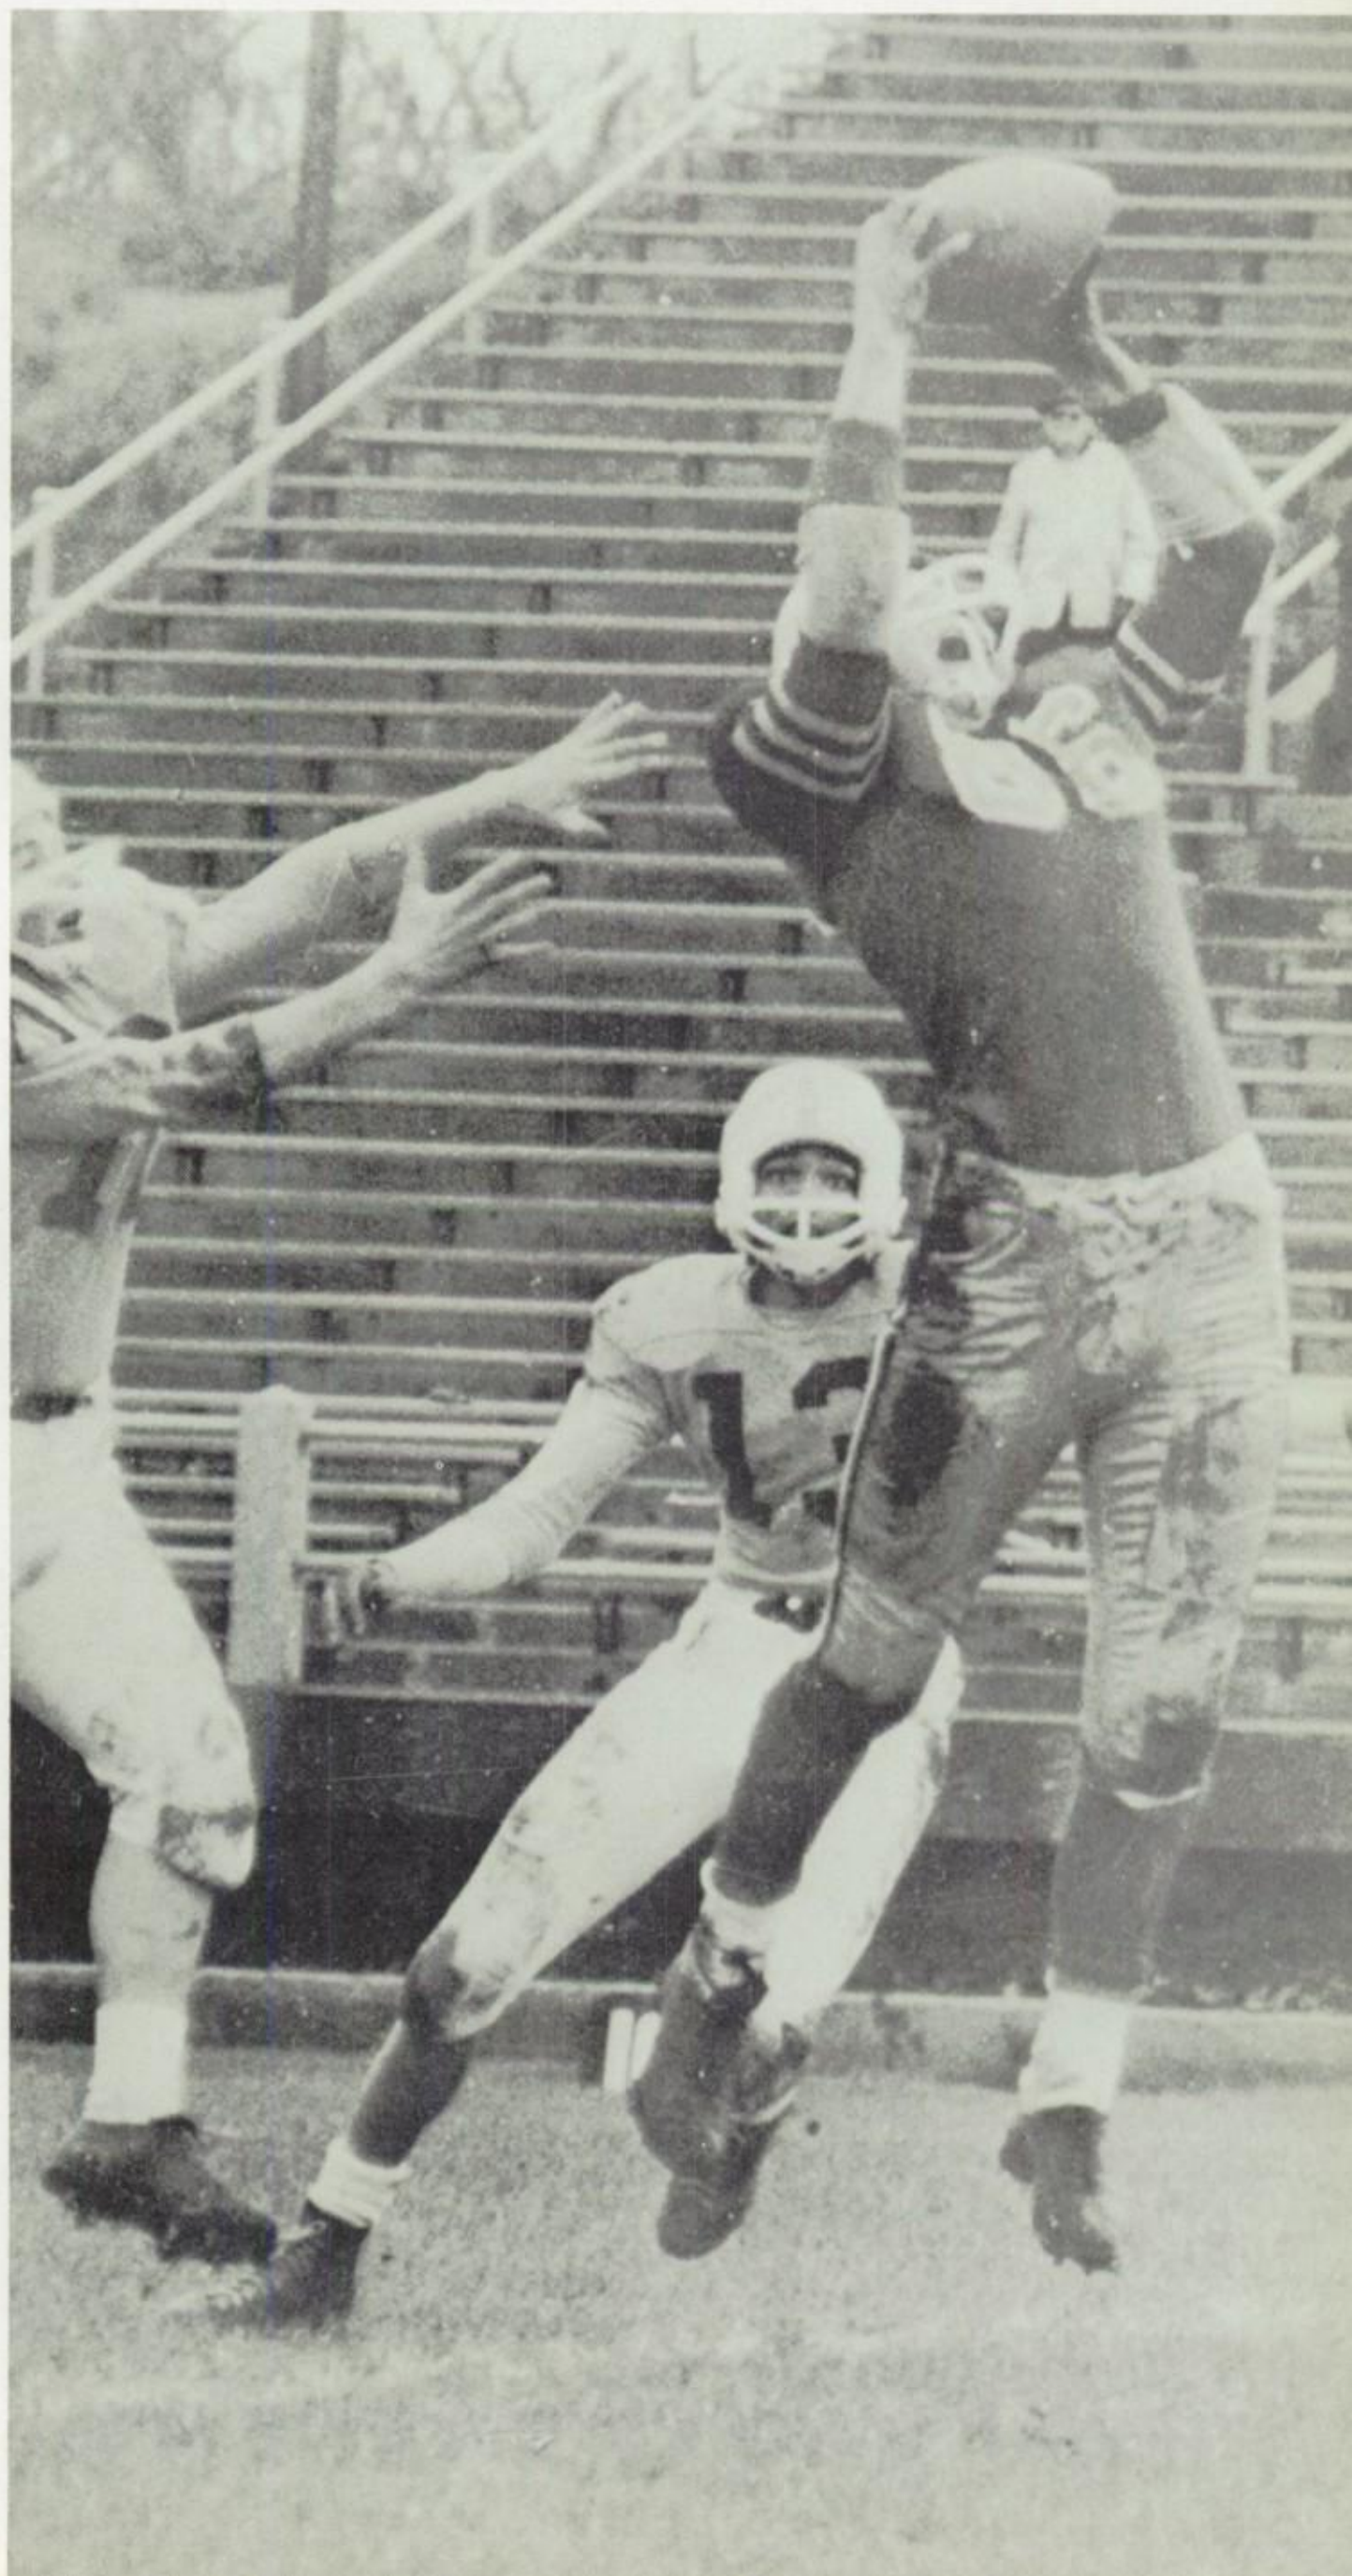

PULLING from the guard position to lead plays around end, Jim Hanson made a name for himself. He struck so hard and swiftly from his linebacking slot, despite injuries which kept him out of several games, that he pulled down a position on the Journal all-conference team.

PUSHING and driving, Jim Michalski would rout his man every time leaving a wicked hole for our backs. He displaced his man so often that he pushed his way on to both an all-conference and an all-city team.

LEAPING Tim Bruett snares a touchdown pass from Pat Sheehan in the Pius game. Tim set a league record for ends this year by making 10 touchdowns. He also helped the champs by playing defensive half-back. Tim was honored on both all-city and all-state post-season teams.

They crashed the hostile battlements before them

TERRIBLE TERRY, the Toppers' Terror! Terry Keenan was voted most valuable player of the year. The team workhorse was given this honor because of his rough and tumble running and his whole-hearted spirit.

They raced and rampaged through the fallen foe

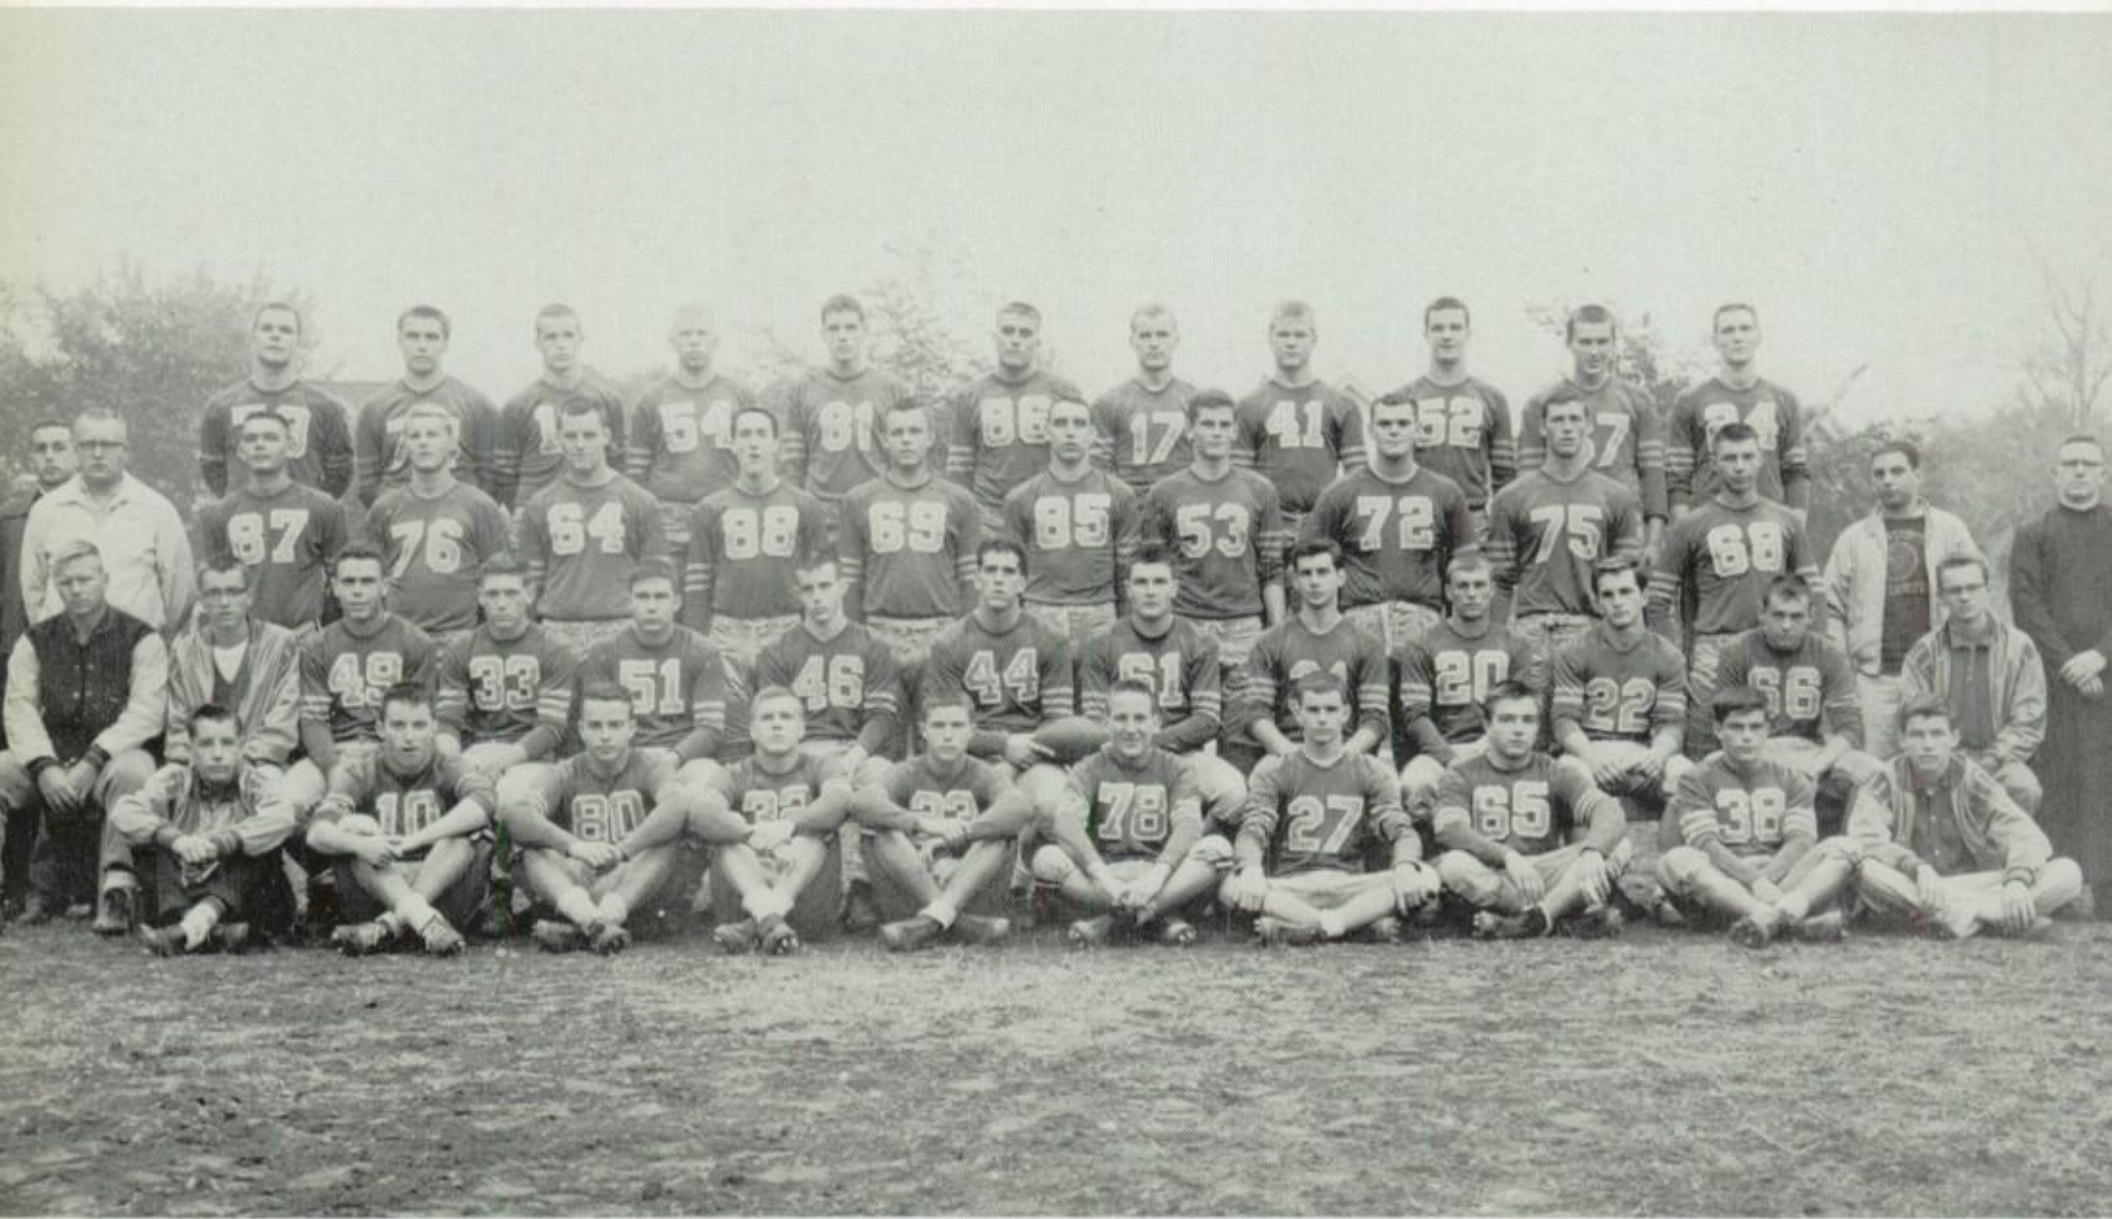

GRAPPLING GRELLINGER: John's fingers clung to the ball as he landed in the end-zone for a touchdown against Messmer. He was best known for his tremendously hard-hitting defensive play at end.

THE MOON-MAN: Our power-driving fullback, Mike Mooney, always shot for the moon when he carried the ball. He never fooled around with short yardage; the end was his goal.

They swept on through the season, undefeated

A Hilltop Championship

CHAMPIONS! One word, and in it, a wealth of meaning and praise. Out of the depths of the conference ratings, through sheer desire and determination, rose the State Catholic football champions, Marquette.

The Hilltoppers, pre-season also-rans, opened the season against Don Bosco at Marquette Stadium. Three quick touchdowns, two by Tim Bruett and one by Pat Sheehan, broke the game wide open in the first quarter. An intercepted pass by Wayne Kallenberger, a punt return by Bruett, and two short scoring runs by Terry Keenan and Mike Mooney made Marquette untouchable as the Hilltoppers won easily, 48-6.

Next on the list was St. John's Cathedral. Playing under the lights and on a muddy field did not seem to bother the Hilltoppers as they thoroughly buried their opponents with three touchdowns in the first half. Tim Graf and Bruett returned punts and Dennis McNally broke through the middle for first half scores. Bill Sheahan added two tallies and Paul Gramling one as Cathedral was blanked, 38-0.

Marquette's powerhouse stowed away its third win in as many games at friendly MU Stadium. Visiting Notre Dame was treated to a high-scoring first half as the Hilltoppers never let up from the opening gun and held a 28 point advantage at the half. The lead was lengthened in the second stanza as Marquette scored three more times. The reserves held tight in the second half and Notre Dame was unable to score. Seven players scored the seven touchdowns as the Hilltoppers rolled on, 48-0.

A profitable trip to Whitefish Bay was next on the schedule. An alert defense and a strong wind rendered the White Knights' passing game almost useless. A scrappy Dominican eleven fought hard, but they just weren't equal to the Hilltoppers' power. Mooney struck twice on short runs, as did Bruett on two passes. Pat Sheehan scored once, and Kallenberger intercepted a pass and returned it to the counting station. Marquette 40, Dominican 6.

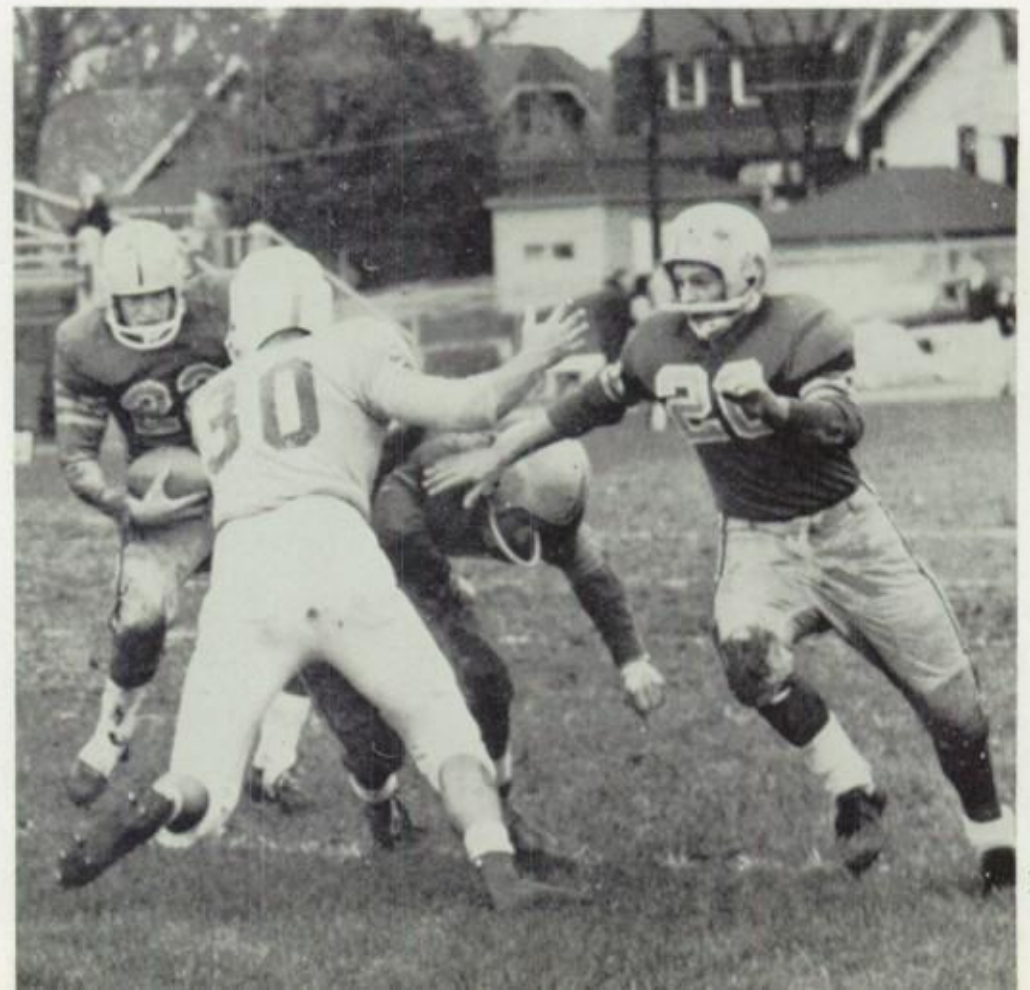

A spirited group of Hilltoppers came home in a way that pleased a large and gala homecoming crowd. Not since 1954 had Marquette beaten St. Catherine's — but this was the year. Pat Sheehan scored twice and Tim Graf once to tally the Hilltoppers' three touchdowns. Beautiful running by Bill Sheahan and rugged defensive play by John Grellinger highlighted a bitterly-fought game. The triumph was sweet and another hurdle was passed; the final score: Marquette 20, St. Catherine 7.

The Hilltoppers rolled on with a clean 5-0 slate, but the Papes of Pius XI were not to be forgotten for they too had won five straight. The stage was set on Sunday, October 25 for the greatest battle of the year. Marquette struck quickly in the opening quarter as the alert Hilltopper defense snared two Pius passes and turned them into touchdowns. Mike Mooney and Bill Sheahan did the pilfering and Sheahan and "cousin" Pat Sheehan turned the interceptions into points. Terry Keenan plunged one yard and Tim Bruett made a fantastic leaping catch of a 19-yard aerial to round out the Marquette scoring. Pius scored twice, the second time in the fading seconds of the ball game. The story was the same: team effort plus tremendous backing equalled an important victory. Marquette went home with a title tie clinched. The score: Marquette 26, Pius 12.

Only one hurdle remained. Messmer was tough, but gave up 32 points in the first half. That was all Marquette needed, and that was the way the final score stood: Marquette 32, Messmer 0. Pat Sheehan passed for four, hitting Bill Sheahan and John Grellinger once each and Tim Bruett twice for the scores. Bill Sheahan counted the fifth touchdown on a short plunge.

This was the year! The fans in the stands, the players on the field, and the coaches on the sidelines went wild. Bedlam broke loose as triumphant players rode on the shoulders of jubilant fans, happy students and friends jammed Gilles's, and the braver citizens planned victory parties to fete the team and well-wishers.

The celebrations lasted for several weeks, and Marquetters still love to talk about the "greatest team Marquette ever had" as they reminisce over the past and speculate about a bright future.

TINY TIM GRAF looks downfield for his victim. Tim was perhaps our best blocking back. He not only cleared the way for many big gains, but also made a number himself — especially in running back punts.

Up from the depths of the predicted rankings

The sophs and frosh led still another charge

CAPTAIN KEN Wentland, one of the soph tri-captains, was a big man in the line for Coach Czuppa. He will be of great value to next year's varsity squad.

Sophomore Football

THE MOST FORGOTTEN team around the school, Mr. Edward Czuppa's sophs, finished the season strong after a 9-0 loss to Don Bosco. The sophomores followed this lone defeat with victories over Lincoln (26-6), Pius (18-0) and South Milwaukee (25-7). Perhaps the Pius victory offered the most promise and hope. This team, like the varsity, had tri-captains — Tom Schulz, Todd Bruett and Ken Wentland.

Five sophomores played with the champs this year and one was first string defensive back. Outstanding players in the soph team line were Wentland, Guy Williams and Phil Scallon; and among the backs, Brian Moffatt, Mike Harrington, Schulz, Bruett and Brian Gaynor.

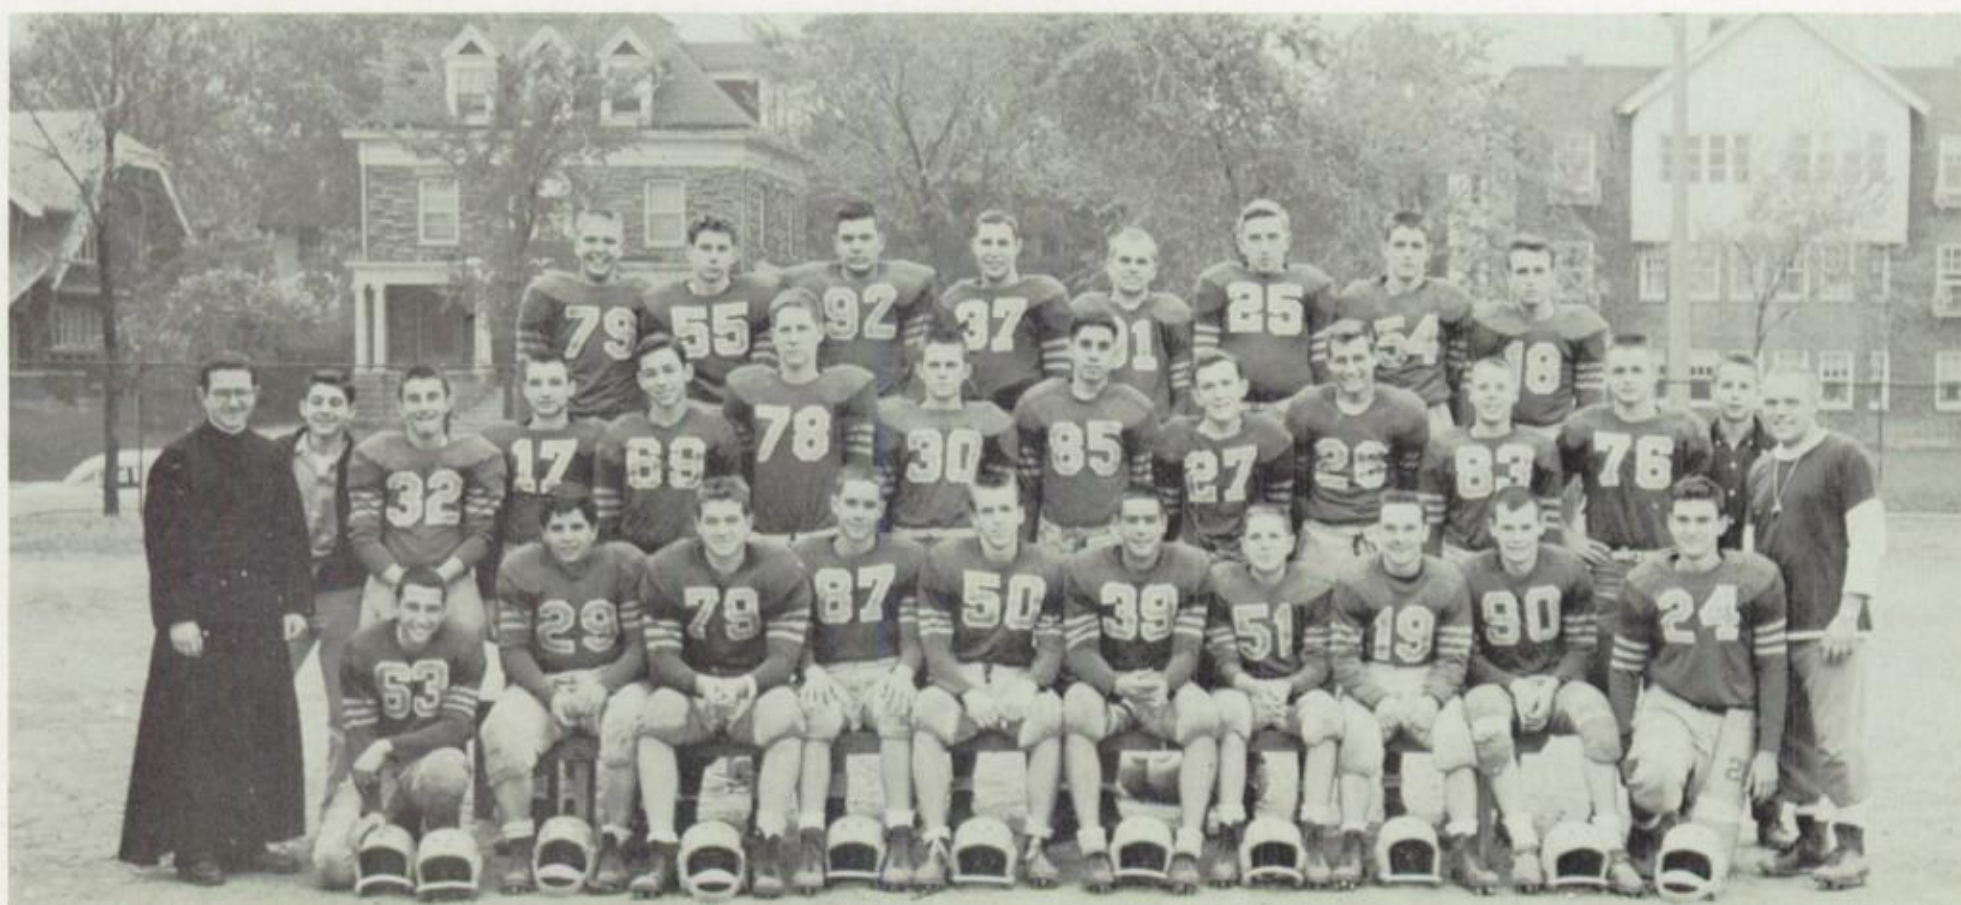

GIMME THAT BALL, says Mike Harrington, so Todd Bruett let loose with a long pass. Mike should have no trouble with this toss.

SOPHOMORE TIGERS (l. to r.) Top row: Ramczykowski, Gaynor, Wentland, Madson, Keelan, St. John, Schulz, Stark.

Second row: Mr. Thomas McHale, Mgr. Rampolla, Weiss, Grefig, Wernz, Butler, Galko, Hegarty, Sheahan, Heckel, Bruett, Moffatt, Mgr. Hardtke, Mr. Edward Czuppa.

Not present: Ewert, Frey, Madden, Morgan, Siebold.

They filled our minds with thoughts of teams to come

FRESHMAN JAGGED PEBBLES (l. to r.): Top row: Wisniewski, Wallock, Thompson, Donegan, Upton, McNally, Malloy, Bondi, Cavallo, Kelly, Costello, Bruett.

Third row: Mr. Richard McCaslin, S.J., Gallimore, Stein, Arndorfer, Henderson, Elliott, Klopatek, Breeden, Larkin, McHugh, Kamys, Brodzeller, Hausmann, Ebbe, Mr. Daniel Kenney, S.J.

Second row: Hogan, Stuht, Sherrod, Boyer, Casper, Scheid, Bell, O'Neil, Buzza, Jordak, Murphy, Kenny, Nowicki.

Front row: Lee Kehlhofer, Sonnenberg, Gutmann, Janicki, Zovic, LaKosh, Mgrs. Devitt and Scheu.

Freshman Football

THE WELL-BALANCED frosh eleven came through, following in the footsteps of the varsity, with an undefeated team and an undisputed championship.

Coaches Kenney and McCaslin formed the big green freshmen into an aggressive and spirited ball club. The squad opened the season by overcoming a number of penalties and Don Bosco (7-0). The big victories of the year were over big new Francis Jordan (18-6) and arch-rival Pius (19-13).

Helping to bring "home" this championship for the first time in five years were outstanding backs Sonnenberg, Kelly, Hausmann and Gutmann; filling out the tough line were Ebbe, Kehlhofer, Casper and Janicki.

BIG BACKS. The frosh backs Sonnenberg, Gutmann, Hausmann and Kelly really made an impression on opposing teams. Mike Sonnenberg stood out especially well on long runs.

LARGE LINE. The big frosh line of Janicki, Kehlhofer, Cavallo, Casper and Ebbe averaged 155 pounds. They were tough to get by and you had to go a long way to get around them.

The harriers paced the gruelling, windswept miles

Cross Country

OVER HILL, over dale, through snow, sleet and hail the Marquette Harriers raced on.

Mr. Thomas Brennan, S.J., and Mr. Marvin Vens, S.J., succeeded in bringing Marquette's cross country team through another winning season.

The season started off with a rush as Chuck Dunlap, Captain Tom Butler, George Kuetemeyer and Gary Glojek led the way to a sweep on the double dual with old rivals West Allis Central and Nathan Hale.

The Harriers did not fare as well in the next four meets. They lost heartbreakers to King, Whitefish Bay, Washington and Milwaukee Lutheran. The King meet was lost by one point, and the others by as few as six. Ironically, Dunlap and Kuetemeyer ran their best times for a two mile course at Milwaukee Lutheran (9:57 and 9:59) in a losing cause.

This fine spirit carried the team over the hump and it went on to score decisive victories over East Boys' Tech, and Nicolet.

Dunlap was the highest scorer for the second year in a row, with Butler and Kuetemeyer finishing second and third.

A fine group of underclassmen led by sophs Gary Glojek and John Clemens and freshman Guardalabene indicate that the Cross Country team will not be pressed for talent in the coming years.

BUNNY CHASERS Gary Glojek (right) and Tom Antlfinger show that cross country can be fun. Actually practice is over, and these two fun-loving harriers are racing to the drug store.

THIS YEAR'S HURRIED HARRIERS are (l. to r.) Top row: Delahunt, Kalmer, Hendy, Butler, M. O'Neil.
Third row: Mr. Marvin Vens, S.J., Martaugh, Petrusek, Schmitt, Guardalabene, Holzhauser, Mr. Thomas Brennan, S.J.
Second row: S. Henk, Mgr., Projieck, Antlfinger, Dunlap, Owan, M. Henk.
Front row: Wentland, Kuetemeyer, Glojek, Black, P. O'Neil.

A fighting five stretched out to reach the ball

And weaved to find their shot; the clock ticked on

BASKETBALL

All work and scattered results: that summarizes the 1959-60 Basketball season at Marquette high. The Hoopsters of this campaign did not have the wide range of natural talent that is usually characteristic of Marquette teams. Instead they needed a great deal of extra work, spirit and hustle just to ring up their winning season. The Hilltoppers finished with a conference record of 10-7 good for a tie for 5th place and an over-all record of 12-9.

The season started with a trip to the West Coast (of Wisconsin) and a game with state Jesuit rivals, Campion. With 9 of his top 10 men gone from the previous year's conference co-championship team, Coach Dodds was forced to put an inexperienced five on the floor against Campion. The result was a 63-46 defeat — despite a 17 point effort by Captain Pat Sheehan. The next game was played in the more friendly confines of our own "gym" against Boys' Tech. Marquette's team speed plus a semi-press almost ran Tech out of the gym. The final score was 57-33.

The season started in earnest, however, on Nov. 29, when the Hilltops traveled to Cathedral to meet the Eagles in the conference opener. With spirit high, the Toppers blew right over pre-season ranked Cathedral by a 61-40 margin. Pat Sheehan spearheaded the Marquette attack with 17 points. Next opponent for Marquette was St. Benedict. Mike Hayes took the honors with 26 points as the Hoopsters registered a 68-57 verdict over the Bennies in their small gym. ..

The Marquette machine ran into a road block, however, when it met south side Don Bosco at West Gym. It was the first of three losses for Marquette at this unlucky place. The score was 48-41.

Following Bosco, the basketballers ran over two second division teams while preparing for mighty St. Kate's. The scores were 66-45 over Dominican at Whitefish Bay and 71-43 over St. Joseph's of Kenosha at Marquette.

For ten minutes of the first St. Catherine's game, the Hilltoppers stayed with the Angels, but then substitute Joe Gamell came into the Angel lineup. Four 30-footers by Mr. Gamell started the snowball downhill, and Chuck Wood kept it rolling. The final score was 76-49 in favor of St. Catherine.

The next Tuesday (Dec. 22), Marquette met Pius in a preliminary game to the Marquette U.-Stanford game at the Arena. Both Marquettes won; the University took a decision over Stanford while the Hilltoppers were hard pressed to win over Pius. Gary Foy's two charity tosses in the closing minutes were the margin of victory as Marquette won 51-50.

The next weekend was a black one for the Hilltoppers. On Friday night, a trip to Waukesha proved to be fruitless as Marquette took it on the chin from Memorial, 56-49. On Sunday, the basketballers lost to second place Notre Dame at West Gym, 44-39. However, the team was back on the winning track the next weekend. A broken bus did not prevent the Hoopsters from reaching St. Bonaventure and handily beating the Bonnies, 59-32. Pat Sheehan rang the bell for 24 points there.

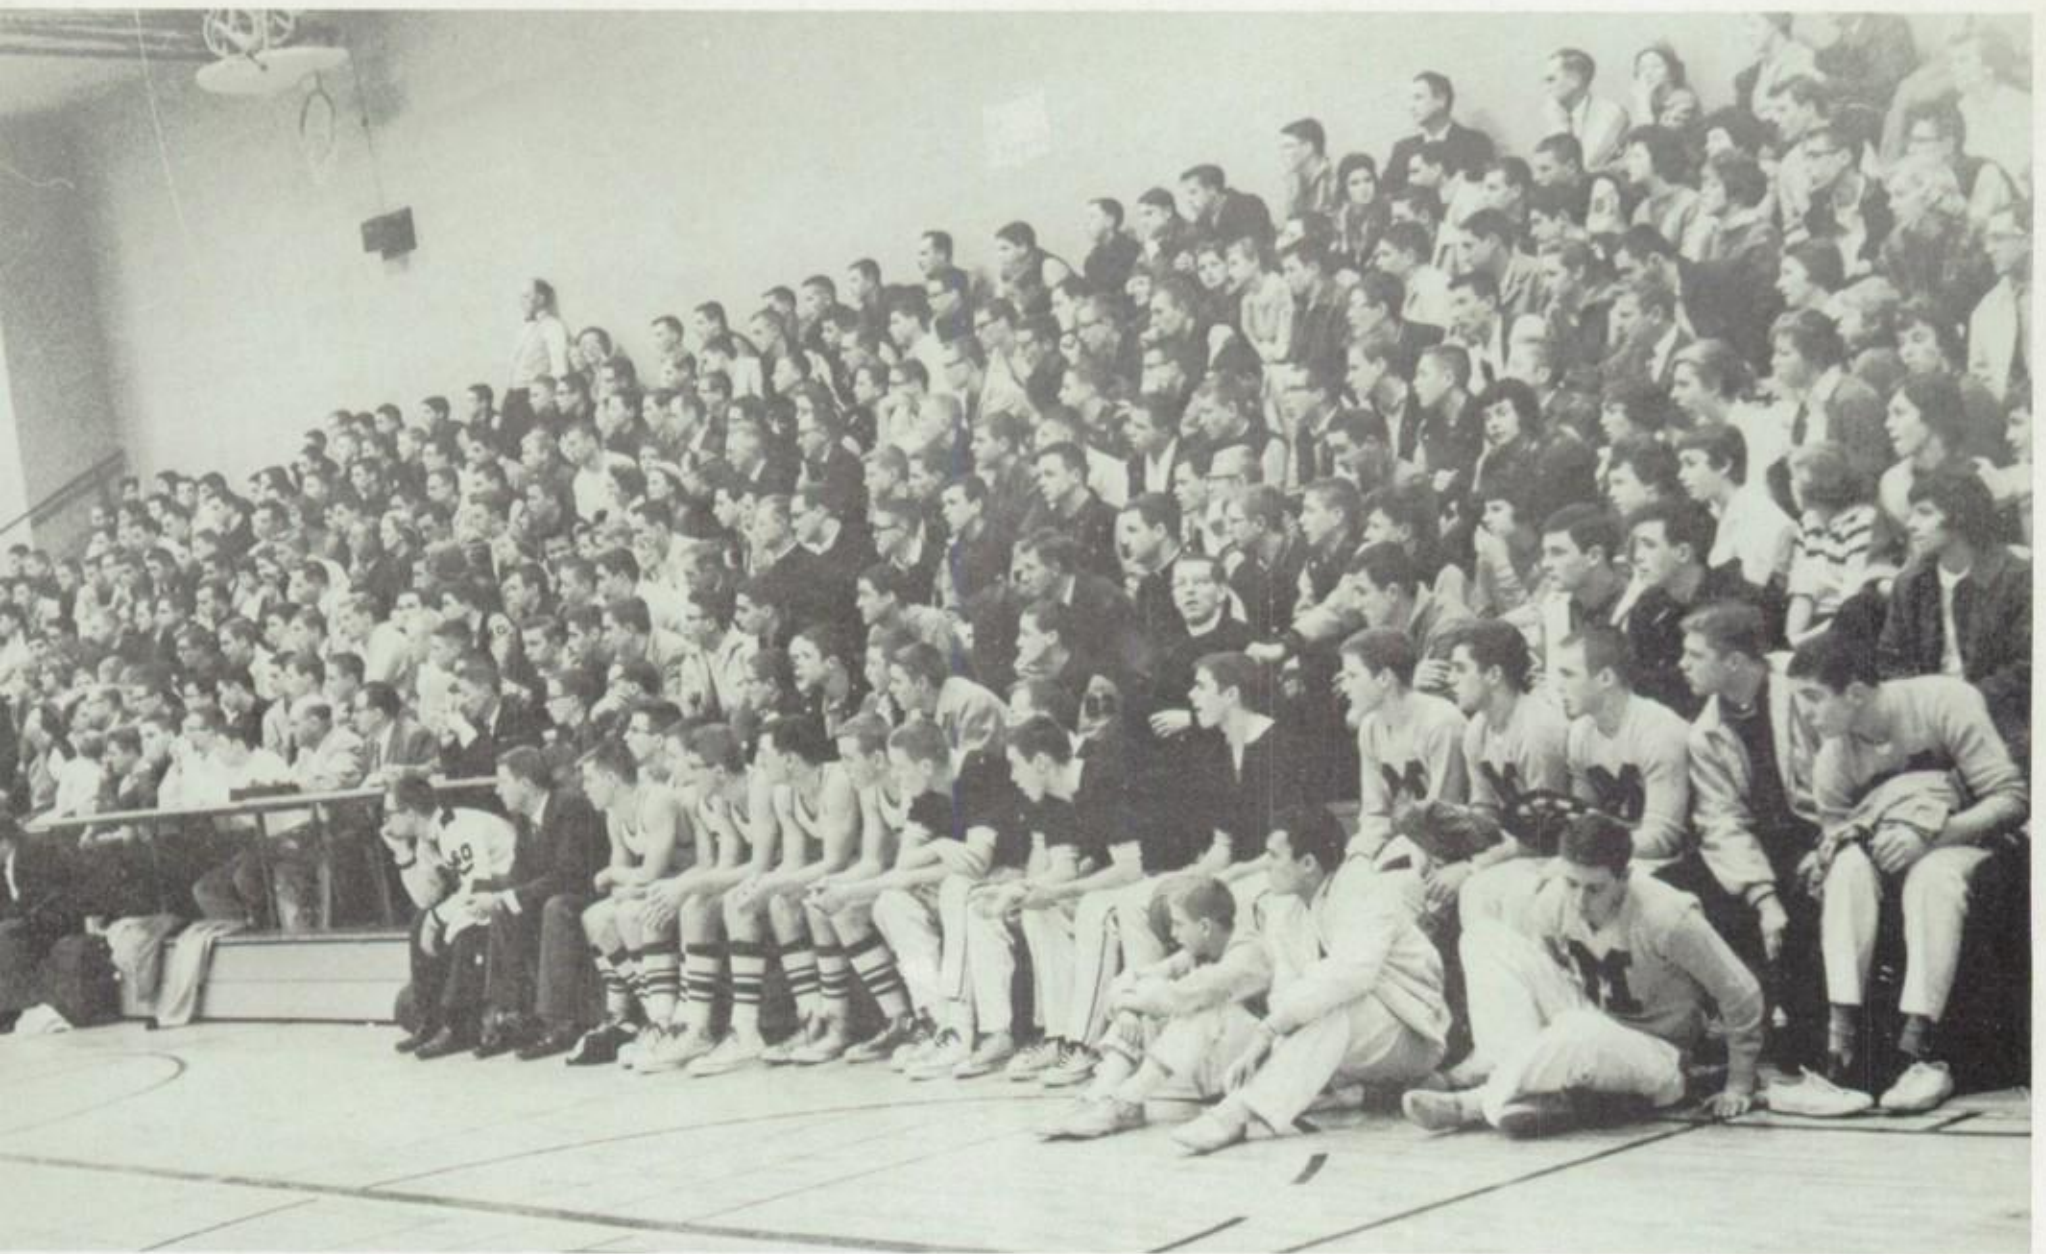

One of the high spots of the season came on Jan. 24 at Messmer. Mike Hayes was the top scorer this day, netting the team's individual season high of 30 points. The score was 72-47. Back to West Gym went the Toppers — for the last time, and luckily so. Cathedral did the dishonors, beating us 51-33, for the third straight loss at the Highland Avenue "home spot."

St. Benedict's provided the opposition for the next Hilltop outing. In one of the most exciting games of the season, the varsity beat the Bennies in overtime, 70-60. Pat Sheehan scored seven of Marquette's 11 points in the extra session. The following Sunday found Marquette losing its second game to Don Bosco. The score was 61-50.

Dominican and St. Joseph's were Marquette's next hardwood opponents. The scores were 59-51 over Dominican and 64-58 over St. Joseph's. In the last conference game of the season, the Hilltoppers took a 58-31 drubbing at the hands of St. Kate's. Once more the team played good ball for a half, but a team net of only seven points in the second half led to our defeat.

In regional play, the now experienced hoopsters fell beneath the ax of a last second basket by Memorial's Dave Oberlin. Student spirit was unusual at this game, and Marquette led for most of the way. When the buzzer rang, however, Memorial had a 54-53 edge. Pat Sheehan scored 24 points for Marquette.

The last game of the season — the regional consolation contest — found only underclassmen suited up for the Hilltoppers. Despite this handicap, Marquette took a 63-61 victory from Messmer. Jerry Chmielewski was the hero for the day with two free throws after time had run out. The high scorer was Chuck Dunlap, Captain-elect for next year, with 18 points.

ALL-CONFERENCE Pat Sheehan here lets loose with a jump shot against Notre Dame. Pat was the Hilltoppers' best scorer; he consistently counted in double figures.

These were the men who fought to victory

LOOKING AT Coach Mal Dodds are the members of the Varsity Basketball Team. Standing (l. to r.): Captain Sheehan, Mgr. Michalski, Papin, Chmielewski, Packee, Murphy, Hayes, Kukla, Bruett, Kallenberger; Kneeling; Mgr. Thon, Blask, Foy, Crowley, Langhoff, Dunlap, and McRae. Not present: Mgr. McKnight and Mgr. Cary.

Malcolm Dodds
Head Coach

MIKE HAYES CHARGES up for another shot against Notre Dame. Mike was one of the Hilltoppers' stars, second in scoring on the team and possessor of the best single performance with his 30 points against Messmer.

The "B" team was again a challenger,

THE SOPHOMORE "B" Teamers of the '59-60 campaign were: Top row (l. to r.) Mgr. Galinski, Mgr. Eckl, Pfeifer, Sisk, Wentland, Mokros, Shebelski, Wattenbach, Stumpf, Harrington, Morgan, Mr. Frank Kopenski, Coach. Kneeling: Schulz.

JERRY STUMPF SAILS through the air to clear himself for a short jump shot. Getting set for the rebound are fellow sophomores Dick Shebelski (22) and Jim Sisk (foreground).

"B" Team Basketball

AS USUAL Mr. Kopenski's "B" basketball team finished the season near the top of the standings. The season started off in a big way as the team steamrolled over their first five opponents, including wins over Don Bosco and Cathedral, last year's champion. Then the low point of the season occurred with two successive defeats, but the team finished strong, winning the next seven games before losing the final game of the season to St. Joseph. Future varsity prospects are Bob Mokros and Wayne Wattenbach for their scoring and rebounding ability; Mike Harrington and Tom Schulz for their ball handling and leadership; and Tom Fox for his all-around hustle.

These were the mighty frosh, tomorrow's champs

Frosh "A" Team

THIS YEAR the frosh "A" team had a very good all-around season, faltering only in two games — losses to second division teams, Jordan and Don Bosco — and losing twice to a tough St. Catherine's team (once in overtime).

Under Coach Ed Czuppa the talented frosh had to settle for a second place after the two hard losses to Bosco and Jordan. Showing up well this year were two good prospects for the varsity, Alioto and Larkin, with other starters Sonnenberg, Cavallo and O'Neil; their strong bench consisted of Simeth, Reveret and Stenz.

The team looked very good and is sure to help the varsity and B teams next year.

HUSTLING TIM LARKIN rips down another rebound with help from Ed Simeth whose head is peeking over Larkin's head. Dan O'Neil and Pete Brewer are coming in to give a hand to the hard fighting Marquette frosh.

And Kenney's B's and all the brawny midgets

Frosh "B" Team

LADY LUCK was not especially propitious and kind to the Frosh B team this year. In compiling a 2-10 record, Mr. Daniel Kenney's charges lost five games by less than three points, two games to sophomores, and one overtime tilt. Lack of practice time and inexperience were two of the main factors leading to the "Bees" record.

Coach Kenney started the season with fourteen guards and one center. Trying to find the five that would work best together was a difficult task, and ten players at one time or another were classified as "first string." The players who saw the heaviest action were John Costello, Dave Thompson, John Kenny, and Jim Gutmann. Close behind were the likes of O'Neill, Hausmann, Cook, Chaney, McGinley, and McNally.

Frosh Midgets

AFTER AN ABSENCE of one year, a Freshman "Midget" basketball team reappeared on the Marquette scene. Under the tutelage of Mr. Thomas McHale, S.J., the team gave freshmen under 5'6" a chance to develop their basketball skills. Despite the handicaps of a late start, lack of practice time, and lack of height, the team rang up a 10-5 record.

The high scorer of the team was Dan Madigan. He was helped out in the front line by John Grabeau and Mark Zovic. "Smaller" men who played the guards on the team were Tom Cichy, Mike Mireau, and Mike Malaney. These three boys developed a press that gave fits to many of their opponents. Victories for the "Midgets" came over such highly rated teams as St. Pius X and St. Joseph's of Grafton. Although small in stature, these Frosh were big in heart while representing Marquette against willing grade school teams in the area.

To win is sweet; we hailed the conquering Rhinos

TWEET! The whistle blows as one foul comes up on Mr. Edward Czuppa. The Rhino he is fouling is Dick Monday, while Ed Turner (right) and Mr. Richard McCaslin, S.J., follow up the action.

Intramurals

ONCE AGAIN this year the students conquered the faculty in the student-faculty basketball game. The team that did it was the Rhinos, outdoing the teachers by a 49-42 score. The Rhinos were an all-Junior team; and this year's win extended the students' winning streak to two in this annual game. The high scorer for the Rhinos was Bob (Doc) Cary with 10 points while Mr. Paul Noack led the faculty's efforts with 11.

In winning the right to play in this coveted game, the Rhinos won the Booster Tournament, defeating two Senior teams in the semifinal and final rounds. First they beat the Cyclones, and then romped over the Bearcats in the finale. Bill Croke's 27 points in the championship game was the highest individual total of the whole tournament.

TREASURED points against the faculty are held by Bill Croke as he sails in for a lay-up. Other players watching the action are Mr. Thomas McHale, S.J. (left), Ed Turner, Mr. J. R. McNally, S.J., Mr. Daniel Kenney, S.J. (right).

They churned the sky blue waters, dived and plunged

THE MUSCLE-BOUND Marquette mermen who splashed their way to a 9-3-2 record are: Top row (l. to r.): Woodward, Sullo, Tole, Bash, Schlichting, Kalmer, Reiton, Cordes, Woods, Weber. Second row: C. Greiff, Alcott, McArdle, Casper, Devitt, Treis, Camin, Bartness, Schmitt. Bottom row: Malloy, Sptel, Ball, Carpenter, Madaus, Suhi, Gigot, J. Greiff, Voigt, Rice, Nowicki. Not pictured: Palatella.

FR. MAC — Fr. Harold McAuliffe, S.J. — coach of this year's very successful swimming team, discusses meet strategy with three of his top swimmers — Pat Devitt, John Weber and John Woods. Woods was the mainstay of the team, scoring a high of 105 points.

SWIMMING

THIS YEAR'S swimming team, under the able direction of Fr. Harold McAuliffe, S.J., again compiled a very impressive record. The fact that they began the season with no lettermen posed a problem for the team, but experience gradually came and the swimmers finished the season with seven straight victories. The final record was 9 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties.

The nine victories were accomplished over the mermen from Greenfield, West Milwaukee, West Allis Central (2), Milwaukee Lutheran (2), Cudahy, Rufus King, and Lincoln. Losses came at the hands of such powers as West Division, Concordia, and Loyola (of Chicago), while there were ties with West Division (in a return meet) and Sheboygan Central.

This year's team had an equal number of seniors and juniors contributing to its success. Junior John Woods ran away with the individual scoring honors with 105 points, and Sophomore Pat Devitt finished a distant second. Seniors Joe Schmitt and John Weber tied for third with 57.8 points and will be sorely missed next year. Three juniors however, that brighten the picture are Vic Cordes, Jim Nowicki, and Mike Ball. Others who did well for the team were Chuck Greiff, Jim Sptel, John Palatella, Don Treis, Gary Reiton, and Tom Tole.

And lashed out backstrokes, crawls, and butterflies

JOHN WEBER may be wondering who the nitwit was that left a bar of soap on the edge of the pool. Weber was the squad's top diver this year.

JOHN PALATELLA demonstrates the way he reached here from Italy. John was a handy man to have around in the 100 and 200 yard free-style event.

MIKE BALL splashes and churns as he executes the very difficult butterfly stroke. He totaled 45.1 points during this year.

TOM STAFF handles the stopwatch as Gary Reiton completes his turn and Jim Casper dives, in the fast and furious relay race.

The ruthless wrestlers flexed their supple sinews

THE WRESTLERS who participated in the state meet are: Top row (l. to r.): Pat McCarville, Pollock, Jim McCarville, Kaestner, Murtaugh. Bottom row: Mann, Pallasch, Danninger, Fridl and Mooney.

ON TOP right now is Pat McCarville, but tricky Ken Kaestner is planning to change things. McCarville and Kaestner were Marquette's top men in the state meet at Don Bosco.

Wrestling

AFTER A TWO-YEAR break, once again Marquette High students donned wrestling suits. Though they were extremely handicapped, Marquette matmen turned in impressive showing in the Wisconsin Catholic state wrestling tournament held at Don Bosco March 19.

The squad, consisting of six seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman, placed fifth in the tournament with nineteen points. The team was led by Pat McCarville, Ken Kaestner, and Bob Murtaugh, who placed second, third and fourth respectively, in their weight divisions. Team scoring was led by Pat McCarville with nine points.

The very fact that Marquette took fifth place without the assistance of a coach and the fact that there were very few practice sessions, shows what Marquette could accomplish in wrestling — with the proper coaching, facilities, and enthusiastic support.

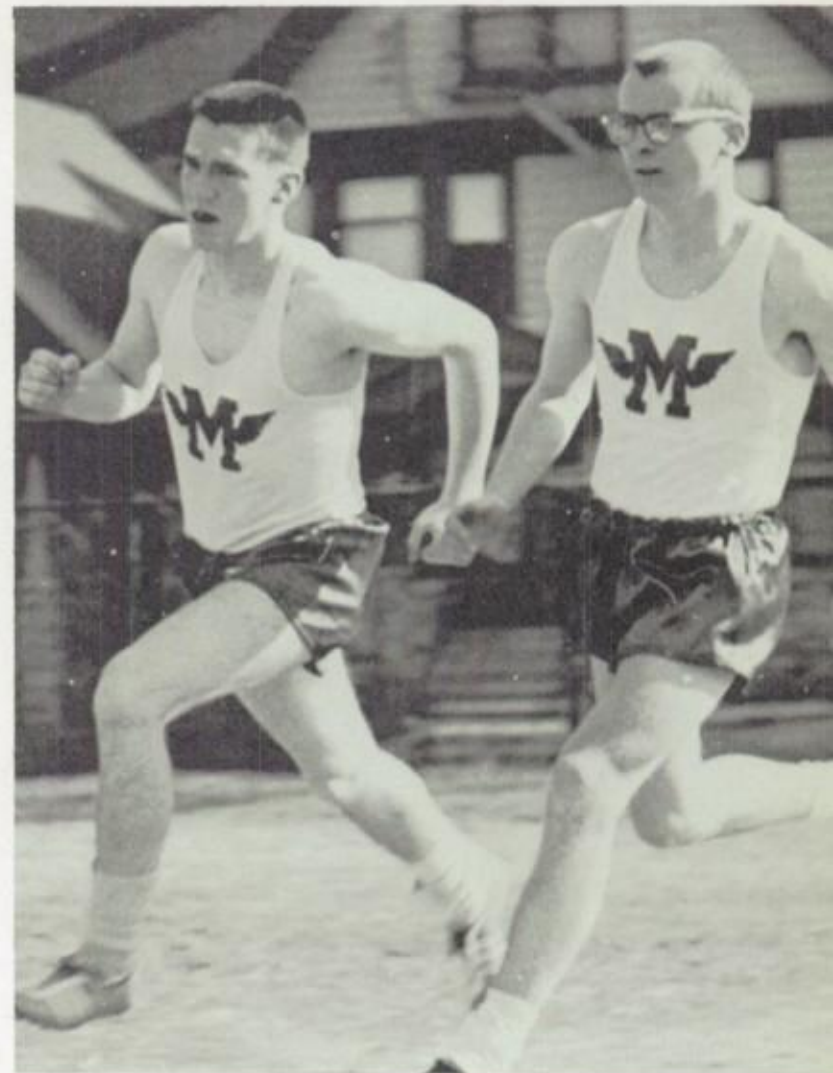

And flashing spikes sped over cinder tracks

MARQUETTE TRACK — 1960

IT WAS still early in March, with winter's glacial wreckage here and spring's torrential rains yet to come, when the first call for track was announced. The reason for the early start was two-fold: to set practice for the indoor meets and to get a jump on the rest of the teams in the area. The indoor meets were The Milwaukee Journal Games, in which we entered our relay team, and our own invitational meet at Marquette University gym. In this meet, we competed against such powers as Pius XI and St. George (of Chicago).

Because track is a sport which requires rebuilding every year, Marquette started out inexperienced in several events — the sprints, the hurdles, and the high jump. Bill Projieck and John Onestinghel, however, filled in well in the sprints, and Tom Drolshagen and Steve Delahunt did a yeoman's job in the hurdles. Old reliables Dennis McNally and Wayne Kallenberger plus newcomer John Martin made the 440 a strong event, and Tom Butler, Chuck Dunlap, and Gary Glojek also did well in the mile.

Perhaps our strongest event, however, was the half mile. Senior Jim Hanson turned in some of the fastest times in the state, while Al Doyle and George Kuetemeyer stayed right on his heels. Another very strong event was the pole vault, in which Mike Skwieraski and Bill Kwapy were our best men. Onestinghel, Drolshagen, and Doug Roecker led the Hilltop forces in the broad jump, while the high jump was mainly an underclassmen's event. Although no one person was outstanding in the weights, many points were earned by the consistency of experienced seniors Tom Maruszewski and Kris Kriofske, and juniors John Grellinger and Paul Kukla.

QUARTER-MILERS Dennis McNally and Wayne Kallenberger show the form that made them a tough one-two punch in this event. McNally is a senior and completing his fourth year of track, but Kallenberger is only a junior and has one year ahead of him.

MEMBERS of the 1960 Marquette High track team are: Top row (l. to r.): Raveret, Hausmann, LaKosh, Francis Arndorfer, Butler, Dermody, Gutmann, Klement, Wentland, Calvey, Jonovic, Janicki, Mgr. Thon. Third row: Burke, Pallasch, Projieck, Mgr. Malloy, McNally, Hanson, Fridl, Kriofske, Probst, Ken Wentland, Upton, Maruszewski, Grellinger, Keenan, Kukla, Delahunt, Kallenberger, Falk, Mgr. Quirk. Second row: Coach Kopenski, Tom Schulz, Foy, Kwapy, Black, Martin, Onestinghel, Drolshagen, Bell, Glojek, Williams, Gaynor, Kozina, Langhoff. Front row: Dave Schulz, Skierawski, Roecker, Meurer, Schlosser, Baker, Thompson, Carney, McHugh, Pfeifer, Cerminaro, Kuetemeyer, Dropp, Schmitt. Not Pictured: McGavick, Doyle, Dunlop.

And some swept up into the springtime sky

CONCENTRATION, we see here, plays a big role in Mike Skwierawski's pole vault effort, mike was once more one of the top vaulters in the state, climbing above 10 ft. several times.

STRAINING EVERY possible muscle, Jim Hanson(left) and Al Doyle finish a short sprint in the basement corridor. Bad weather early in the season forced the track team to do their conditioning indoors.

TIMING THE RUNNERS is a very important task in track; and here the job falls into the hands of Coach Kopenski and Mgr. Thon, while Mgr. Malloy keeps track of the results.

A shot—the sprinters breaking from the blocks,

AND THEY'RE OFF — Two of Marquette's fine group of sprinters show how to start the 100-yard dash. The two are Bill Projieck (left) and John Onestinghel.

SENIOR LEADER Tom Drolshagen here demonstrates the correct form of hurdling. Tom and Steve Delahunt joined to represent the Hilltoppers in this event.

JOHN GRELLINGER winds up to whip out the discus while Tom Maruszewski looks on. Both were top men for Marquette in the weights.

STRIDING SMOOTHLY is Junior Chuck Dunlap, Marquette's top miler again this year. The future is bright for this young three-sport star.

The driving serve, the slicing, swift return

HERE IS THE 1960 Marquette High "Racket Squad": Top row (l. to r.): Schmitt, Starck, Von Bereghy, McKenna, Jim Casper, Brecht, Shebelski, Mr. Francis Mininni, S.J. Bottom row: Schuetz, Pelkey, Gauer, Spalatin, Skip Casper, Barry, Finley, Hart. Absent: C. Miller, F. Lang, Garrity.

FINE FORM is shown on his serve by Jim McKenna while Jim Pelkey, McKenna's doubles partner, gets set for the return. These two sophomores are bright spots in Marquette's tennis future.

Tennis

WORK, WORK and more work was the dominating factor in this year's tennis picture. Workouts started in the middle of March got the team in top physical condition to meet such powers as Custer, Boys' Tech and Campion (at Prairie du Chien).

The new tennis instructor this year was Mr. Francis Mininni, S.J. Mr. Mininni used the talent available this year, but kept a sharp eye out for the future also. And the future does not look too dark, either, as the 1960 "racketeers" were mainly underclassmen. The only senior regular was Mike Starck while Greg Schmitt held the fort for the juniors. Sophs Jim Pelkey and Jim McKenna are two of the players to watch in years to come.

While mighty sluggers fanned the balmy breeze

BASEBALL — 1960

DEFENSE OF the 1959 State Catholic Baseball Championship was the big thing in the minds of all baseball players at Marquette High this year. However, it was a tough job. Gone from last year's champs were eight of the top ten men. Only Senior Pat Sheehan and Junior Gerry Chmielewski were back.

Regarded early in the year as a dark horse, the Hilltoppers proved that they were a formidable contender right from the start. Despite their inexperience, the team played like veterans. This was due chiefly to the presence of many juniors and seniors who were on the team last year, but did not get a chance to play. Among these were Pitchers George Driest and Craig Streff, and infielders and outfielders Paul Gramling, Jim Rebholz, Greg Cherney, and Tim Bruett. Add to these newcomers Jim Mago, John Pfannerstill, and Joe Carpenter, and you have the nucleus of the team that Coach Edward Czuppa used to defend the State Crown.

Coach Edward Czuppa

And swept the ball up for the double play

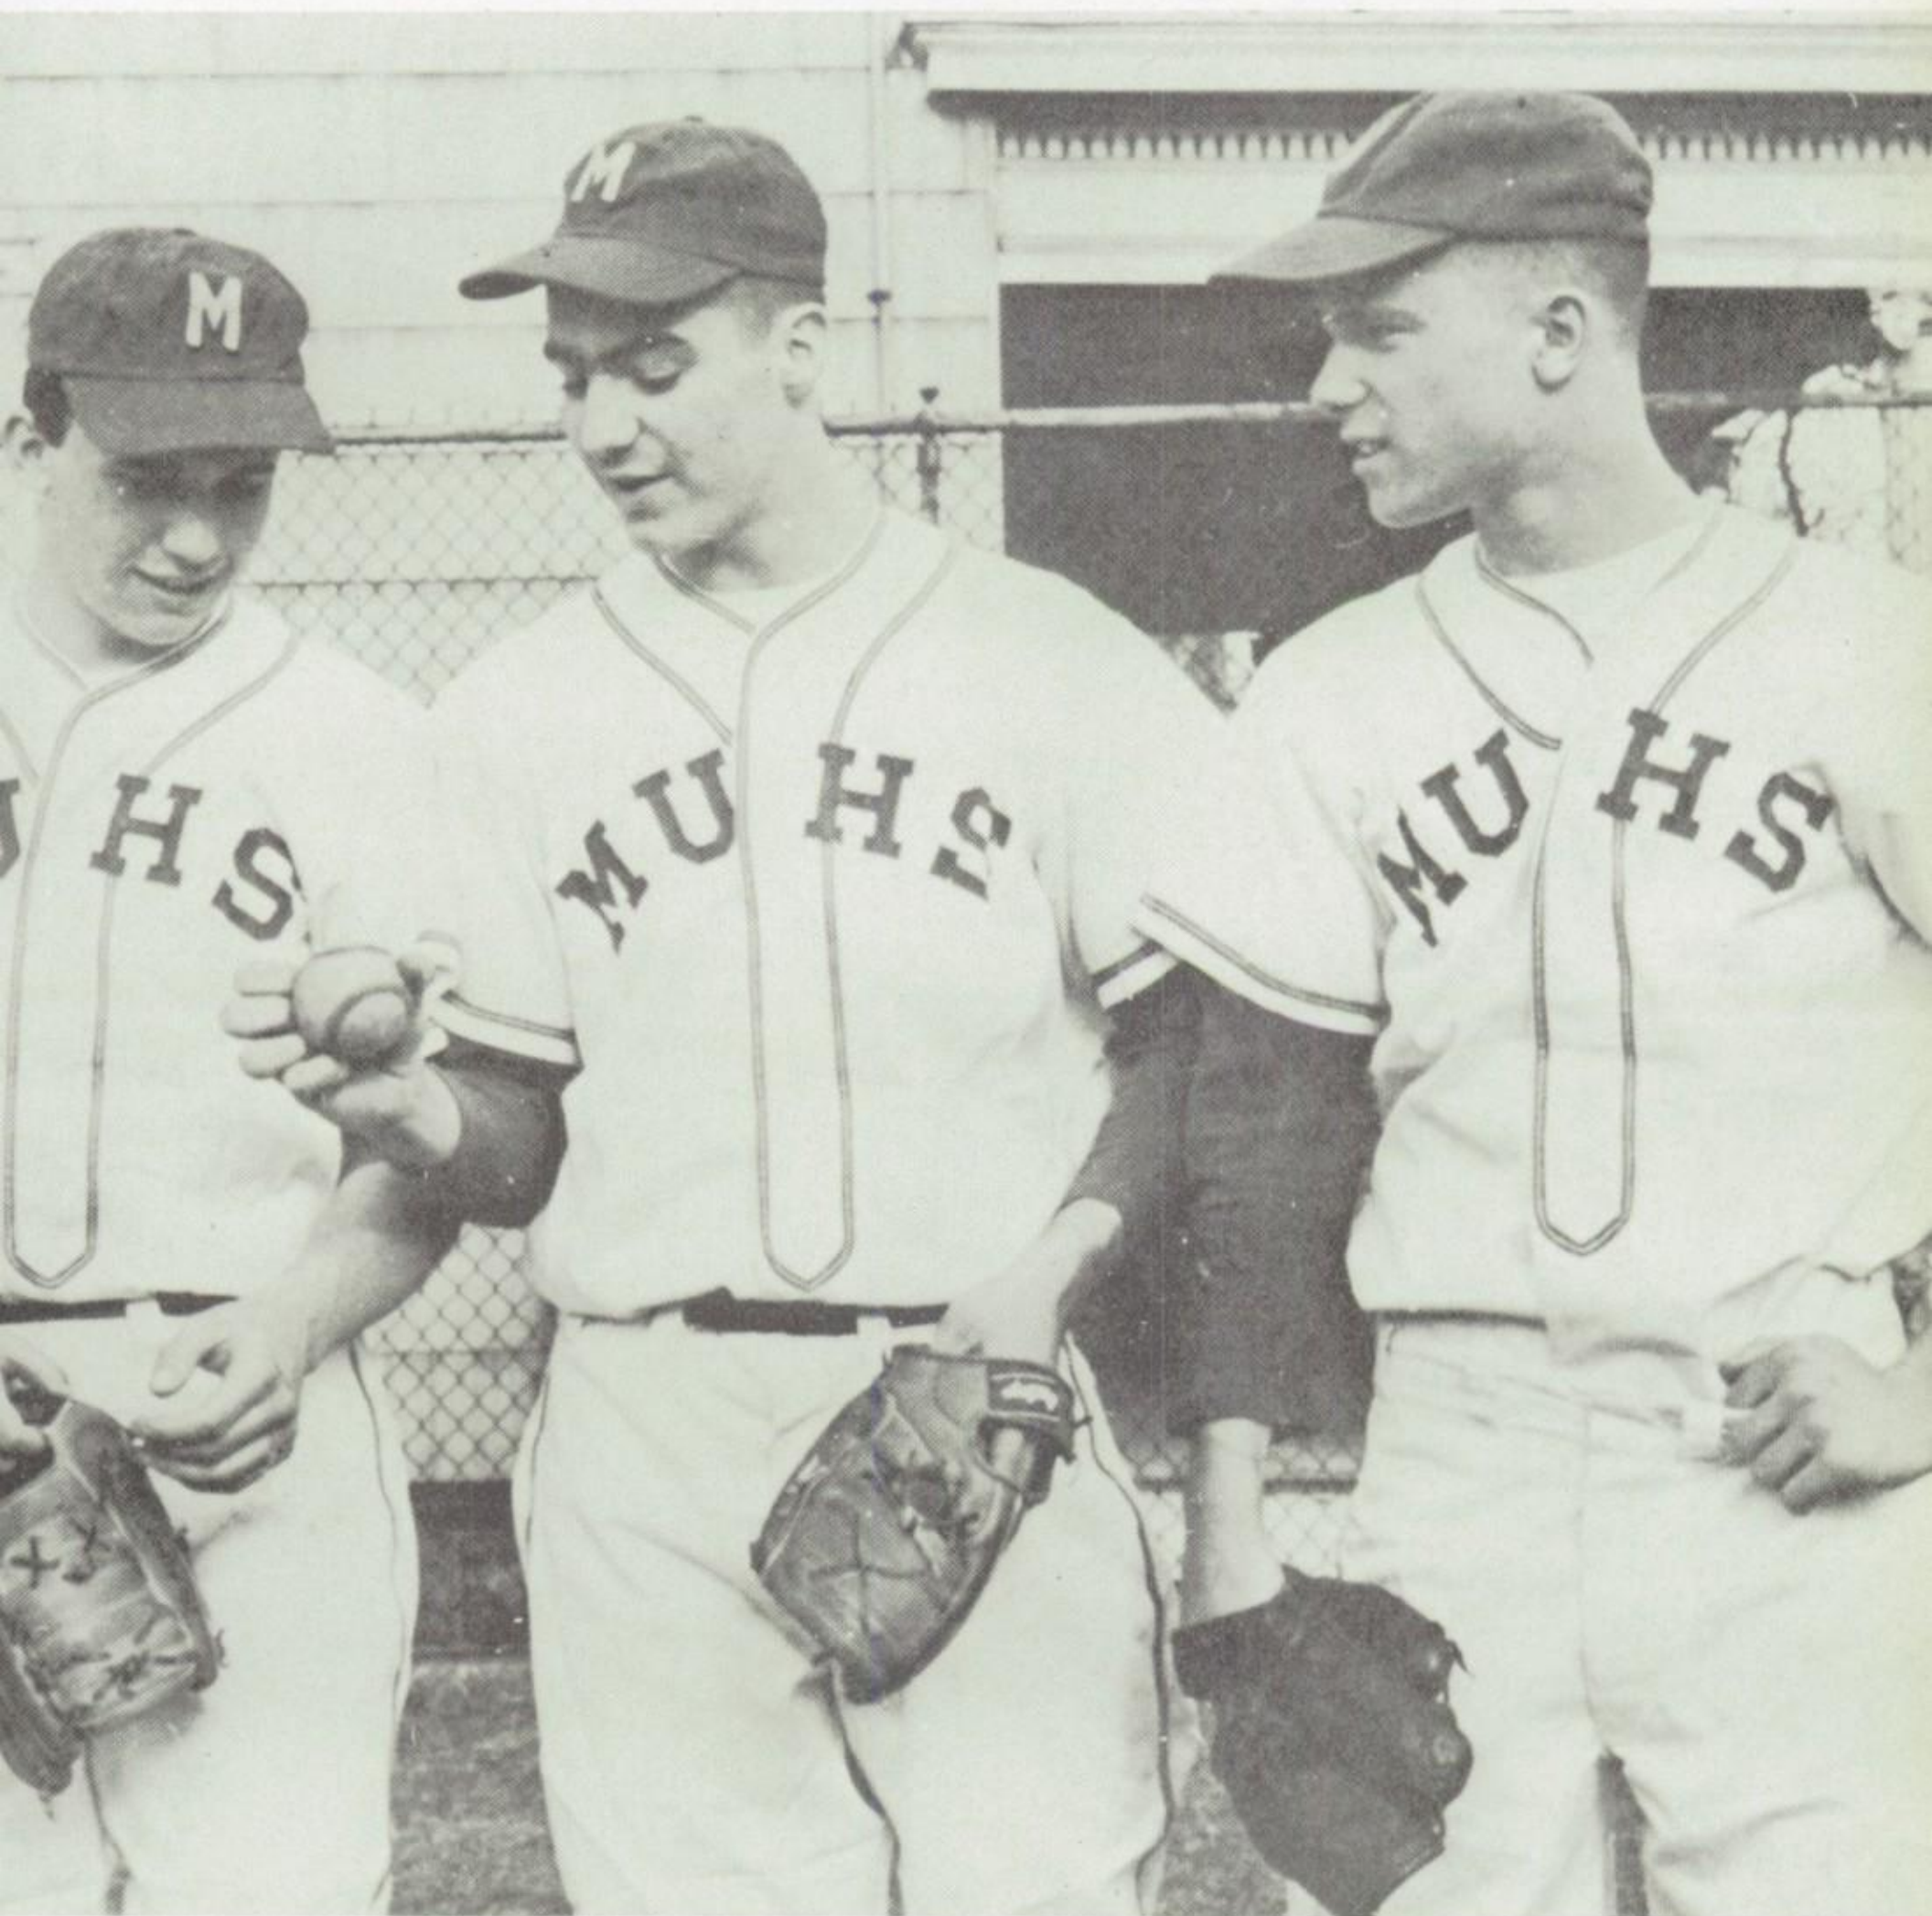

SURE FIELDING third-baseman Pat Sheehan gobbles up a grounder.

TIM BRUETT, a two year veteran and a triple threat man on this year's squad, stretches to backhand a low throw.

"THIS IS HOW the pros do it," says Craig Streff as he demonstrates his knuckleballing technique to some unbelieving teammates.

They planned anew a winning strategy

The golfers sent the spheroids winging

Golf

LED BY the returning links lettermen, John Weber, John Snyder, Ed Turner, and James Schaller, the Marquette golf team is out to win back the State Championship relinquished to Fondulac St. Mary last year. St. Kate will provide the toughest competition, but a strong four-man nucleus and four underclassmen round out an eight-man Marquette squad that will be out to cop the title. Greenfield park, home links of the Marquette team, is the setting for this year's par breaking scores.

Coach Kenny's squad will play eight conference games in addition to eight non-conference matches, culminating with the State tournament on May 20.

THE "MASTERS TOUCH" is the goal of John Weber, one of the mainstays of this year's golf squad.

While keglers kept the alleys singing.

Bowling

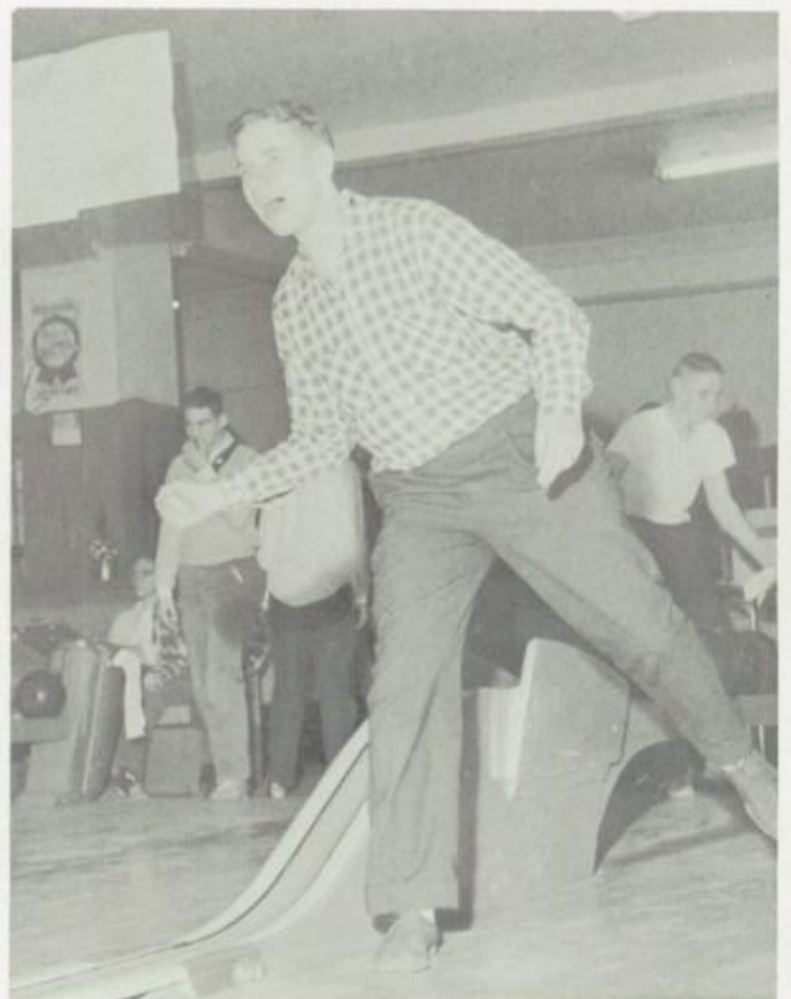

THE BOWLING season, under the direction of Mr. Frank Michuda, again attracted many MH Men to the Junior-Senior Bowling League. One hundred men, meeting once a week at the well-groomed Eagle's Club Lanes, proved to be a well assorted group of good as well as bad bowlers. Some of the high games were a 246 by Bob Krill, a 238 by Jim Blommer, and a 234 by Mike Snyder. Team number nine held the team one-game high of 836 and also the team two-games high of 1604.

FRANK BALISTRERI and Dick Tillmar ponder over the scores in the midst of a turmoil of emotions ranging from unrestrained joy to disgust and sorrow.

GERRY MONDAY insures a high score by slipping the payola to a very happy recipient. Mr. Michuda obviously enjoys moderating the Junior-Senior Bowling League.

DON QUINLAN screams in anguish an another 7-10 split remains. This was a familiar scene at the Eagles Club every Wednesday afternoon as the Junior-Senior Bowling League rattled the alleys.

Advertising

NO PUBLICATION can be successfully sold at or above the cost of printing it. Its purchasers can only pay a fraction of the cost of producing it. The rest must be paid for by its advertisers and boosters. The more of this kind of backing a publication gets, the higher the quality possible. So, it is with due appreciation that we present the corporations, companies, groups, and individuals who have expressed their faith in, and loyalty to, this publication and to the institution it represents, by purchasing a portion of its space to advertise their products or by contributing to it as boosters or patrons. In so doing, they have provided the finances necessary to insure its existence and its quality.

Ode to 217

We do our best to do our jobs
We fight off each defeat
We try so hard, not to be slob
No wonder we are beat.

For being the coolest in school
Surely we are feared
But being cool is not enough for us . . .
We want our leader to grow a beard.
